Genesis And Trace Derrida Reading Husserl And Heidegger Cultural Memory In The Present:

Genesis and Trace Paola Marrati, 2005 Paola Marrati considers the philosophical sources of Derrida's thought through his reading of both Husserl and Heidegger. Notions such as the contamination of the empirical and the transcendental dissemination and writing are explained as a guiding thread that runs through Derrida's early and later works. Genesis and Trace Paola Marrati, 2005 Paola Marrati considers the philosophical sources of Derrida's thought through his reading of both Husserl and Heidegger. Notions such as the contamination of the empirical and the transcendental dissemination and writing are explained as a guiding thread that runs through Derrida's early and later works. Religion and Cultural

Memory Jan Assmann, Rodney Livingstone, 2006 In ten brilliant essays Jan Assmann explores the connections between religion, culture and memory. Building on Maurice Halbwachs's idea that memory like language is a social phenomenon as well as an individual one, he argues that memory has a cultural dimension too. He develops a persuasive view of the life of the past in such surface phenomena as codes, religious rites and festivals and canonical texts on the one hand and in the Freudian psychodrama of repressing and resurrecting the past on the other. Whereas the current fad for oral history inevitably focuses on the actual memories of the last century or so, Assmann presents a commanding view of culture extending over five thousand years. He focuses on cultural memory from the Egyptians, Babylonians and the Osage Indians down to recent controversies about memorializing the Holocaust in Germany and the role of memory in the current disputes between Israelis and Palestinians in the Middle East and between Protestants and Catholics in Northern Ireland. The Material Image

Brigitte Peucker, 2007 Focusing on intermediality, The Material Image situates film within questions of representation familiar from the other arts. What is meant by figuring the real? How is the real suggested by visual metaphors and what is its relation to illusion? How is the spectator figured as entering the text and how does the image enter our world? The film's spectator is integral to these concerns. Cognitive and phenomenological approaches to perception alike claim that spectatorial affect is real even when it is film that produces it. Central to the staging of intermediality in film, tableaux moments in film also figure prominently in the book. Films by Scorsese, Greenaway, Wenders and Kubrick are seen to address painterly, photographic and digital images in relation to effects of the real. Hitchcock's films are examined with regard to modernist and realist effects in painting. Chapters on Fassbinder and Haneke analyze the significance of tableau for the body in pain while a final chapter on horror film explores the literalism of psychopathic tableau. Here too art and the body images and the real are juxtaposed and entwined in a set of relations. Structures of Memory

Jennifer A. Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin, particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies, museums or commemorative monuments. Empathic Vision Jill Bennett, 2005 This book analyzes contemporary visual art produced in the context of conflict and trauma from a range of countries including Colombia.

Northern Ireland South Africa and Australia It focuses on what makes visual language unique arguing that the affective quality of art contributes to a new understanding of the experience of trauma and loss By extending the concept of empathy it also demonstrates how we might through art make connections with people in different parts of the world whose experiences differ from our own The book makes a distinct contribution to trauma studies which has tended to concentrate on literary forms of expression It also offers a sophisticated theoretical analysis of the operations of art drawing on philosophers such as Gilles Deleuze but setting this within a postcolonial framework Empathic Vision will appeal to anyone interested in the role of culture in post September 11 global politics Questioning Judaism Jacques Derrida, Elisabeth Weber, 2004 This volume presents the meditations of seven well known French thinkers on the special relations of their own intellectual pursuit to Judaism The Unthought Debt Marlène Zarader, 2006 Drawing on Heidegger's corpus the work of historians and biblical specialists and contemporary philosophers like Levinas and Derrida Zarader brings to light the evolution of an impens or unthought thought that bespeaks a complex debt at the core of Heidegger's hermeneutic ontology Zarader argues forcefully that in his interpretation of Western thought and culture Heidegger manages to recognize only two main lines of inheritance the Greek line of philosophical thinking and the Christian tradition of faith From this perspective Heidegger systematically avoids any explicit or meaningful recognition of the contribution made by the Hebraic biblical and exegetical traditions to Western thought and culture Zarader argues that this avoidance is significant not simply because it involves an inexcusable historical oversight but more importantly because Heidegger's own philosophical project draws on and develops themes that appear first and fundamentally within the very Hebraic traditions that he avoids betraying an unthought debt to Hebraic tradition Deleuzian Concepts Paul Patton, 2010-05-19 Patton's book is an important and innovative contribution to Deleuze studies and to contemporary debates in philosophy and the humanities His arguments are convincing and stimulating they open the way for a new and sober reading of Deleuze and bring him into dialogue with the tradition of political liberalism and pragmatism His use of the concept of the event to understand the history of colonization gives the reader a compelling example of what the political function of philosophy is or could be Paola Marrati The Johns Hopkins University Book Jacket The Aesthetic Paths of Philosophy Alison Ross, 2007 Ross argues that the thinking of Heidegger Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy must be understood as ways of addressing the problem of presentation as framed by and inherited from Kant's Critique of Judgment Desire and Distance Renaud Barbaras, 2006 Desire and Distance constitutes an important new departure in contemporary phenomenological thought a rethinking and critique of basic philosophical positions concerning the concept of perception presented by Husserl and Merleau Ponty though it departs in significant and original ways from their work Barbaras's overall goal is to develop a philosophy of what life is one that would do justice to the question of embodiment and its role in perception and the formation of the human subject Barbaras posits that desire and distance inform the concept of life Levinas identified a similar structure in Descartes's notion of the infinite

For Barbaras desire and distance are anchored not in meaning but in a rethinking of the philosophy of biology and in consequence cosmology Barbaras elaborates and extends the formal structure of desire and distance by drawing on motifs as yet unexplored in the French phenomenological tradition especially the notions of life and the life world which are prominent in the later Husserl but also appear in non phenomenological thinkers such as Bergson Barbaras then filters these notions especially life through Merleau Ponty

Take Care of Freedom and Truth Will Take Care of Itself Richard Rorty, Eduardo Mendieta, 2006 This volume collects a number of important and revealing interviews with Richard Rorty spanning more than two decades of his public intellectual commentary engagement and criticism In colloquial language Rorty discusses the relevance and nonrelevance of philosophy to American political and public life The collection also provides a candid set of insights into Rorty s political beliefs and his commitment to the labor and union traditions in this country Finally the interviews reveal Rorty to be a deeply engaged social thinker and observer

Sublime Historical Experience F. R. Ankersmit, 2005 Why are we interested in history at all Why do we feel the need to distinguish between past and present This book investigates how the notion of sublime historical experience complicates and challenges existing conceptions of language truth and knowledge

Naming the Witch James T. Siegel, 2006 Naming the Witch explores the recent series of witchcraft accusations and killings in East Java which spread as the Suharto regime slipped into crisis and then fell After many years of ethnographic work focusing on the origins and nature of violence in Indonesia Siegel came to the conclusion that previous anthropological explanations of witchcraft and magic mostly based on sociological conceptions but also including the work of E E Evans Pritchard and Claude Lévi Strauss were simply inadequate to the task of providing a full understanding of the phenomena associated with sorcery and particularly with the ideas of power connected with it Previous explanations have tended to see witchcraft in simple opposition to modernism and modernity enchantment vs disenchantment The author sees witchcraft as an effect of culture when the latter is incapable of dealing with accident death and the fear of the disintegration of social and political relations He shows how and why modernization and witchcraft can often be companions as people strive to name what has hitherto been unnameable

The Present Alone is Our Happiness Pierre Hadot, Jeannie Carlier, Arnold Ira Davidson, 2009 In this book of brilliantly erudite and precise discussions which also serves as an introduction to Pierre Hadot s more scholarly works Hadot explains that for the Ancients philosophy was not reducible to the building of a theoretical system it was above all a choice about how to live one s life

Powers of the Secular Modern David Scott, Charles Hirschkind, 2006 This book presents a set of critical engagements by writers from a variety of disciplines with the work of noted anthropologist Talal Asad

Reflections of Equality Christoph Menke, 2006 The book argues that the center of political modernity is determined by a conflictive relation between the liberal core concept of political equality and the idea of individuality

Retroactive Justice István Rév, 2005 The book offers a vast panorama of Communism from the perspective of its collapse and inspects the world beyond the fall in the distorting mirror of its imagined prehistory providing in the process a perceptive analysis of a number of the fundamental issues of history writing

Algeria Cuts Ranjana Khanna, 2008 Algeria Cuts discusses the figure of woman both under colonial rule in Algeria and within the postcolonial independent nation state. It is an interdisciplinary project that spans fine art, film, colonial and legal policy, manifestos, prose fiction and theoretical and philosophical texts concerning the relationship between France and Algeria. Khanna investigates gendered representation, identification and justice and in the process calls into question the ways in which conventional disciplinary frameworks foreclose certain avenues of reflection while foregrounding others. Algeria Cuts seeks to understand Algeria and Algerian women as a philosophical site that facilitates an understanding of justice and the pursuit of feminism.

Aesthetics of Appearing Martin Seel, 2005 This book proposes that aesthetics begin not with concepts of being or semblance but with a concept of appearing. Seel examines the existential and cultural meaning of aesthetic experience. In doing so, he brings aesthetics and philosophy of art together again, which in continental as well as analytical thinking have been more and more separated in the recent decades.
