Cultures in Motion Daniel T. Rodgers,Bhavani Raman,Helmut Reimitz,2013-12-08 In the wide ranging and innovative essays of Cultures in Motion a dozen distinguished historians offer new conceptual vocabularies for understanding how cultures have trespassed across geography and social space From the transformations of the meanings and practices of charity during late antiquity and the transit of medical knowledge between early modern China and Europe to the fusion of Irish and African dance forms in early nineteenth century New York these essays follow a wide array of cultural practices through the lens of motion translation itinerancy and exchange extending the insights of transnational and translocal history Cultures in Motion challenges the premise of fixed stable cultural systems by showing that cultural practices have always been moving crossing borders and locations with often surprising effect The essays offer striking examples from early to modern times of intrusion translation resistance and adaptation These are histories where nothing dance rhythms alchemical formulas musical practices feminist aspirations sewing machines streamlined metals or labor networks remains stationary In addition to the editors the contributors are Celia Applegate Peter Brown Harold Cook April Masten Mae Ngai Jocelyn Olcott Mimi Sheller Pamela Smith and Nira Wickramasinghe Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions

The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith,2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike Remapping the Humanities Mary Garrett, Heidi Gottfried, Sandra F.

VanBurkleo, 2008 An innovative collection demonstrating the rich potential for interdisciplinary learning found within the network of university based humanities centers Remapping the Humanities celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Wayne State University Humanities Center by bringing together essays that illustrate the richness of public conversations developed in interdisciplinary humanities centers The contributors to this collection represent more than a dozen disciplines including philosophy English political science history law comparative literature and Spanish and taken together their essays illustrate an ongoing remapping of the intellectual landscape as scholars from across university departments engage one another in unpredictable ways This volume is divided into four thematic sections Identity and Community Remembering and Forgetting Nationalism and Globalism and Toward Post Modernity Yet the essays deliberately represent a range of theoretical perspectives that interact synergistically such as feminism and postcolonial studies or literary criticism and art history They also tackle topics as varied as the formation of the modern family in France and the inculcation of civic virtue in American cities and they draw freely from different sources of evidence like newspaper accounts popular literature paintings and diaries Remapping the Humanities includes unique touches such as a portfolio of full color images and an audio CD of Celtic inspired jazz In addition a preface by Walter Edwards academic director of the Humanities Center at Wayne State University gives some background on this institution and the work being done there The importance of Remapping the Humanities ultimately lies in its refusal to say that learning has ended and the example it provides of the value of calculated ferment and intellectual instability Educators involved with or wanting to learn more about interdisciplinary research will appreciate this unique collection Cultural Heritage in Transit Deborah Kapchan, 2014-05-21 Are human rights universal The immediate response is yes of course However that simple affirmation assumes agreement about definitions of the human as well as what a human is entitled to under law bringing us quickly to concepts such as freedom property and the inalienability of both The assumption that we all mean the same things by these terms carries much political import especially given that different communities national ethnic religious gendered enact some of the most basic categories of human experience self home freedom sovereignty differently But whereas legal definitions often seek to eliminate ambiguity in order to define and protect the rights of humanity ambiguity is in fact inherently human especially in performances of heritage where the rights to sense to imagine and to claim cultural identities that resist circumscription are at play Cultural Heritage in Transit examines the intangibilities of human rights in the realm of heritage production focusing not only on the ephemeral culture of those who perform it but also on the ambiguities present in the idea of cultural property in general who claims it who may use it who should not but does In this volume folklorists ethnologists and anthropologists analyze the practice and performance of culture in particular contexts including Roma wedding music Trinidadian wining Moroccan verbal art and Neopagan rituals in order to draw apart the social political and aesthetic materialities of heritage production including inequities and hierarchies that did not exist before The authors collectively craft theoretical frameworks to make sense of the ways the rights of nations interact with the rights of individuals and communities when the public value of artistic creations is constituted through international law Contributors Valdimar Tr Hafstein Deborah Kapchan Barbro Klein Sabina Magliocco Dorothy Noyes Philip W Scher Carol Silverman

International Women's Year Jocelyn Olcott, 2017 A rich narrative of the 1975 International Women's Year Conference in Mexico City where the idiom sisterhood is powerful was fractured by global feminism

De-Centering Cold War History Jadwiga E. Pieper Mooney, Fabio Lanza, 2013-01-25 De Centering Cold War History challenges the Cold War master narratives that focus on super power politics by shifting our analytical perspective to include local level experiences and regional initiatives that were crucial to the making of a Cold War world Cold War histories are often told as stories of national leaders state policies and the global confrontation that pitted a Communist Eastern Bloc against a Capitalist West Taking a new analytical approach this book reveals unexpected complexities in the historical trajectory of the Cold War Contributions from an international group of scholars take a fresh look at historical agency in different places across the world including Africa Asia Europe and the Americas This collaborative effort shapes a street level history of the global Cold War era one that uses the analysis of the local to rethink and reframe the wider picture of the global connecting the political negotiations of individuals and communities at the intersection of places and of meeting points between ordinary people and political elites to the Cold War at large Essential reading for all students of Cold War history

Human Rights Struggles in Twentieth-century France Max Likin, 2022-10-07 This book provides an introduction to human rights controversies in twentieth century France from the Dreyfus Affair at the beginning of the century to the arguments over women and immigrants rights at its end Using the Ligue des Droits de L Homme LDH or the League of the Rights of Man as a narrative thread for this chronological study the book tracks the gradual expansion of human rights in France in the wake of the two world wars the Algerian quagmire and decolonisation more generally Examining the capital role of the LDH whilst also highlighting the role of individuals and key activists the book helps us to contextualise the quandaries faced by unseen minorities particularly colonial subjects and women The analysis also demonstrates the influence of French human rights activism on key international documents of human rights law such as the Universal Declaration of Human Rights The LDH occupies a central place in French justice debates and is therefore an ideal template to analyse the rising influence of humanitarianism and crimes against humanity in French causes c l bres from the 1970s onwards However the author goes further to look beyond the LDH and even France itself offering wide ranging surveys of dominant rights issues across Europe at any given period Drawing on extensive research and interviews with key members of the LDH this book provides an accessible overview of human rights struggles in twentieth century France Feminisms/Museums/Surveys Hilary

Anceschi,Gennaro Gervasio,Andrea Teti,2014-02-05 Over the last decade or so academic and non academic observers have focussed mainly if not exclusively on the institutions and places of formal power in the Greater Middle East depicting politics in the region as a small area limited to local authoritarian rulers In contrast this book aims to explore the hidden geographies of power i e the political dynamics developing inside in parallel to and beyond institutional forums arguing that these hidden geographies play a crucial role both in support of and in opposition to official power By observing less frequented spaces of power co option and negotiation and particularly by focusing on the interplay between formal and informal power this interdisciplinary collection provides new insights in the study of the intersection between policy making and practical political dynamics in the Greater Middle East Contributing a fresh perspective to a much discussed topic Informal Power in the Greater Middle East will be an invaluable resource for students scholars and those interested in the politics of the region
