Global Futures Shaping Globalization:

Global Futures Jan Nederveen Pieterse, 2000 This work looks beyond the problems of accelerating globalization to examine how humanity can shape it The contributors suggest a variety of perspectives changes policies and institutional reforms to strive for in our increasingly inter connected world Civilizing Globalization Richard Sandbrook, 2003-01-09

Discusses the many facets of globalization in easy to understand language Globalization: Global membership and participation Roland Robertson, Kathleen E. White, 2003 Global Finance Walden Bello, Nicola Bullard, Kamal Malhotra, 2000-10 Leading thinkers from both North and South confront what is to be done about the clearly unstable world economic system They examine a range of different ideas and approaches including how do we renew the process of governance of the global economy can the IMF be reformed do we need a new World Financial Authority is there a case for capital controls can an international bankruptcy procedure be set up for countries modelled on the USA s own domestic Chapter 11 could the Tobin Tax on foreign currency transactions be part of the solution and what effective measures are needed to relieve the most deeply indebted countries The SAGE Handbook of Sociology Craig Calhoun, Chris Rojek, Bryan S Turner, 2005-06-18 Sociology has evolved greatly since it s inception as an academic discipline It has diverged into numerous strands often flowing in disparate directions so much so that today the notion of canonical sociology has become widely disputed The field of sociology at present approximates to one of multi paradigmatic complexity in which many approaches to theory must be distinguished and situated In addition the discipline has had to confront new challenges from globalization the shift of interest from production to consumption the rise of new social movements the challenge of bio engineering the collapse of a presently existing socialist alternative and much else besides The new SAGE Handbook of Sociology aims to address these new developments while at the same time providing an authoritative guide to theory and method the key sub disciplines and the primary debates of today To undertake this ambitious project three leading figures in the field of sociology were selected as editors to bring together the foremost exponents of the different strands that contribute towards the make up modern sociology Drawn from both sides of the Atlantic the contributors have been commissioned to utilise the most up to date research available to provide a critical international analysis of their area of expertise The result is this essential resource collection that not just reflects upon the condition of sociology today but also looks to future developments in the discipline The Handbook is invaluable not just all sociologists but to a wide variety of students and researchers across the social sciences Click on Sample Chapters Resources to download the introduction

Edutopias , 2006-01-01 Education has always been part of the search for the ideal society and therefore an important part of the utopian tradition in Western culture politics and literature Education has often served to define the ideal society or to provide the principal means of creating it This unique collection of essays by well known scholars from around the world examines the role of edutopias in the utopian tradition examining its sources and sites as a means for understanding the aims and purposes of education for realizing its societal value and for criticizing its present economic technological and organizational modes These essays will stimulate new thinking in ways that impinge on both theoretical and practical questions as well as offering the reader a series of reminders of the ethical and political dimensions of education and its place in helping to build good and just societies The collection is aimed at an audience of teachers and graduate students although it will also be of interest to administrators policy makers and the general public interested in utopian thinking and its relation to education

Nationalism and Global Solidarities James Goodman, Paul James, 2006-11-29 Even in the face of neoliberal globalization nationalism remains a significant political force The leading contributors to this new volume explore the extent to which nationalism can be a foundation for alternative solidarities Against the axiom that with globalization all that is solid melts into air this anthology debates the extent to which different forms of solidarity remain viable from the solidarities of local political groups to the solidarities of nationalism internationalism and alternative globalisms Organized into three sections the book addresses the relationship between the contemporary formations of nationalism globalism and solidarity movements Part 1 offers a framework for understanding globalization and discusses the effect of globality on nationalism Part 2 addresses the logics of nationalisms in globalizing contexts respectively liberal nationalism left nationalism post colonial nationalism and revivals of nationalism Part 3 addresses issues of solidarity and integration in a world of nationalism and globalism asking how differing forms of connectivity may be emerging disrupting prevailing oppositions and relations focusing on social movements and solidarity Offering the first detailed study of the relationship between globalization and nationalism Nationalism and Global Solidarities will be of strong interest to students and scholars of politics sociology and international political economy

Women's Activism, Feminism, and Social Justice Margaret A. McLaren, 2019 A wide range of issues besieges women globally including economic exploitation sexist oppression racial ethnic and caste oppression and cultural imperialism This book builds a feminist social justice framework from practices of women's activism in India to understand and work to overcome these injustices The feminist social justice framework provides an alternative to mainstream philosophical frameworks that promote global gender justice for example universal human rights economic projects such as microfinance and cosmopolitanism McLaren demonstrates that these frameworks are bound by a commitment to individualism and an abstract sense of universalism that belies their root neo liberalism Arguing that these frameworks emphasize individualism over interdependence similarity over diversity and individual success over collective capacity McLaren draws on the work of Rabindranath Tagore to develop the concept of relational cosmopolitanism Relational cosmopolitanism prioritizes our connections while crucially acknowledging the reality of power differences Extending Iris Young's theory of political responsibility McLaren shows how Fair Trade connects to the economic solidarity movement The Self Employed Women's Association and MarketPlace India empower women through access to livelihoods as well as fostering leadership capabilities that allow them to challenge structural injustice through political and social activism Their struggles to resist economic exploitation and gender oppression through collective action show the vital importance of challenging individualist approaches to achieving gender justice The book is a rallying call for a shift in our thinking and practice towards re imagining the possibilities for justice from a relational framework from independence to interdependence from identity to intersectionality and from interest to socio political imagination Globalisation and Labour Ronaldo Munck,2002-07 Intellectual fashion likes to see us as consumers but the world of production and services still needs workers Globalization has been driven by the transnational corporations search for cheap labour but little attention has been paid to the consequent changes in the world of work Ronaldo Munck argues that the national period in labour history is decisively over

Education in the Creative Economy Daniel Araya,Michael A. Peters,2010 Education in the Creative Economy explores the need for new forms of learning and education that are most conducive to supporting student development in a creative society Just as the assembly line shifted the key factor of production from labor to capital digital networks are now shifting the key factor of production from capital to innovation Beyond conventional discussions on the knowledge economy many scholars now suggest that digital technologies are fomenting a shift in advanced economies from mass production to cultural innovation This edited volume which includes contributions from renowned scholars like Richard Florida Charles Landry and John Howkins is a key resource for policymakers researchers teachers and journalists to assist them to better understand the contours of the creative economy and consider effective strategies for linking education to creative practice In addition to arguments for investing in the knowledge economy through STEM disciplines science technology engineering and math this collection explores the growing importance of art design and digital media as vehicles for creativity and innovation

Hybrid Identities Keri E. Iyall Smith,Patricia Leavy,2008 Combining theoretical and empirical pieces this book explores the emerging theoretical work seeking to describe hybrid identities while also illustrating the application of these theories in empirical research The sociological perspective of this volume sets it apart Hybrid identities continue to be predominant in minority or immigrant communities but these are not the only sites of hybridity in the globalized world Given a compressed world and a constrained state identities for all individuals and collective selves are becoming more complex The hybrid identity allows for the perpetuation of the local in the context of the global This book presents studies of types of hybrid identities transnational double consciousness gender diaspora the third space and the internal colony Contributors include Keri E Iyall Smith Patrick Gun Cuninghame Judith R Blau Eric S Brown Fabienne Darling Wolf Salvador Vidal Ortiz Melissa F Weiner Bedelia Nicola Richards Keith Nurse Roderick Bush Patricia Leavy Trinidad Gonzales Sharlene Hesse Biber Emily Brooke Barko Tess Moeke Maxwell Helen Kim Bedelia Nicola Richards Helene K Lee Alex Frame Paul Meredith David L Brunsma and Daniel J Delgado

Development Theory Jan Nederveen Pieterse,2001-03-20 This study is a critical commentary connecting issues of development with the latest thinking in sociology critical theory and social science It addresses questions such as the connections with globalization and culture and modernity The Future Jennifer M. Gidley, 2017-03-13 From the beginning of time humans have been driven by both a fear of the unknown and a curiosity to know We have always yearned to know what lies ahead whether threat or safety scarcity or abundance Throughout human history our forebears tried to create certainty in the unknown by seeking to influence outcomes with sacrifices to gods preparing for the unexpected with advice from oracles and by reading the stars through astrology As scientific methods improve and computer technology develops we become ever more confident of our capacity to predict and quantify the future by accumulating and interpreting patterns from the past yet the truth is there is still no certainty to be had In this Very Short Introduction Jennifer Gidley considers some of our most burning questions What is the future Is the future a time yet to come Or is it a utopian place Does the future have a history Is there only one future or are there many possible futures She asks if the future can ever be truly predicted or if we create our own futures both hoped for and feared by our thoughts feelings and actions and concludes by analysing how we can learn to study the future ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable Europe and Asia beyond East and West Gerard Delanty, 2006-10-03 This major new book tackles key questions on Europe in the context of shifting parameters of East and West The contributors sociologists anthropologists philosophers and historians show from a variety of different perspectives that the conventional equation of Europe with the West must be questioned Featuring four thematically organized chapters the book looks at a post Western world Asia in Europe encounters in history between Europe and Asia otherness in Europe and Asia Exploring new expressions of European self understanding in a way that challenges recent ideological notions of the clash of civilizations this outstanding work draws on recent scholarship that shows how Europe and Asia were mutually linked in history and in contemporary perspective It argues that as a result of current developments and the changing geopolitical context both Europe and Asia have much in common and that it is possible to speak of cosmopolitan links rather than clashes This book will be of great value to students and researchers in the fields of sociology European politics and history and cultural theory Globalism Manfred B. Steger, 2002 Globalism The New Market Ideology rejects the notion that we find ourselves at the end of ideology and that democracy has won Instead Steger argues that the opening decade of the 21st century will constitute a teeming battlefield of clashing ideologies The chief protagonist is the dominant neoliberal market ideology Steger calls globalism After identifying and evaluating the five central claims of globalism including assertions that globalization is inevitable nobody is in charge of globalization and globalization benefits everyone Steger offers an overview of the counterclaims made by anti globalist forces Visit our website for sample chapters Theories of New Regionalism F. Söderbaum, T. Shaw, 2003-11-11 Theories of New Regionalism represents the first systematic attempt to bring together leading theories of new regionalism Major theorists from around the world develop their own distinctive theoretical perspectives spanning new regionalism world order approaches along with regional governance liberal institutionalism neoclassical development regionalism to regional security complex theory RSC and the region building approach Redefining Human Rights in the Struggle for Peace and Development Terrence E. Paupp, 2014-01-20 Examines the history of the struggle to advance human rights and provides a global framework of constitutional protections to implement these rights Globalization and Geopolitics in the Middle East Anoushiravan Ehteshami, 2007-03-14 Examining globalization in the Middle East this book provides a much needed assessment of the impact of globalization in the greater Middle East including North Africa in the context of the powerful geopolitical forces at work in shaping the region today Written by a well known authority in this area this book demonstrates that unlike in other regions such as East Asia geopolitics has been a critical factor in driving globalization in the Middle East The author argues that whereas elsewhere globalisation has opened up the economy society culture and attitudes to the environment in the Middle East it has had the opposite effect with poor state formation little interregional trade foreign and interregional investment and reassertion of traditional identities This book explores the impact of globalization on the politics economies and social environment of the greater Middle East in the context of the region's position as the central site of global geopolitical competition at the start of the twenty first century African Youth Cultures in a Globalized World Paul Ugor, Lord Mawuko-Yevugah, 2016-03-09 All over the world there is growing concern about the ramifications of globalization late modernity and general global social and economic restructuring on the lives and futures of young people Bringing together a wide body of research to reflect on youth responses to social change in Africa this volume shows that while young people in the region face extraordinary social challenges in their everyday lives they also continue to devise unique ways to reinvent their difficult circumstances and prosper in the midst of seismic global and local social changes Contributors from Africa and around the world cover a wide range of topics on African youth cultures exploring the lives of young people not necessarily as victims but as active social players in the face of a shifting late modernist civilization With empirical cases and varied theoretical approaches the book offers a timely scholarly contribution to debates around globalization and its implications and impacts for Africa's youth Spaces of Global Cultures Anthony King, 2004-08-02 SD draws on social cultural and postcolonial writings and architectural evidence from various cities around the world to examine existing theories of globalization and also develop new ones
