Global Poverty and Personal Responsibility Elizabeth Morgan, Eric DeBaufre, 1989      Global Poverty and Personal Responsibility Elizabeth Morgan, Van B. Weigel, Eric DeBaufre, 1989      Anabaptist/Mennonite Faith and Economics Calvin Wall Redekop, Victor A. Krahn, Samuel J. Steiner, 1994 The continuing conflict between the Anabaptist Mennonite community and the expanding industrial culture of the modern world has not been investigated This book addresses the issues which fuel that conflict focusing on the implications of subordinating an economic system to the theological framework of a Christian society Contributors Gregory Baum Lawrence J Burkholder Leo Driedger Kevin Enns Rempel Norm Ewert Jim Halteman Leland Harder Al Hecht Jim Lichti Jacob A Leowen John Peters Cal Redekop Walter Regehr T D Regehr Jean Seguy Robert Siemens Arnold Snyder Willis Sommer Mary Sprunger and Laura Weaver Co published with the Institute of Anabaptist and Mennonite Studies      Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach      The Catholic World , 1990      Committed by Choice Judith A. Merkle, 1992      South-Pacific Journal of Mission Studies , 2004      Socially Responsive Organizations & the Challenge of Poverty Milenko Gudić, Al Rosenbloom, Carole Parkes, 2017-09-08 This book provides a combination of case studies and current action research describing how businesses and civil society organizations are working to alleviate poverty in local and global communities It intends to provide conceptual and research rationales for why management education and management institutions must address the issue of poverty The book responds to one of the major findings from the research of the PRME Working Group on Poverty that the topic of poverty still lacks a strong business case for management educators and program institutional administrators The distinctive features of this book are that it 1 includes examples of small and medium sized SME businesses 2 deals with the issue of poverty as a human rights violation 3 explores the issue of absolute versus relative poverty 4 deals with leadership challenges in organizations committed to poverty alleviation and 5 discusses the issues in terms of management education's responsibility for setting new management research institutional and intellectual agendas. The first of two books to be produced by the PRME Working Group on Poverty Socially Responsive Organizations and The Challenge of Poverty aims to provide both researchers and practitioners with the most wide ranging coverage yet published on how business can be a positive force in alleviating poverty and how management education needs to adapt to this increasingly crucial prerogative.

The Oxford Handbook of Corporate Social Responsibility Abigail McWilliams, Deborah E. Rupp, Donald S. Siegel, Günter K. Stahl, David A. Waldman, 2019-10-29 Corporate social responsibility (CSR) continues to grow as an area of interest in academia and business. Encompassing broad topics such as the relationship between business, society and government, environmental issues, globalization and the social and ethical dimensions of management and corporate operation, CSR has become an increasingly interdisciplinary subject relevant to areas of economics, sociology and psychology among others. New directions in CSR research include advanced micro-based investigations in organizational behaviour and human resource management, additional studies of environmental social responsibility and sustainability, further research on strategic CSR connections between social responsibility and entrepreneurship and improvements in methods and data analysis as the field matures. Through authoritative contributions from international scholars across the social sciences, this Handbook provides a cohesive overview of this recent expansion. It introduces new perspectives, new methodologies and new evidence from a range of disciplines to encourage and facilitate interdisciplinary research and global implementation of corporate social responsibility.

Research in Global Citizenship Education Jason Harshman, Tami Augustine, Merry M. Merryfield, 2015-06-01 Globalization is changing what citizens need to know and be able to do by interrupting the assumption that the actions of citizens only take place within national borders. If our neighborhoods and nations are affecting and being affected by the world, then our political consciousness must be world-minded. The outcomes of globalization have led educators to rethink what students need to learn and be able to do as citizens in a globally connected world. This volume focuses on research that examines how K-12 teachers and students are currently addressing the challenge of becoming citizens in a globally interconnected world. Although there is an extensive body of literature on citizenship education within national contexts and a growing literature on global education, this volume offers research on the work educators are doing across multiple countries to bring the two fields together to develop global citizens.

This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the model with a practical, relevant approach to real-world issues. Explore the many facets of social change and leadership. Navigate group dynamics surrounding controversy, collaboration, and purpose. Discover the meaning of citizenship and your commitment to the greater good.
