Global Economic Prospects And The Developing Countries 1999 2000:

Global Economic Prospects and the Developing Countries ,2002 This edition of the annual publication considers the need to reshape the global architecture of world trade in order to help strengthen the economies of developing countries and reduce world poverty The report focuses on four policy areas the establishment of a development round of WTO negotiations to reduce trade barriers global co operation to expand trade outside the WTO the adoption of pro trade development policies by high income countries and enacting trade reforms in developing countries The findings of the report suggest that developing countries could significantly increase their incomes if all countries progressively implement the proposed trade reforms This would result in a world with a much higher standard of living an estimated 300 million people lifted out of poverty by 2015 and a significant increase in the number of children living beyond their fifth birthday throughout the developing world

Global Economic Prospects and the Developing Countries 2001 ,2001-01-01 This report deals with three issues that are central challenges facing developing countries as they participate in the global trading system They include the expansion of global trade the appropriate coverage of standards for health and safety labor practices environmental protection and intellectual property rights and the impact of technological innovations through an exploration of electronic commerce for trade and production in developing countries Global Economic Prospects and the Developing Countries ,2003 Global Economic Prospects 2003 ,2003 The 13th edition of this annual publication focuses on the global and national dimensions of the investment climate for developing countries that is the policy and institutional environment that fosters entrepreneurship and productive investment Issues discussed include the effects of current developments in the world economy ways that the international community can help foster economic growth and reduce poverty levels the need for sound national policies particularly to encourage competition in order for developing countries to reap the benefits of globalisation and the potential for a new World Trade Organization agreement on investment and competition

Global Economic Prospects 2005 ,2004 This annual publication analyses the global and national dimensions of the investment climate for developing countries in terms of the policy and institutional environment This edition examines the growth of regional trade agreements which have risen eight fold in two decades with currently as much as 40 percent of global trade taking place among countries that have some form of reciprocal regional trade agreement Issues discussed include regional trading trends effects of regional agreements on trade creation trade facilitation and services investment intellectual property rights and labour mobility whether the proliferation of agreements poses risks for multilateral trading system and if so options for managing them The report finds that agreements leading to open regionalism that is deeper integration of trade as a result of low external tariffs increased services competition and efforts to reduce cross border and customs delays costs are effective as part of a larger trade strategy to promote growth Although regional agreements can prove beneficial to member countries they can have adverse effects on excluded countries and the lowering of border barriers around the world is crucial to minimising these effects The completion of the Doha Development Agenda by all WTO countries will reduce the risk of trade diversion associated with regional agreements and will decrease trade losses of countries excluded from agreements

Global Economic Prospects 2004 World Bank,2003 This is the 14th edition of this annual publication which analyses the global and national dimensions of the investment climate for developing countries in terms of the policy and institutional environment It considers the key multilateral trade issues and suggests policy options to help raise living standards in developing countries and reduce global poverty Topics discussed include the short medium and long term global economic outlook including driving forces commodity prices and capital flows exports from developing countries trade barriers and policies to reduce inequities in the world trading system trade in agriculture including possible changes in subsidies and the potential for liberalisation measures the temporary movement of labour within the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS trade facilitation in the light of post September 11 security concerns the role of trade preferences exemptions from WTO rules and technical assistance to implement WTO trade regulations
