Globalisation Vs Sovereignty The European Response The 1997 Rede Lecture And Related Speeches And Articles:

Globalisation Vs. Sovereignty? The European Response Leon Brittan, 1998-03-05 Sir Leon Brittan Vice President of the European Commission has worked at the very highest levels of the European Union for most of the last decade Sir Leon has shaped some of the landmarks of European policy including the development of new political and economic relations between the EC and the former satellite states of the Soviet Union has been Europe's architect of the most ambitious global trade deal ever undertaken and has been responsible for the dramatic evolution in Europe's competition policy and the building of strong European relations with the United States China Japan and many other countries In this publication some of Sir Leon's most important speeches are gathered together They explain in clear and succinct terms what the implications of European integration are in the context of an increasingly globalised international economy How should traditional concepts of sovereignty be adapted What is the real logic and purpose of European Economic and Monetary Union How should the transatlantic relationship develop after the Cold War These and many other questions are tackled in a comprehensive and readily accessible way Globalisation Vs. Sovereignty? Leon Brittan, 1998 Alan S. Milward and Contemporary European History Fernando Guirao, Frances M.B. Lynch, 2015-10-14 Alan S Milward was a renowned historian of contemporary Europe In addition to his books as well as articles and chapters in edited books he also wrote nearly 250 book reviews and review articles some in French and German which were published in journals world wide Taken together they reveal a remarkable degree of theoretical consistency in his approach to understanding the history of Europe since the French Revolution This book brings together these previously unexamined pieces of historical analysis in order to trace and shed light on key intellectual debates taking place in the second half of the 20th century Many of these discussions continue to influence us today such as the role of Germany in Europe the economic social and political foundations of European integration the European rescue of the nation state the reasons for launching the single currency the conditions for retaining the allegiance of European citizens to the notions of nation and supra nation and ultimately the issue of democratic governance in a global environment In bringing together these reviews and review articles the book provides an introduction to the main scholarly achievements of Milward in his own words Fernando Guirao and Frances M B Lynch provide an introduction to the volume which both guides the reader through many of the academic debates embedded within the text while underlining their contemporary relevance By introducing and bringing together this hitherto overlooked treasure trove of historical analysis this book maps a close itinerary of some of the most salient intellectual debates of the second half of the 20th century and beyond This unique volume will be of great interest to scholars of economic history European history and historiography Old and New Terrorism Peter Neumann, 2009-08-10 Offers a picture of the shifts in the practice and reception of terrorism and analyses how globalization has facilitated many of the changes The International Year Book and Statesmen's Who's who, 2000 Aanwinsten van de Centrale Bibliotheek (Queteletfonds) Bibliothèque centrale
