Service Science: Design For Scaling And Transformation Cheng K Hsu,2009-02-17 Service science is an emerging field but many still consider it lacking in substance This book aims to change the situation by addressing the following questions What is the big story about service What are the main research problems in service What does a connected world mean Does service require a different kind of design science What will be the next waves of the Web How to support universal value co creation How to unite Cyberspace with physical space Is it feasible to connect information resources everywhere To answer these questions the book presents and substantiates a digital connections scaling DCS model complete with a population oriented design paradigm and a new class of microeconomic production functions to explain the paths of transformation into the future one of the most original results today Next the book analyzes new business designs on the Web and characterizes a service led revolution for the Knowledge Economy Thirdly it develops systems planning and design methods to help implement the DCS model at the level of Information and Database Systems Business Strategy and Digitization Engineering thereby enhancing these fields Finally certain intriguing new applications especially smart highways and information supply chains are discussed THE LAST WAVE? Allen Reeves,2012-08-31 This book is a factual think piece description of a world future that can be expected over the next 30 40 years with some degree of confidence given the past and the present trends that we all can observe today The reader will most certainly see this mentally when they read the small book very attentively The contents are a result of an inspired and informational study of the world and economic communication informational sharing scientific and technological trends I and the reader will have witnessed in their everyday life The book s content started for me in mid 1979 and has continued until and since its publish date of 2011 12 I originally gave the predictions and previous content in an oral presentation before the World Future Chapter at Ann Arundel Community College in Arnold MD in 1996 in which most of my predictions came true but about 8 to 10 years sooner than I had prognosticated The ideas originally started for me with a little book by an author Shuman et al published in about 1971 about a coming deflationary deflation in 1984 and which I had no belief That was in 1977 but by mid 1979 I came to realize that it and I were mistaken in that we were all going through an inflationary depression starting about 1973 to then and going forth This led me to think and read more articles about the world and U S events that predict these types of events but along Kondratieff's 54 year period That was wrong too I have come to realize in 2011-12 that his theory has become shorter and if you read my book and on your own you can tell why That's enough for you all at present Allen Reeves DoD physicist retired and on Facebook A New Protestant Labor Ethic at Work Ken Estey, 2011-01-01 Estey proposes a labor ethic that emphasizes the protest in Protestantism The purpose of this ethic is to interrupt the drudgery of the Protestant work ethic which Estey asserts is the dominant cultural ideal in the U S Protestantism must not be about capitulation to capitalism and a Protestant ethic that works must be one that questions and confronts authority in order to undo the newest and oldest forms of dehumanization as they pertain to workers labor issues and conditions in the workplace
