Globalization And Educational Restructuring In Asia And The Pacific Region:

Globalization and Educational Restructuring in the Asia Pacific Region K. Mok, Anthony Welch, 2003-03-13 The focus of this book is to examine the growing impact of globalization on education policy and development in the Asia Pacific region It analyses the reaction of selected societies and the strategies that their governments have adopted in response to the tidal wave of marketization corporization commercialization and privatization Particular attention is paid to educational restructuring in the context of globalization

Effects of Globalization on Education Systems and Development

Macleans A. Geo-JaJa, Suzanne Majhanovich, 2016-11-04 With its comprehensive coverage and quality this provocative book is concerned with the future of developing countries in Africa Asia and Latin America By providing in depth analysis of the economic social and educational challenges of emerging states it offers an alternative roadmap to development The authors in this collection substantiate the notion that emerging states often do not participate in policy choices related to their development when faced with universalization of curriculum and internationalization of education The authors make explicit the direct and indirect effects of globalization on educational systems social equity and the path of development In demonstrating the impact of neoliberalism or market based reforms on the developing world the authors show that education without human rights is vulnerable to negative forces of globalization and internationalization The message of the book is quite pessimistic about possibilities to widen the economic space or increase freedom unless development cooperation is made possible by Helping People Help Themselves as suggested by David Ellerman The authors note that in the past the issue of emerging states as an appendage to the world economy was a fundamental question related to colonialism but now has become a question of imperialism which needs to be examined when considering the current patterns of development

Globalization Nicholas Sun-keung Pang, 2006 Bringing together a group of international authors this book attempts to examine the effects of globalization on educational policies and practices under the following themes 1 the roles of educational research in the era of globalization and how comparative education can contribute to such investigation 2 the relationships between the development of higher education and globalization in different countries and 3 the impacts of globalization on school education and how schools can respond to the challenges ahead

Globalization and Marketization in Education Ka-Ho Mok, Jason Tan, 2004-01-01 Mok humanities and social sciences City U of Hong Kong and Tan education policy and management Nanyang Technological U Singapore review the strategies their two governments have adopted to reform the education systems in response to the growing impact of globalization They focus on financing provision and regulation The two countries a

Higher Education Regionalization in Asia Pacific J. Hawkins, K. Mok, D. Neubauer, 2012-10-25 Asia is rapidly developing a wide variety of regional organizations and interactive patterns reflecting in large part its increasing role in the global economic and political engagements Higher Education constitutes a distinct sphere of activity within this overall pattern of regionalization

The Worldwide Transformation of Higher Education David P.

Baker, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2008-05-19 Enrollment in institutions of higher education around the world is growing Some scholars have suggested that one reason for this expansion is that the role of higher education has shifted over the last 50 years from an elite to a mass institution This book discusses the worldwide transformation of higher education from multiple perspectives

Education and Social Change Geoffrey Elliott, Chahid Fourali, Sally Issler, 2013-02-14 Education policy and practice has historically been developed within the national regional context However globalization has prompted educationalists to review their practice in the light of international influences World issues such as global warming conflict and the depletion of earth resources have also contributed to an increased awareness of the role that education can play in resolving these problems The contributors focus on how education can bring about social change while connecting with theory at the level of cultural impact and policy implications They investigate the potential for creating a transnational value system in education focusing on some key human rights issues both at home and overseas Truly international in scope this text lays the groundwork for future research by exposing the commonalities and differences in approaches to knowledge production and its dissemination drawing together contributions from a variety of cross cultural contexts

Education Reform and Education Policy in East Asia Ka-Ho Mok, 2006 Examining how the increasingly interdependent economic system has driven policy change and education reform Ka Ho Mok assesses the impact of globalization on the education systems of key East Asian countries including China Hong Kong Japan and the tiger economies of South Korea Taiwan and Singapore

University Rankings, Diversity, and the New Landscape of Higher Education , 2019-02-18 University rankings are a relatively new phenomenon in higher education Although quite an established practice in the U S it is only within the last decade that attempts to analyse university performance have spread to the rest of the world and that we also have seen new global rankings appear rankings attempting to measure university performance beyond national borders No wonder that this trend is accompanied by a growing interest in studying rankings throughout the world This book is written as part of the effort to better understand rankings and their effects on higher education A serious approach towards university rankings implies that rankings should be analysed properly including the methods used and the indicators chosen and investigate the objectives claimed If university rankings are considered as consumer information then everyone should have an interest in basing such guidance on valid and reliable data and methodology A serious analysis should also discuss the wider implications of rankings as an emerging phenomenon in higher education Consequently the contributions to this book investigate and analyse how different rankings work how they reach their conclusions and on what data and methodology they are built Furthermore it provides a critical reflection about the impact of rankings on higher education how and in what way rankings influence policy making the structure of the sector or the internal life of the sector

The Quest for Entrepreneurial Universities in East Asia K. Mok, 2013-12-18 With the rise of the knowledge economy universities are under pressure to embrace not just their traditional missions of teaching and research but a third mission of serving economic and social development This book examines the major strategies that governments in East Asia have adopted to promote this kind of innovation in the education sector The Routledge Handbook of the Political Economy of Science David Tyfield, Rebecca Lave, Samuel Randalls, Charles Thorpe, 2017-04-28 The political economy of research and innovation R I is one of the central issues of the early twenty first century Science and innovation are increasingly tasked with driving and reshaping a troubled global economy while also tackling multiple overlapping global challenges such as climate change or food security global pandemics or energy security But responding to these demands is made more complicated because R I themselves are changing Today new global patterns of R I are transforming the very structures institutions and processes of science and innovation and with it their claims about desirable futures Our understanding of R I needs to change accordingly Responding to this new urgency and uncertainty this handbook presents a pioneering selection of the growing body of literature that has emerged in recent years at the intersection of science and technology studies and political economy The central task for this research has been to expose important but consequential misconceptions about the political economy of R I and to build more insightful approaches This volume therefore explores the complex interrelations between R I both in general and in specific fields and political economies across a number of key dimensions from health to environment and universities to the military The Routledge Handbook of the Political Economy of Science offers a unique collection of texts across a range of issues in this burgeoning and important field from a global selection of top scholars The handbook is essential reading for students interested in the political economy of science technology and innovation It also presents succinct and insightful summaries of the state of the art for more advanced scholars

Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres, Robert F. Arnove, Lauren Ila Misiasek, 2022-08-10 Now in its fifth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local has established itself as the state of the art comprehensive as well as sophisticated framework for taking into account the dynamic interactions of local national regional and transnational factors shaping education systems around the world Our theoretical and methodological strategy for this volume has proven effective as a standard textbook for introducing the field of comparative education from various theoretical and methodological perspectives

Education as a Political Tool in Asia Marie Lall, Edward Vickers, 2010-06-30 This book offers a fresh and comparative approach in questioning what education is being used for and what the effects of the politicisation of education are on Asian societies in the era of globalisation Education has been used as a political tool throughout the ages and across the whole world to define national identity and underlie the political rationale of regimes In the contemporary globalising world there are particularly interesting examples of this throughout Asia ranging from the new definition of Indian national identity as a Hindu identity to contrast with Pakistan s Islamic identity to particular versions of nationalism in China Japan Singapore and Vietnam In Asia education systems have their origins in processes of state formation aimed either at bolstering self strengthening resistance to the encroachments of Western and or Asian imperialism or at furthering projects of post colonial nation building State elites have sought to popularise powerful visions of nationhood to equip these visions with a historical back story and to endow them with the maximum sentimental charge This book explores all of these developments emphasising that education is seen by nations across Asia as elsewhere as more than simply a tool for economic development and that issues of national identity and the tolerance or lack of it of ethnic cultural or religious diversity can be at least as important as issues of literacy and access Interdisciplinary and unique in its analysis this book will be of interest to scholars of political science research in education and Asian Studies

Social policy in China Chan, Chak Kwan, Ngok, Kinglun, 2008-02-13 This much needed new textbook introduces readers to the development of China's welfare policies since its conception of an open door policy in 1978 Setting out basic concepts and issues including key terms and the process of policy making it overcomes a major barrier to understanding Chinese social policy The book explores in detail the five key policy areas of employment social security health education and housing Each is examined using a human well being framework comprising both qualitative and quantitative data and eight dimensions physical and psychological well being social integration fulfilment of caring duties human learning and development self determination equal value and justice This enables the authors to provide not only factual information on policies but also an in depth understanding of the impact of welfare changes on the quality of life of Chinese people over the past three decades A major strength of the book lies in its use of primary Chinese language sources including relevant White Papers central and local government policy documents academic research studies and newspapers for each policy area There are very few books in English on social policy in China and this book will be welcomed both by academics and students of China and East Asian studies and comparative social policy and by those who want to know more about China's social development

Politics of Quality in Education Jaakko Kauko, Risto Rinne, Tuomas Takala, 2018-05-11 The question of quality has become one of the most important framing factors in education and has been of growing interest to international organisations and national policymakers for decades Politics of Quality in Education focuses on Brazil China and Russia part of the so called emerging nations BRICS block and draws on a four year project to develop a new theoretical and methodological approach The book builds a comparative sociohistorical and transnational understanding of political relations in education with a particular focus on the policies and practices of Quality Assurance and Evaluation QAE Tracking QAE processes from international organisations to individual schools contributors analyse how QAE changes the dynamics in the roles of state expertise and governance The book demonstrates how national and sub national actors play a central role in the adaptation modification or rejection of transnational policies Politics of Quality in Education will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of comparative and international education as well as educational policy and politics It should also be essential reading for practitioners and policymakers The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781351362528> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

A Comparative Analysis of Higher Education Systems

,2014-01-01 This is a well crafted timely book that comes at a time when so much is happening in higher education contexts across the world Clearly it is in response to these global and selectively local trends that Kariwo Gounko and Nungu bring together an impressive lineup of both established and emerging scholars who achieve a comprehensive and critically constructed perspective on tertiary education systems Collectively the chapters in this work shall expand the epistemic boundaries of the area and its affiliated disciplines and the book as a whole will greatly benefit interested scholars students education policy makers and the public at large Ali A Abdi Professor University of Alberta This book is a valuable contribution to knowledge on higher education and provides an international perspective on issues challenges and dilemmas resulting from the rapid expansion of higher education The volume is an excellent text that integrates theoretical and analytical studies as well as empirical regional studies It gives some insights on how different countries and regions have been responding to massification and accessing of higher education It will appeal to researchers graduate students and faculty in Higher or Post Secondary Education as well as International and Comparative Education Edward Shizha Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Brantford Campus Global Futures in East Asia Ann Anagnost,Andrea Arai,Hai

Ren,2013-01-09 The East Asian economic miracle of the twentieth century is now a fond memory What does it mean to be living in post miracle times For the youth of China Taiwan Japan and South Korea the opportunities and challenges of the neoliberal age deeply shaped by global forces in labor markets powerfully frame their life prospects in ways that are barely recognizable to their parents Global Futures in East Asia gathers together ethnographic explorations of what its contributors call projects of life making Here we see youth striving to understand themselves their place in society and their career opportunities in the nation region and world While some express optimism it is clear that many others dread their prospects in the competitive global system in which the failure to thrive is isolating humiliating and possibly even fatal Deeply engaged with some of the most significant theoretical debates in the social sciences in recent years and rich with rare cross national comparisons this collection will be of great interest to all scholars and students interested in the formation of subjects and subjectivities under globalization and neoliberalism Comparative and International Education C.
