Globalization Or Regionalization Of The European Car Industry:

Globalization or Regionalization of the European Car Industry? M. Freyssenet, K. Shimizu, G. Volpato, 2003-04-15
The automobile sector is one of the most archetypal global industries and is seen by many as one of the main drivers behind the homogenisation of world markets due to firms internationalization strategies and the social practices that firms impose. This book argues that this is not entirely the case due to the heterogeneity of firms and the diversity of strategies pursued. It highlights the diversity and forms of internationalization and the preference for regionalization rather than globalization that has occurred over the past decade. This book looks specifically at the European car industry. Globalization and Regionalization Peter J. Buckley, Victor V. Cordell, 1998. Globalization and Regionalization Strategies, Policies and Their Economic Environment puts you on top of the world with the big picture of global trade and rapid business internationalization at your feet. You will see how the two opposing market forces globalization and regionalization have created a new international trade environment. In addition, you will see how the recent upsurge in preferential trading arrangements, the new technologies adapted by firms and the foreign direct investment (FDI) and trade policies of countries and blocs have combined to dramatically change how and why international business is conducted. Globalization and Regionalization is just what it says: it is a guide to understanding the strategies and policies that countries and firms employ to prosper in an international business environment in which globalization and regionalization seem to act as opposing forces. In this unique volume, you will discover how some of the top competing business scholars in the world see the way that regionalization and globalization can function as complements to each other, actually becoming the building blocks that lead to global strategies. Specifically, this book gives you world-class information about how to evaluate trade creation and trade diversion at the country level; the dynamics of optimal entry strategy for multinational enterprises (MNEs); the effects of differences between countries; competition policies on cross-border mergers and acquisitions; the internationalization of services through international banking; strategy; how an open-door policy allows China to play an important role in the resurgence of globalization; Vietnam as a host to foreign business activity. Globalization and Regionalization is the collective and international result of the World Conference on Globalization and Regionalization at the University of Paris I Pantheon Sorbonne. If you are an educator, international business director, scholar of international studies, or entrepreneur, you will definitely want to get the information that was presented at this important international venue. Overall, this collection will give you a clearer picture of the current direction of international trade in today's rapidly shifting and progressive global trade environment. The Automotive Industry and European Integration A. J. Jacobs, 2019-08-07. This book chronicles the divergent growth trends in car production in Belgium and Spain. It delves into how European integration, high wages, and the demise of GM and Ford led to plant closings in Belgium. Next, it investigates how lower wages and the expansion strategies of Western European automakers stimulated expansion in the Spanish auto industry. Finally, it offers three alternate scenarios regarding how further EU expansion and Brexit may potentially reshape the geographic footprint of European car production over the next ten years In sum this book utilizes history to help expand the knowledge of scholars and policymakers regarding how European integration and Brexit may impact future auto industry investment for all EU nations Globalization or Regionalization of the American and Asian Car Industry? M. Freyssenet,K. Shimizu,G. Volpato,2003-04-15 The automobile sector is one of the most archetypal global industries and is seen by many as one of the main drivers behind the homogenisation of world markets due to firms internationalization strategies and the social practices that firms impose This book argues that this is not entirely the case due to the heterogeneity of firms and the diversity of strategies pursued It highlights the diversity and forms of internationalization and the preference for regionalization rather than globalization that has occurred over the past decade This book looks specifically at the American and Asian car industry Automotive FDI in Emerging Europe A. J. Jacobs,2017-06-19 This book examines the dramatic increase in automotive assembly plants in the former Socialist Central European CE nations of Czechia East Germany Hungary Poland and Slovakia from 1989 onwards Enticed by relatively lower wage labour and significant government incentives the world s largest automakers have launched more than 20 passenger car assembly complexes in CE nations with production accelerating dramatically since 2001 As a result the annual passenger car production in Western Europe declined by more than 20% between 2001 and 2015 and alternatively in the CEE it increased by nearly 170% during this period Drawing on case studies of 25 current and former foreign run assembly plants the author presents a rare historical account of automotive foreign assembly plants in the CE following this dramatic geographic shift This book will expand the knowledge of policy makers in Europe in relation to their pursuits of FDI and will be of great interest to scholars and students of business economic history political science and development China's Automotive Modernization G. Chin,2010-01-29 As a window for understanding the relationship between globalization and the state s pursuit of national industrial development this book examines how and why the Chinese government succeeded in leveraging China s international competitive advantages to modernize the country s automotive industry The Second Automobile Revolution M. Freyssenet,2009-04-30 The rapid takeoff of the continent sized national economies and the increasing expense of extraction have led to strong tensions in petrol prices and a race towards alternative driving systems This book analyses the emergence of a second automobile revolution through the trajectories of automobile firms since the nineties Automobile Industry Leon R. Domansky,2006 Like it or not the automobile industry is now and will remain an overwhelming factor in the lives of most people if not an owner and driver then as a pedestrian or a breather of air which is being polluted by the gas guzzling and vile air belching monsters created for our individual hedonistic pleasure This book presents issues of current interest to those who cannot ignore their presence The Greening of the Automotive Industry G. Calabrese,2016-04-12 An examination of the greening of the automotive industry by the path dependence of countries and carmakers trajectories Three sources of path dependency can be detected business models consumer attitudes and policy regulations The automobile is changing and the race towards alternative driving systems has started

Cars, Carriers of regionalism? Jorge Carrillo Viveros, Yanick Lung, Rob Van Tulder, 2004-05-31 This highly topical book brings together some of the world's leading specialists on the global car industry who discuss the ins and outs of the faster lane of regionalism at a time that the world is reassessing the ins and outs of globalization It provides a thorough and up dated mapping of the worldwide geography of the car industry in the triad regions Europe North America and Japan and in the emerging countries and regions

The Green Transition of the Automotive Industry Anna Cabigiosu, Pietro Lanzini, 2023-11-10 This edited collection offers deeper understanding of the green and digital transition in the automotive industry It explains how mobility products services and business models are changing the opportunities and threats correlated to this double transition as well as the competences and resources needed for firms in this fluid scenario The book firstly provides an in depth overview of the strategic and managerial implications for automotive and mobility incumbent firms Chapters describe how sustainable technologies have been changing over time and identify the challenges of the shift imposed by the new competitive environment such as the so called servitization of the industry The second section describes the new drivers of growth and profitability such as open and collaborative innovation and provides guidance on how incumbents can surf this turbulent landscape

Global Shifts in the Automotive Sector Martin Krzywdzinski, Grzegorz Lechowski, John Humphrey, Tommaso Pardi, 2025-03-17 The automotive industry is undergoing fundamental organizational changes related to the transition from the production of internal combustion engine vehicles towards the production of low or no emission powertrain technologies In addition the ongoing transformations in this sector are shaped by the dramatically changing geopolitical context including the increasing technological rivalry between China and the West In response this edited volume offers an in depth examination of the automotive industry with emphasis on the ongoing transformations in the international divisions of labour the regional and national production models and the established value chain relations Collecting contributions from established and emerging scholars from a range of disciplinary perspectives the book brings together empirical research on different regions relevant for the changing globalized production system of the automotive sector including the European Union East Asia and North America

The New Domestic Automakers in the United States and Canada A.J. Jacobs, 2015-12-16 Over the past forty years state provincial and local governments in the United States and Canada have provided foreign automakers with approximately 480 billion in incentives in order to lure light vehicles assembly plants to their areas This has included tax abatements infrastructure construction land giveaways job training programs and other subsidies As of early 2015 ten foreign vehicle makers operated 20 light vehicles in developed North America Despite the fact that all ten of these automakers have pursued a similar pattern first exporting vehicles into the United States and Canada before launching vehicle plants in developed North America each has followed its own specific historical development path and has created its own unique growth trajectory This book provides a unique historical and qualitative review of these ten vehicle makers from their early beginnings to their export entry into the United States and or Canada through early 2015 In addition it chronicles the histories of more than a dozen former automakers and potential future foreign light motor vehicle assembly plants in the United States and Canada This includes the first foreign automaker to build its cars in the United States De Dion Bouton of France in July 1900 the early 20th Century endeavors of Fiat Mercedes and Rolls Royce and the present day hopes of Chinese and Indian automakers In the process the text also provides an assessment of the top competing states and sites for any future plants the possible incentives packages governments may offer to attract such facilities and an estimated incentive value for each automaker Overall the goal of this book is to expand the knowledge of policymakers at all tiers of government in the United States and Canada and to help them take a more holistic look at the pros and cons of attracting Automobile Manufacturing FDI It is hoped that this will enable them to make more informed decisions when pursuing a new foreign motor vehicle assembly plant Its findings should also prove informative to urban and regional planning political science sociology economics labor and international development scholars and students in North America and worldwide
