Jain,2017-06-21 In the last 15 years queer movements in many parts of the world have helped secure the rights of queer people These moments have been accompanied by the brutal rise of crony capitalism the violent consequences of the war on terror the hyper juridification of politics the financialization managerialization of social movements and the medicalization of non heteronormative identities practices How do we critically read the celebratory global proliferation of queer rights in these neoliberal times This volume responds to the complicated moment in the history of queer struggles by analysing laws state policies and cultures of activism to show how new intimacies between queer sexuality and neoliberalism that celebrate modernity and the birth of the liberated sexual citizen are in fact reproducing the old colonial desire of civilizing the native By paying particular attention to the problematics of race religion and class this volume engages in a rigorous self reflexive critique of global queer politics and its engagements confrontations and negotiations with modernity and its investments in liberalism legalism and militarism with the objective of queering the ethics of our queer politics Published by Zubaan The Routledge Research Companion to Geographies of Sex and Sexualities Gavin Brown,Kath Browne,2016-05-20 Comprehensive and authoritative this state of the art review both charts and develops the rich sub discipline geographies of sexualities exploring sex gender sexuality and sexual practices Emerging from the desire to examine differences and exclusions as a key aspect of human geographies these geographies have engaged with heterosexual and queer lesbian gay bi and trans lives Developing thinking in this area geographers and other social scientists have illustrated the centrality of place space and other spatial relationships in reconstituting sexual practices representations desires as well as sexed bodies and lives This book reviews the current state of the field and offers new insights from authors located on five continents In doing so the book seeks to draw on and influence core debates in this field as well as disrupt the Anglo American hegemony in studies of sexualities sexes and geographies This volume is the definitive collection in the area bringing together many international leaders in the field alongside scholars that are well established outside the Anglophone academy and many emerging talents who will lead the field in the decades to come Emerging Critical Scholarship in Education Carol Mutch,Jean Rath,2014-04-23 The doctoral journey is fraught with stops and starts crossroads and blind alleys surprises and epiphanies All successful doctoral students navigate a pathway through these events to reach their final destination Navigating the Doctoral Journey explores examples of these routes in ways that both honour individual stories and highlight the broader issues of uniting emergent research practices with doctoral candidates individual reflexive projects All the doctoral candidates included in this book work with critical topics theories and methods within the field of education they face particular challenges and rewards when pursuing work that will meet institutional and disciplinary expectations of good doctoral level research For them the doctoral process is required to culminate in more than the award of a qualification Their imperative is to demonstrate mastery of the disciplinary norms whilst simultaneously challenging dominant models and making authentic contributions to the benefit of broader society Navigating the Doctoral Journey addresses the isolation and challenges of what it means to conduct critical doctoral research within a highly contested domain of knowledge This is not a simplistic self help guide to clearly map a proven route to doctoral success rather the book provides a range of possible answers to the questions of how candidates experience doctoral studies what is critical about each contributor s research and how this affects what each person does as he or she researches Falling, Floating, Flickering Hershini Bhana Young,2023-01-17 Insists on the importance of embodiment and movement to the creation of Black sociality Linking African diasporic performance disability studies and movement studies Falling Floating Flickering approaches disability transnationally by centering Black African and diasporic experiences By eschewing capital s weighted calculus of which bodies hold value this book centers alternate morphologies and movement practices that have previously been dismissed as abnormal or unrecognizable To move beyond binaries of ability Hershini Bhana Young traverses multiple geohistories and cultural forms stretching from the United States and the Mediterranean to Sierra Leone Nigeria and South Africa as well as independent and experimental film novels sculptures images dance performances and anecdotes In doing so she argues for the importance of differential embodiment and movement to the creation and survival of Black sociality and refutes stereotypic notions of Africa as less progressive than the West in recognizing the rights of disabled people Ultimately this book foregrounds the engagement of diasporic Africans who are still reeling from the violence of colonialism slavery poverty and war as they gesture toward a liberatory Black sociality by falling floating and flickering Diasporic Journeys, Ritual, and Normativity among Asian Migrant Women Pnina Werbner,Mark Johnson,2019-07-09 The power of embodied ritual performance to constitute agency and transform subjectivity are increasingly the focus of major debates in the anthropology of Christianity and Islam They are particularly relevant to understanding the way transnational women migrants from South and South East Asia Christians Muslims and Buddhists who migrate to Asia Europe and the Middle East to work as carers and maids re imagine and recreate themselves in moral and ethical terms in the diaspora This timely collection shows how women international migrants stereotypically represented as a nation of servants reclaim sacralised spaces of sociality in their migration destinations and actively transform themselves from mere workers into pilgrims and tourists on cosmopolitan journeys Such women struggle for dignity and respect by re defining themselves in terms of an ethics of care and sacrifice As co worshippers they recreate community through fiestas feasts protests and shared conviviality while subverting established normativities of gender marriage and conjugality they renegotiate their moral selfhood through religious conversion and activism For migrants the place of the church or mosque becomes a gateway to new intellectual and experiential horizons as well as a locus for religious worship and a haven of humanitarian assistance in a strange land This book was published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Anthropology Globalized Queerness Helton Levy,2023-10-19 Has a global queer popular culture emerged at the expense of local queer artists In this book Helton Levy argues that global queer culture is indebted to specific local references that artists carry from their early experiences in life which then become homogenized

by contemporary media markets The assumption that queer publics live and consume only through a global set of references including gay parades and rainbow flags for example erases many personal complexities Levy revisits media characters that have caught the attention of the broader public such as Calamity Jane 1953 the Daffyd Thomas character from the BBC comedy Little Britain 2003 2007 Brazilian drag queen Pabblo Vittar French singer Christine and the Queens and the Italian Egyptian rapper Mahmood and argues that they have gradually blended in the public s perception This has often obscured the individual struggles faced by these characters such as immigration homophobia poverty and societal exclusion Levy also questions what happens when global media flows take queer culture to regions wherein the notion of LGBTQ rights are not entirely acceptable Utilizing insights from media reports published across the world s ten biggest media markets Levy argues that there are a series of conditions which artists and cultural actors negotiate once they achieve any kind of success in mainstream media while local queer references remain unseen in the wider media world For that reason he argues for stronger incentives for communities to accept and acknowledge the work of queer people before and after commoditization

Aging and Popular Music in Europe Abigail Gardner, Ros Jennings, 2019-07-30 Opening up the dialogue between popular music studies and aging studies this book offers a major exploration of age and popular music across Europe Using a variety of methods to illustrate how age within popular music is contingent and compelling the volume explores how it provokes curation and devotion across a variety of sites and artists who record in several European languages and genres including waltz music electronica pop folk rap and the French chanson Visiting the many ways in which age is problematized revered and performed within Europe in relation to popular music case studies analyze French touring shows of popular music stars from the 1960s Andr Rieu s annual Vrijthof concerts in the Netherlands Kraftwerk and Bj rk s appearances at renowned art museums as curated objects queer approaches to popular music space and time British folk music inheritances pan European strategies of stardom and career longevity and inheritance and post colonial hauntings of race and identity The book works with the notion of travelling across borders genres sexualities and media highlighting the visibility of the aging body across a variety of European sites in order to establish popular music through the lens of age as a positive methodology with which to approach popular music cultures and to offer a counter narrative to age as decline This book will appeal to scholars of popular music popular culture media studies cultural studies aging studies and cultural gerontology

Taking place Erin Silver, 2023-02-07 Taking place examines feminist and queer alternative art spaces across Canada and the United States from the late 1960s to the present It looks at how queer and feminist artists working in the present day engage with respond to and challenge the institutions they have inherited Through a series of regional case studies the book interrogates different understandings of alternative space and the possibilities the term affords for queer and feminist artistic imaginaries

Prime Time Soap Operas on Indian Television Shoma Munshi, 2020-02-18 This book examines the phenomenon of prime time soap operas on Indian television An anthropological insight into social issues and practices of contemporary India through the television this volume analyzes the production of soaps within India's cultural fabric. It deconstructs themes and issues surrounding the everyday and the middle class through the fiction of the popular. In its second edition this still remains the only book to examine prime time soap operas on Indian television. Without in any way changing the central arguments of the first edition it adds an essential introductory chapter tracking the tectonic shifts in the Indian mediascape over the past decade including how the explosion of regional language channels and an era of multiple screens have changed soap viewing forever. Meticulously researched and persuasively argued the book traces how prime time soaps in India still grab the maximum eyeballs and remain the biggest earners for TV channels. The book will be of interest to students of anthropology and sociology, media and cultural studies, visual culture studies, gender and family studies and also Asian studies in general. It is also an important resource for media producers both in content production and television channels as well as for the general reader.

Sex between Body and Mind Katie Sutton, 2019-11-25 Ideas about human sexuality and sexual development changed dramatically across the first half of the 20th century. As scholars such as Magnus Hirschfeld, Iwan Bloch, Albert Moll and Karen Horney in Berlin and Sigmund Freud, Wilhelm Stekel and Helene Deutsch in Vienna were recognized as leaders in their fields, the German speaking world quickly became the international center of medical/scientific sex research and the birthplace of two new and distinct professional disciplines: sexology and psychoanalysis. This is the first book to closely examine vital encounters among this era's German speaking researchers across their emerging professional and disciplinary boundaries. Although psychoanalysis was often considered part of a broader sexual science, sexologists increasingly distanced themselves from its mysterious concepts and clinical methods. Instead they turned to more pragmatic interventionist therapies, in particular to the burgeoning field of hormone research which they saw as crucial to establishing their own professional relevance. As sexology and psychoanalysis diverged, heated debates arose around concerns such as the sexual life of the child, the origins and treatment of homosexuality and transgender phenomena and female frigidity. This new story of the emergence of two separate approaches to the study of sex demonstrates that the distinctions between them were always part of a dialogic and competitive process. It fundamentally revises our understanding of the production of modern sexual subjects.

Critical Disability Studies and the Disabled Child Harriet Cooper, 2020-03-20 This book examines the relationship between contemporary cultural representations of disabled children on the one hand and disability as a personal experience of internalised oppression on the other. In focalising this debate through an exploration of the politically and emotionally charged figure of the disabled child, Harriet Cooper raises questions both about what it means to speak for the other and about what resistance means when one is unknowingly invested in one's own abjection. Drawing on both the author's personal experience of growing up with a physical impairment and on a range of critical theories and cultural objects from Frances Hodgson Burnett's novel The Secret Garden to Judith Butler's work on injurious speech, the book theorises the making of disabled and rehabilitated subjectivities. With a conceptual framework informed by both psychoanalysis and critical disability studies it investigates the ways in which cultural anxieties about disability come to be embodied and lived by the disabled child Posing new questions for disability studies and for identity politics about the relationships between lived experiences cultural representations and dominant discourses and demonstrating a new approach to the concept of internalised oppression this book will be of interest to scholars and students of disability studies medical humanities sociology and psychosocial studies as well as to those with an interest in identity politics more generally

Dramaturgy and History Caitlin A. Kane, Erin Stoneking, 2024-10-22 Dramaturgy and History provides a practical account of an aspect of dramaturgical practice that is often taken for granted dramaturgs engagements with history and historiography Dramaturgs play a vital role in amplifying and activating theatre s unique potential to contribute to the pressing public discourse around the uses and legacies of history This collection challenges the notion of history as an unassailable or settled set of facts offering readers a glimpse into the processes and methods of eighteen dramaturgs working in a variety of settings including professional theatres universities museums and archives The dramaturgs featured use history to a variety of ends they reframe classical texts for contemporary audiences advocate for the production of lesser known writers and the expansion of the canon create new works that bring women s LGBTQIA and Global Majority histories to life and establish new and necessary archives by of for minoritarian artists Collectively they examine and animate some of the most urgent questions concerns and challenges that dramaturgs encounter in working with history An essential resource for teachers and students of dramaturgy the collection offers a concluding hands on exercise for each chapter to facilitate the reader s application of the methods discussed in their own practice

Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Tirado Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran s Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics Increasingly seen as a global concern human rights are at the fulcrum of the region s on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe

Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton, 2010-12-20 Now in its third edition Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single volume introduction to a vital and diverse field Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade Includes extracts from all the major critics critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies Features a new section Writing Global which covers feminism's dialogue with postcolonial global and spatial studies Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda, 2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda's engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women's and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women's and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism The Routledge Queer Studies Reader Donald E. Hall, Annamarie Jagose, 2012-06-04 The Routledge Queer Studies Reader provides a comprehensive resource for students and scholars working in this vibrant and interdisciplinary field The book traces the emergence and development of Queer Studies as a field of scholarship presenting key critical essays alongside more recent criticism that explores new directions The collection is edited by two of the leading scholars in the field and presents individual introductory notes that situate each work within its historical disciplinary and theoretical contexts essays grouped by key subject areas including Genealogies Sex Temporalities Kinship Affect Bodies and Borders writings by major figures including Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Judith Butler David M Halperin Jos Esteban Muñoz Elizabeth Grosz David Eng Judith Halberstam and Sara Ahmed The Routledge Queer Studies Reader is a field defining volume and presents an illuminating guide for established scholars and also those new to Queer Studies Disability and Masculinities Cassandra Loeser, Vicki Crowley, Barbara Pini, 2017-05-02 In recent years attending to diversity in the cultivation of embodied identity has been given additional impetus as a result of intersectionality theory Despite this a key gap remains in terms of knowledge about masculinity and disability This book addresses this lacuna through ten empirical chapters organised through the inter related themes of corporeality pedagogy and the critique of otherness Each of the chapters positions the subject of masculinity and disability as a site of cultural pedagogy by affirming different ways of knowing of masculinity beyond dominant ideologies that normalise a particular masculine body and relegate disabled masculinities to the position of abnormal Other Part One focuses on pedagogy Through the materialities of medicalized colonialism imprimaturs of relational genealogies compounding differences and an analytical exposition of some of the neo colonial conditions of the Global South within spatially considered places of the Global North Chapter 1 examines the denial of human rights to the Indigenous Anishinaabe community of Shoal Lake 40 in Canada Chapter 1 theorises masculine corporeality in terms that take seriously First Nations national and transnational body politics seriously Chapter 2 examines the ways that movement and affect serve as a form of pedagogy for boys with autism spectrum in schools Part Two's focus on corporeality includes an examination of the nexus of disability and diagnosis in the context of transgender men's experiences of mental health and a discussion of the ways that intersex individuals who identify as men and have experienced genital normalising surgery actively negotiate pluralised masculinities The focus on media in Part Three encompasses a study of the mis interpellation of the disabled male subject in Australian male literature research on the discursive strategies utilised in media representations of disabled veterans in Turkey and an analysis of the political implications of depictions of masculinity disability and sexualities in a variety television program Part Four's theme of self stylisation takes up the questions of men's reconstructions of masculinity in light of Lyme Disease the potential pleasures of heterosexuality for young men with a hearing disability in the realm of Australian Rules Football and the diverse ways that disabled men negotiate patriarchal masculinity in intimate relationships
