Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975 The Desert Michael Welland, 2014-09-15 From endless sand dunes and prickly cacti to shimmering mirages and green oases deserts evoke contradictory images in us They are lands of desolation but also of romance of blistering Mojave heat and biting Gobi cold Covering a quarter of the earth's land mass and providing a home to half a billion people they are both a physical reality and landscapes of the mind The idea of the desert has long captured Western imagination put on display in films and literature but these portrayals often fail to capture the true scope and diversity of the people living there Bridging the scientific and cultural gaps between perception and reality The Desert celebrates our fascination with these arid lands and their inhabitants as well as their importance both throughout history and in the world today Covering an immense geographical range Michael Welland wanders from the Sahara to the Atacama depicting the often bizarre adaptations of plants and animals to these hostile environments He also looks at these seemingly infertile landscapes in the context of their place in history as the birthplaces not only of critical evolutionary adaptations civilizations and social progress but also of ideologies Telling the stories of the diverse peoples who call the desert home he describes how people have survived there their contributions to agricultural development and their emphasis on water and its scarcity He also delves into the allure of deserts and how they have been used in literature and film and their influence on fashion art and architecture As Welland reveals deserts may be difficult to define but they play an active role in the evolution of our global climate and society at large and their future is of the utmost importance Entertaining informative and surprising The Desert is an intriguing new look at these seemingly harsh and inhospitable landscapes Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1974 Survival in Sun and Sand Alonzo William Pond, 1969 Relates how plants animals and people adapt themselves to survive the rigors of desert living The Rap Factor Delacorta, 1996-02-15 Zulu The Rap Factor's protagonist and Miami's hottest P I is badder than Shaft and gets more women into bed than James Bond When a beautiful young rapper poised for the top of the charts is found dead in her apartment not a mark on her perfect ebony body Zulu is off and jamming What ensues is fully worthy of the writer who has been praised by Vanity Fair for his cool stylish puzzlers and by the Los Angeles Times as one capable of four star pop entertainment This novel has gas written in the mile a minute rat a tat style of rap Delacorta mixes John D McDonald Dashiell Hammett and Mickey Spillane along with a healthy dose of wit and pure fun and comes up with one of the best reads of the summer The Washington Post Book World American Book Publishing Record ,1977-03-31 Here s quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R. Through Asia, Volume 2 Dr. Sven Hedin, 2023-08-10 Right in the heart of Asia where Britain Russia and China stretched encroaching fingers towards a possible meeting lies the mysterious tract of country passed over in half a page in our geography books and omitted except in vague and general outline from our atlases It is a region about which people have inquired little North and South have been eagerly explored the Pole and Sahara are brought so to speak to our doors But the centuries have passed with but few attempts to penetrate the core of the mysterious East There is something about the very name of Khotan of the Pamirs of Mus tagh ata which tickles the imagination and we confess to something of a superstitious thrill in opening Dr Sven Hedin s book For if the hidden Lama is to be unveiled surely we have a right to expect portents But what do we find That Dr Hedin visited the Temple of the Ten Thousand Images and had tea with the Living Buddha Yet that was a mere incident disposed of in a few lines of a book whose every page is alive with serious interest Dr Hedin has plenty of humour and of good humour but his book is one to be taken seriously He has traversed thousands of miles where no European had ever before set foot his adventures and experiences have been in themselves extraordinary and his discoveries of far reaching importance but perhaps the charm of the book lies as much as anywhere else in the writer s art of telling his story simply and unaffectedly and of keeping the warm human interest alive from first to last There is hardly a more fascinating or a more thrilling travel book The descriptions of the various attempts to scale the Mus tagh ata of the wonderful scenic effects of the mental and physical sensations of the traveller and the grand invincibility of the Father of the Ice Mountains are enough to set the nerves a tingling in the bare reading
