Esther David M. Adams, 2007-01-01 The Christian church is now under violent physical attack in many nations around the world and it takes little imagination to see the same tendencies gathering force in western democracies including Britain Against such developments the spiritually feeble grievously fragmented church in the UK cannot stand unless it wakes up to and confronts the gathering forces of darkness The book of Esther speaks incisively into our present situation it is a wake up call a trumpet blast of God to a church that stands almost defenceless before a ruthless enemy intent upon her destruction In this sense Esther is a book whose time has come     Pentecost David M.
