Staursky defeats Flores in Brunswick ward 4 race

By GARY MCLENDARO

BRUNSWICK — George Staursky won the Ward 4 seat Tuesday night in a stunning upset of the incumbent, Anthony Flores. The main issue of the campaign, so far as Staursky was concerned, was the record of Flores.

Staursky said Flores was ahead from too many council meetings and was not representing the ward properly.

A Poetic Journey Tina Kaye Hoyer, 2011-04-13 I look in the mirror and what do I see? The vision unravels of what is to be. The shell of a woman whose life has been taken away. What does it mean to look forward to a new day? Take me away from the life that I lead. All I feel is the need to bleed. The desire to see red is like hunger or greed. Unzip my skin and set my heart free. Is there such a thing as a happy me? Or carrying this burden will I always be? From fleeing for her life from a crazed boyfriend to an accidental overdose of prescribed medications and not to mention a life-threatening cutting disorder and eight stays in mental institutions Tina has overcome monumental obstacles to get to where she is now. Her goal with this book is to inspire and to help others with Bipolar Disorder realize each has different challenges but all can be managed with the proper amount of drive, persistence, and desire to do so. In this book her poetry tells the traumatic story of her battle back to reality from her living hell with all the raw emotion she was feeling along the way. Tina opens her heart and soul and pours it out before you in these pages through her intense gut-wrenching poems. You will follow Tina on her journey as she describes to you through her poetry what it took to return to reality. Her bipolar life story covers forty-seven years of sobriety and forty-five years on lithium therapy, how her illnesses have interacted and particularly how much of the shape of her life and her achievement of her life's goals, including for the last forty-seven years sobriety, has been shaped by her bipolarity.
