it focuses on three areas of particular importance 1 Craig s artistic ideas and the spread of his influence through exhibitions and books proposals are developed for work with Otto Brahm Eleonora Duse Max Reinhardt Henry van de Velde Eduard Verkade Leopold Jessner Dyaghilev Beerbohm Tree C B Cochran and others 2 Kessler s Cranach Press Hamlet with wood engraved illustrations by Craig this is a landmark in the history of twentieth century book design and printing whose genesis is now fully revealed in these letters and amplified with reproductions of eighteen trial page proofs 3 The relationship between an artist and his patron Exceptionally detailed indexes are an additional feature of this book Beyond the Mask Irène Eynat-Confino,1987 Eynat Confino goes beyond the usual consideration of Craig s purported theories of the actor scenery and the scene painter to get at the heart of Craig s idea of theater She draws not only on the research of contemporary Craig scholars but on material hitherto unavailable his writings and daybooks and the writings of friends She ties Craig s encounter with Isadora Duncan to a decisive modification in his notion of movement To have an instrument more controllable than the actor he invented the ber marionette a giant puppet Craig also invented the Scene a kinetic stage the screens that brought him worldwide fame were simply an adaptation of this concept Eynat Confino argues that a scenario Craig wrote in 1905 here published for the first time reveals a theosophical system like that of Blake a system that was the main force motivating Craig s artistic quest In her final chapter she carefully examines the psychological aesthetic and circumstantial factors that kept Craig from completing his work to bring friendliness humor love ease peace to the world

Reconnecting Aestheticism and Modernism Bénédicte Coste, Catherine Delyfer, Christine Reynier, 2016-10-04 Charting the period that extends from the 1860s to the 1940s this volume offers fresh perspectives on Aestheticism and Modernism By acknowledging that both movements had a passion for the new it goes beyond the alleged divide between Modernism and its predecessors Rather than reading the modernist credo Make it New as a desire to break away from the past the authors of this book suggest reading it as a continuation and a reappropriation of the spirit of the New that characterizes Aestheticism Basing their arguments on recent reassessments of Aestheticism and Modernism and their articulation contributors take up the challenge of interrogating the connections continuities and intersections between the two movements thus revealing the working processes of cultural and aesthetic change so as to reassess the value of the new for each Attending to well known writers such as Waugh Woolf Richardson Eliot Pound Ford Symonds Wilde and Hopkins as well as to hitherto neglected figures such as Lucas Malet L.S. Gibbon Leonard Woolf or George Egerton they revise assumptions about Aestheticism and Modernism and their very definitions This collection brings together international scholars specializing in Aestheticism or Modernism who push their analyses beyond their strict period of expertise and take both movements into account through exciting approaches that borrow from aesthetics philosophy or economics The volume proposes a corrective to the traditional narratives of the history of Aestheticism and Modernism revitalizing definitions of these movements and revealing new directions in aestheticist and modernist studies
