The Gospel according to Mark Camille Focant, 2012-07-06 The world to which the Gospel of Mark introduces its reader is a world of conflicts and suspense enigmas and secrets questions and overturning of evidence irony and surprise Its principal actor Jesus is perplexing in the extreme He is evidently so for the religious authorities who oppose him but also for his disciples who shift from incomprehension to opposition and flight Questions of meaning life and death good and evil are continually broached This narrative is a subtle invitation to enter into a new world that of the coming Reign of God in which the first are last and whoever wants to save his life must lose it This commentary on the Gospel of Mark has been enthusiastically reviewed in the French edition as one of the best current commentaries on Mark As a narrative critical commentary it favors an interpretation of the Gospel that tries to grasp the dynamic of the text taken as a whole Even if the technical vocabulary of narrative analysis is not used and the main results of the historical critical criticism particularly those of redaction criticism are not neglected as the notes will reveal it is narrative criticism that guides the proceedings

Campbell Morgan, 2010-04-01 Mark was probably the first Gospel to be written and traditionally has been associated with Peter who opened the door of faith to the Romans as the human source Service is its keynote and speed its characteristics There is a charm about it which is distinctively its own much of which is created by the bluntness and brevity of the writing of a man evidently untrained in literary methods but also by its fast moving chronological continuity There is a freshness and vigor about it which immediately grips and binds In reading it we are able swiftly but with keen and alert interest to move with Jesus of Nazareth through the wonderful crowded years of His public ministry Dr Morgan prepared these expositions in the very spirit of the Gospel while preaching frequently and moving rapidly but with captured heart Their supreme purpose is to help hurrying men and women in these rushing days to go in the company of Jesus of Him who ever moved with haste but always with poise and peace along the tortuous and at times terrifying highway of life
