

The background of the entire image is a deep space scene. It features a dark blue and black void filled with numerous small, distant stars. A prominent, bright yellow star is located near the top center, casting a soft glow. To the right, a vibrant, multi-colored nebula or galaxy structure is visible, with streaks of red, purple, and blue. In the lower center, a large, detailed planet resembling Earth is shown, with blue oceans and white cloud patterns. Several other celestial bodies, including a reddish planet and a yellowish one, are scattered throughout the scene. The overall composition is designed to evoke a sense of vastness and divine creation.
