Got The Time A Search For Hope Amidst Homelessness:

Got the Time? Lori Gonzalez, 2003 A Journey into the Lives of the Homeless The homeless Those who dwell on the edge of society often invisible to the rest of us Yet Jesus said in Matthew 25 35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink I was a stranger and you invited me in Enter a homemaker and mother of three who takes time out of her hectic schedule one evening to dish up the gravy at a Los Angeles area homeless shelter Like so many others she had never really given the homeless much thought Then between the first scoop of gravy and the last that night her life changed Instead of simply ladling gravy as she had been directed she finds herself looking intently into each person's eyes and she is gripped by a deeply felt belief that she is seeing each of these people through the eyes of God On the Brink of Hope Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-20 In the heart of the vibrant metropolis where towering skyscrapers cast long shadows and the streets throb with the pulse of life lies a hidden world a world of forgotten corners and unseen struggles On the Brink of Hope delves into the lives of those who reside on the fringes of society the homeless men and women who navigate the harsh realities of life on the streets Through their eyes we witness the unrelenting hardships they face the bitter cold that seeps into their bones the hunger that gnaws at their stomachs and the constant fear that lurks in the shadows We encounter individuals who have lost everything their homes their families their sense of belonging yet they persist clinging to the belief that a better tomorrow awaits them But amidst the despair we also discover moments of profound beauty and resilience We witness acts of kindness from strangers the unwavering support of friends and the indomitable will of those who refuse to be defined by their circumstances These stories remind us of the resilience of the human spirit its capacity to endure unimaginable hardship and still find hope amidst the darkness On the Brink of Hope is a poignant tapestry of human struggle a testament to the strength and resilience of the human spirit It is a call to action a reminder that we cannot turn a blind eye to the plight of the homeless Their stories demand our attention our empathy and our action They deserve a chance to rebuild their lives to find a place where they can feel safe loved and valued Ultimately this book is a celebration of the human spirit an ode to the indomitable will that resides within us all It is a reminder that even in the darkest of times hope can prevail Join us on this journey as we explore the lives of those who live on the brink of hope and discover the extraordinary resilience of the human spirit If you like this book write a review on google books

Hope in Darkness Badetti, Luca, 2023 This is a modern take on classical spirituality but the author's experience in the field of mental health and spiritual direction and his work with L Arche are reflected in his approach He focuses more on the process of dwelling in the experience of darkness and difficulty what he refers to as the middle space rather than a treatise on the Dark Night of the Soul accepting and overcoming it He feels that this middle space has been neglected and is worth exploring This will be greatly consoling to those who are in darkness and searching for its end the idea of resting in it for a time Homeless Youth and the Search for Stability Jeff Karabanow, Sean Kidd, Tyler Frederick, Jean

Hughes,2018-05-30 Youth are one of the fastest growing segments of the homeless population Although there has been much research on how youth become homeless and survive on the streets we know very little about their pathways off the street and the many challenges that present during this process This book relates the lived experiences of homeless youth as they negotiate the individual sociocultural and economic tensions of transitioning out of homeless and street contexts and cultures Through interviews the authors gained privileged entry into the lives of youth in Toronto and Halifax over a year long period Through rich qualitative prose quantitative elaboration and comic book narratives participants spoke of courage fortitude strength adversity and at times simple bad luck Ultimately this became a story of fragility complexity living on the edge and the re building of identity

Hope Rosemarie Rizzo Parse,1999 The goal of this book is to provide the reader with the research findings from international qualitative human science studies on hope conducted in nine countries including Australia Canada Finland Italy Japan Sweden Taiwan The United Kingdom And The United States The findings from these qualitative research studies enhance the knowledge base on the phenomenon of hope shed new light on its meaning and expand understanding of human becoming theory

Crossing the Dream Line Michèle Vachon Beaudin,2010 Ten years have past since Carla Betsy Patricia Barbara Jackie Julie and Lucy crossed their 50 yard lines As they approach their sixth decade each of these unique and special women come face to face with dreams that may never come to fruition and dreams that lie yet to be discovered With a unique twist Michele Beaudin in her sequel to Crossing the 50 Yard Line chronicles their journey down the passage ways of life with it s doors both closing and opening at the same time

Living Homeless Scarlett Stoyer,2025-03-03 In a journey marked by loss despair and ultimately redemption this book delves into the life of a person grappling with homelessness and addiction Each chapter unfolds personal stories and pivotal moments from the initial encounter with the streets to the harsh realities of survival and the struggles of reclaiming identity With themes of faith community and resilience the narrative navigates through the darkness of temptations and the light of unlikely friendships It explores the battles within oneself the painful process of healing and the arduous path towards rebuilding a life once shattered Through reflections on survival and the quest for purpose this book serves as a testament to the human spirit s capacity to rise again inspire others and ultimately transform pain into hope Readers will find both heart wrenching truths and uplifting messages offering a profound connection to those who are often invisible in society

Finding Home, Hope, and a Future Ann Kelleher,2023-06-02 Finding Home Hope and a Future Achieving Integrated Social Services at Harbor Care tells the story of a trail blazing nonprofit in Nashua New Hampshire Originally named Harbor Homes in July 1982 the newly incorporated organization began work in its remodeled group home supporting nine clients with persistent mental illnesses Forty years later the nonprofit now named Harbor Care owns twenty eight facilities and is supporting over five thousand individuals and families 93 percent of whom are low income Currently Harbor Care s clients in a wide variety of groups needing assistance access safe housing medical dental mental health care substance misuse treatment and other critical supports such as food transportation and employment services All are provided within an integrated system of social services With the goal of helping clients become more independent the nonprofit s policies and practices have significantly reduced homelessness in the city and assisted clients to live self directed productive lives Finding Home Hope and a Future explains how such an extensive network of clients and services came to be by highlighting personal stories of individuals who helped build the pioneering organization

Hinduism Before Reform Brian A. Hatcher,2020-03-10 A bold retelling of the origins of contemporary Hinduism and an argument against the long established notion of religious reform By the early eighteenth century the Mughal Empire was in decline and the East India Company was making inroads into the subcontinent A century later Christian missionaries Hindu teachers Muslim saints and Sikh rebels formed the colorful religious fabric of colonial India Focusing on two early nineteenth century Hindu communities the Brahmo Samaj and the Swaminarayan Sampraday and their charismatic figureheads the cosmopolitan Rammohun Roy and the parochial Swami Narayan Brian Hatcher explores how urban and rural people thought about faith ritual and gods Along the way he sketches a radical new view of the origins of contemporary Hinduism and overturns the idea of religious reform Hinduism Before Reform challenges the rigid structure of revelation schism reform sect prevalent in much history of religion Reform in particular plays an important role in how we think about influential Hindu movements and religious history at large Through the lens of reform one doctrine is inevitably backward looking while another represents modernity From this comparison flows a host of simplistic conclusions Instead of presuming a clear dichotomy between backward and modern Hatcher is interested in how religious authority is acquired and projected Hinduism Before Reform asks how religious history would look if we eschewed the obfuscating binary of progress and tradition There is another way to conceptualize the origins and significance of these two Hindu movements one that does not trap them within the teleology of a predetermined modernity

The Heart-Home Builder: Cultivating an Inner Sanctuary with Christ amid Life's Difficulties Rachel Braunscheidel,2018-10-25 We all have struggles in life that interrupt our feelings of peace Burdens weigh heavy on us and we ache for a sense of refuge hope and belonging In the midst of this exploration a promise reaches out from the gospel Jesus tells us that when we welcome him into our hearts he will draw near and make his home with us John 14 23 But what if this heart space was something more of a heart home In The Heart Home Builder author Rachel Braunscheidel ponders what a heart home is and how we can cultivate one even in the midst of life s difficulties Rachel shares her own experiences with chronic illness and invites you into the hope she s found despite this pain It is an invitation and an adventure to find deep hope grace and belonging right in the center of our souls

Hearts and Minds Without Fear Barbara A. Clark,James Joss French,2014-06-01 Hearts and Minds Without Fear Unmasking the Sacred in Teacher Preparation is the first book of its kind that focuses on the critical urgency of integrating creativity mindfulness and compassion in which social and ecological justice are forefronted in teacher preparation This is especially significant at a time of cultural turmoil educational reform and inequities in public education The book serves as a vehicle to unmask fear within current educational ethical deficiencies and revitalize hope for community members teacher educators pre service in service teachers and families in school communities The recipients of these strategies are explicitly presented in order to build understanding of a compassionate paradigm shift in schools that envisions possibility and social imagination on behalf of our children in schools and our communities The authors unabashedly place the arts and aesthetics at the core of the educational paradigm solution The book lives its own message Within each seed chapter the authors practice authentically what they preach offering a refreshing perspective to bring our schools back to life and instill hope in children s and educators hearts and minds
