Greene, 2015-02-10 One boy figures out how to survive New York City his parents divorce and a new sister named Sproppy Adam is a real New Yorker He may only be a preteen but he's Manhattan through and through from his boys only club to his friendship with Charlie the building's doorman And like all real New Yorkers Adam takes bad news in stride The night his parents walk into his bedroom to tell him they're getting a divorce and his father is moving to England for two years is no exception Adam knows he'll be OK After all he's got his mother good friends and nice teachers But when his dad returns from Great Britain with a strange wife and a new sister for Adam he isn't exactly tap dancing for joy Especially since his new sister's name is Sproppy Even worse Dad expects Adam to show Sproppy around school It seems like things couldn't get any worse But somehow they do His friends They actually like her His teachers They think she's adorable She's taking over his comfortable Manhattan life and everyone expects him to be happy about it With absolutely no way out of this it's up to Adam to make things better After all everyone has to grow up eventually Loonyology Charles Bronson, 2011-11-09 Lifer Charlie Bronson's reputation precedes him Britain's most violent prisoner or does it Do we really know the true Charlie or are our impressions the result of media hype Well what is in no doubt is that Loonyology is 200% Bronson and will transport the reader on the dizziest no holds barred roller coaster ride of their lives from suspense and shock to laughter and tears and from Bronson the Solitary King to Bronson the Philosopher the Poet the Artist the Author the Joker the Walking Scar and the Freedom Fighter Now 55 years old and having spent most of his last 34 years as a maximum security Bronco Zoo inmate he's a much wiser man as he looks back on his crazy journey of unpredictable behaviour his ever alert mind darting from reminiscences of his teenage years to memories of fellow cons the screws the cranks letters and news reports prison life and procedures and the overall madness loonyology of the legal and penal systems peppering his stories with diary entries true gems of information sound advice and hilarious one liners Together with his many supporters and with the aid of a top lawyer Charlie is campaigning for the parole board to finally allow him his freedom but begging is not his style he calls a spade a spade and is determined to win with dignity fighting with his pen and his brain to achieve his aim of a life outside the cage In his words I chose to be a villain I'm not proud of it nor am I ashamed of it I have paid my debt to society and it's time to go home Battlefield Commission Curt Munson, 2016-01-21 Idealistic Marine Charlie McDowell represents the third generation of his family to serve his country in time of war But after two years in combat Charlie has a battlefield commission and wound so serious it threatens to waylay his military career He's forced to return home to conquer the rehabilitation that stands in the way of his return to active duty While there he also plans to finish his education and reconcile with the girl he loves Before any of that can happen though Charlie is rocked by trauma related depression nightmares and hallucinations that threaten to turn him into an emotional as well as physical cripple He realizes he must learn to deal with the horror of what he has seen and done overseas Charlie's fight to recover also demands he survive his new commanding officer a bitter man with an old score to settle who seems determined to drive Charlie from the service From the battlefield to the bedroom to the halls of academia Charlie McDowell is a man of his time and so much more but can he conquer his own demons to become the hero of his aspirations

The Colorblind Screen Sarah Nilsen, Sarah E. Turner, 2014-04-04 In The Colorblind Screen the contributors examine television's role as the major discursive medium in the articulation and contestation of racialized identities in the United States While the dominant mode of televisual racialization has shifted to a colorblind ideology that foregrounds racial differences in order to celebrate multicultural assimilation the volume investigates how this practice denies the significant social economic and political realities and inequalities that continue to define race relations today Focusing on such iconic figures as President Obama LeBron James and Oprah Winfrey many chapters examine the ways in which race is read by television audiences and fans Other essays focus on how visual constructions of race in dramas like 24 Sleeper Cell and The Wanted continue to conflate Arab and Muslim identities in post 9 11 television The volume offers an important intervention in the study of the televisual representation of race engaging with multiple aspects of the mythologies developing around notions of a post racial America and the duplicitous discursive rationale offered by the ideology of colorblindness Publisher's website

Buckley, 2023-08-18 44 year old Harmonie Blake visits her mother only to discover her dead. Distraught at the loss of her only remaining family member she begins the arduous task of sorting out her mother's affairs and coping with her grief. The more she digs into her mother's tumultuous past the more she realizes how little her mother shared. She follows one clue and traces her mother's life when she served in the British Army in the London Theatre of War. Through Harmonie's narrative the story turns to the war-torn streets of London. There Helen's relationships change her life. Would her sense of independence and courage be enough for her to survive failed romances, danger and death, and Helen's attempts to shed her Cockney roots and family secrets for a better life? Can Harmonie connect to the real spirit of her mother and will she find peace in finally letting go of a woman she has only just begun to understand?
