Good Son A Novel:

The Good Son Craig Nova,1989 It has characters of great outward bravery and of heartbreaking inner need indeed the characters are as vivid with suffering and with spirit as recurring dreams John Irving The New York Times Book Review

The Good Son Craig Nova,1989-05 The Good Son Jacquelyn Mitchard,2022-02-23 From No 1 New York Times bestselling author Jacquelyn Mitchard comes the gripping emotionally charged novel of a mother who must help her son after he is convicted of a devastating crime What do you do when the person you love best becomes unrecognisable to you For Thea Demetriou the answer is both simple and agonising you keep loving him somehow Stefan was just seventeen when he went to prison for the drug fuelled murder of his girlfriend Belinda Three years later he s released to a world that refuses to let him move on Belinda s mother once Thea s good friend galvanises the community to rally against him to protest in her daughter s memory The media paints Stefan as a symbol of white privilege and indifferent justice Neighbours employers even some members of Thea s own family turn away Meanwhile Thea struggles to understand her son At times he is still the sweet boy he has always been at others he is a young man tormented by guilt and almost broken by his time in prison But as his efforts to make amends meet escalating resistance and threats Thea suspects more forces are at play than just community outrage And if there is so much she never knew about her own son what other secrets has she yet to uncover especially about the night Belinda died The Good Son Todd Strasser,1993 Based on the Screenplay by Ian McEwan SEOUL

O'Rourke,1993-01-01 This book is O Rourke s first volume of nonfiction since his 1972 The Harrisburg 7 and the New Catholic Left which Garry Wills hailed as a clinical x ray of our society s condition That book prompted Herbert Mitgang to name O Rourke one of the finest writers of his generation Signs of the Literary Times provides new evidence for that assessment It brings together O Rourke s unique mixture of literary political and cultural criticism published periodically during the last twenty two years The collection ranges from autobiographical essays describing his generation s literary evolution to articles on free speech issues such as nude dancing and the Bush era NEA controversies as well as book reviews that provide a fresh and largely uncharted critical map of the period O Rourke is not only interested in genre bending and expansion but in persevering during this age of academic specialization as in his phrase a person of letters In the two decades between his first work of nonfiction and this volume O Rourke has published three highly acclaimed novels The

Meekness of Isaac 1974 Idle Hands 1981 and Criminal Tendencies 1987 Of the last The Virginia Quarterly Review wrote Of all the novelists paraded in recent years by publishers as natural successors to Graham Greene this one comes the closest A thoroughly entertaining literary event Signs of the Literary Times is not so much a compendium of diverse pieces on various subjects as it is a cogent and continuing x ray of our society s condition

Tradition and Modernity. Changing the Images of Women in Selected Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur s Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair s Ladies Coup and Mistress

The Book of Kings V. N. Phillips, 1999 Much more than a simple portrait of a pioneer family this chronicle is actually a history of Bristol from a different perspective It would be virtually impossible to write a complete history of this city without including a record of the pioneer King family Likewise it would be very difficult to write of this family and not become involved in general Bristol history
