Iain McIntyre

Goodbye Chicago:

Coming Home Paul A. Contos, 2014-01-30 A real life experience and a sobering surprise for a WWII veteran returning to the United States after having served in Europe for about 18 months Having been notified that it was his turn to be released from service he was sure that he was going to the home he left two years earlier Upon returning he was faced with the reality that the home was not his and there was no room for him Although not stated the message was Sorry Buster you dont live here anymore What happened It is generally assumed that one has a home a physical shelter where you hang your hat or where you are a member of a household with either the given rights of residency or other qualifying reason s Without the legitimacy of an assumed status in a home does any metaphor describing a destination or objective such as coming home make it a rite of passage Despite the object lesson the veteran courageously dealt with it and moved on achieving a better life than was anticipated or foreseen in his childhood home Could this story be a message lesson or guidance for parents or is it a sobering reality of rights Despite an upsetting experience a last minute compromise and the veterans tenacity allowed him a temporary residence that gave him an opportunity to adjust to the changed landscape Margaret Haley's Bulletin ,1929

Outlaw, 2022-11-17 A life of abundance can be yours just keep God first. God Is Enough is a true story of trauma to triumph. As you read the author's unfiltered testimony, you will be able to relate to various forms of trauma and be encouraged to press past life's issues and go after everything God promised you. Veronica was married at 24, spousally abused, and divorced by 25; a single parent by 26; married again by 31; divorced by 34; financially bankrupt by 35; and an empty nester by 45. The first half of her life was filled with various types of trauma, and she struggled with a lack of confidence, self-worth, and self-esteem. She spent her whole life caring for others, and upon reaching her mid-forties, she didn't know life aside from motherhood, work, and education. She realized that she needed deliverance from a sea of trauma and to discover who she really was if she wanted to be happy and at peace. She made the decision to surrender her life to Christ in 2015. Now in her 50s, she has discovered that God is enough through any situation, including insecurity, heartbreaks, shame, rejection, unforgiveness, loneliness, abstinence, and lack of identity, confidence, and purpose. With God, the power of her choice led to the power of her voice, which led to her life's transformation. Veronica Outlaw PhD is a forgiveness life transformation coach, educator, survivor, and advocate for domestic abuse and advocate for caregivers. She is also the founder of God Is Enough Apparel LLC, which strives to spread the word and love of God through fashion. Her life's mission is to empower and educate women to develop self-worth, learn to forgive, and be unapologetically independent.
