which profited Hull so well came at a higher cost than most would expect. In only 100 years the population rose from 22,000 to 239,000. Houses were built quickly and close together, public health suffered dramatically, and disease was rife. The vast population meant a very high level of crime. With almost one murder every other week, assaults, suicides, and other acts of violence were so frequent that newspapers only reported the most vile of crimes. Victorian Hull was a very dangerous place to live indeed. David Goodman has put together a number of murders, suicides, and unsolved murders from 1873 through to 1924. Stories include Murder on the Farm 1903, Annie Marshall, a 15-year-old farm worker, was shot twice in the face and dumped into the river by a fellow worker. Horrific Child Murder 1873, Sarah Alice, only 4 months old, was beheaded by her own mother after she failed to bond with the child; she was found not guilty on the grounds of insanity and detained at Her Majesty's pleasure.
