

Elements of Argument

in writing

Argument

Three types:
A fact is a statement that can be proven true or false.
A claim is a statement that is arguable.
A fact statement is a statement that can be proven to be true or false.

Concluding Statements

Concluding statements are the final sentences of an argument. They summarize the main points of the argument and provide a clear conclusion.

Conclusions

Conclusions are the final sentences of an argument. They summarize the main points of the argument and provide a clear conclusion.

The Six Parts of an Argument

Call to Action

Call to action is a statement that encourages the reader to take a specific action. It is often used in persuasive writing to motivate the reader to take a specific action.

Argumentative Writing

Argumentative writing is a form of writing in which the writer presents a claim and supports it with evidence and reasoning.

Introduction & Definition

Introduction & Definition is the first part of an argument. It introduces the topic and defines the key terms used in the argument.
