Daily Affirmations for Forgiving and Moving On Tian Dayton, 2010-01-01 There is a point in our lives when we seem to stand in the center of our own decision about who we are and how we want to be It comes after enough of the past pain resentment and grief have been spent enough deep holes and yearnings have been filled enough baggage from the past has been dealt with Now that we've restored ourselves to a good enough status we're ready to meet life more or less as it is happening At this point we need to recognize which attitudes and behavior patterns will serve us throughout the rest of our lives and which need to be let go Can the lives we have envisioned for ourselves flourish under the weight of carried resentment from the past What does it cost us in terms of happiness and well being to hang on to the blame and hurt stories All of us have so much of the world in our lives dragging us away from faith that this kind of book is what we need Rita Varley Philadelphia Yearly Meeting Library What Canst Thou Say is a quarterly newsletter that has gathered stories of Quakers sharing their first hand mystical experience and contemplative practice It is produced cooperatively by a group of volunteers who themselves have felt the movement of the Spirit and wish to deepen their understanding by interacting with others This book includes some of the stories and poems published in the first ten years as celebration of our tenth anniversary     The Author of Love Joc Anderson,2011-07-08 Throughout history God has been depicted variously as a judgmental tyrant a grand conciliator and even as a rather low key comic portrayed by the cigar smoking George Burns in the movie Oh God The question thats begging to be answered is Who is God This devotional evolved out of one persons desire to portray God in a truer light In the Book of Job God reprimanded Jobs friends for failing to speak truthfully about Him They misrepresented His character Job on the other hand understood His Maker and was therefore the single voice of truth in an otherwise corrupt world Can you honestly say that you know your Creator Can you speak truthfully about Him This devotional will help you get to know the real God who is neither the judgmental tyrant nor the light weight movie character

 He is if nothing else a God of love and compassion At the conclusion of your devotionals I have formulated a Love Quotient L Q test to measure the depth of your love The questions are designed to be thought provoking and insightful You may also find them a bit daunting and uncomfortable Answer each question according to your beliefs There are no wrong or right answers
 It is my hope youll find this little exercise revealing and instructive of how you love The answers and Key is also included
