Forgotten Readers Recovering The Lost History Of African American Literary Societies New Americanists:

Forgotten Readers Elizabeth McHenry, 2002-10-31 Recovers the history of nineteenth and early twentieth century African American reading societies Black/Africana Studies and Black/Africana Biblical Studies Abraham Smith, 2020-11-04 In this study Abraham Smith introduces the nature history and interventions of two theoretical political cultural productions Black Africana studies the systematic and rigorous study of Africa and African descendants and Black Africana biblical studies a biblical studies subfield that analyzes and appraises the strategies of reception and the historical and contemporary impact of the Christian bible for people of African descent Both cultural productions were formally introduced in U S educational institutions in the late 1960s as a part of the Black Freedom movement Both have long and deep intellectual antecedents on the one hand and ever evolving recent interventions that challenge a narrow politics of identity on the other Through the interrogation of keywords such as race family and Hip Hop or cartographies canons and contexts moreover the study examines how these two theoretical political projects question the settled epistemologies or prevailing intellectual currencies of their respective times Reading Communities from Salons to Cyberspace DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2011-08-25 Reading is both a social process and a social formation as this book illustrates across centuries and cultural contexts Highlighting links evident in reading communities from literary salons to online environments each essay reflects the rich repertoire of research methods available to reading scholars Black Print Unbound Eric Gardner, 2015-09-01 Black Print Unbound explores the development of the Christian Recorder during and just after the American Civil War Shadow Bodies Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, 2017-10-27 What does it mean for Black women to organize in a political context that has generally ignored them or been unresponsive although Black women have shown themselves an important voting bloc How for example does sayhername translate into a political agenda that manifests itself in specific policies Shadow Bodies focuses on the positionality of the Black woman s body which serves as a springboard for helping us think through political and cultural representations It does so by asking How do discursive practices both speech and silences support and maintain hegemonic understandings of Black womanhood thereby rendering some Black women as shadow bodies unseen and unremarked upon Grounded in Black feminist thought Julia S Jordan Zachery looks at the functioning of scripts ascribed to Black women s bodies in the framing of HIV AIDS domestic abuse and mental illness and how such functioning renders some bodies invisible in Black politics in general and Black women s politics specifically Remapping Citizenship and the Nation in African-American Literature Stephen Knadler, 2009-09-10 In this study Knadler examines how African American writers often traveling to the margins of a nineteenth and early twentieth century U S Empire developed sets of cross racial cross national identifications sympathies and alliances that caused them to challenge dominant ideas of U S nationalism democracy and citizenship My Faith in the Constitution Is Whole Robin L. Owens, 2022 The author argues that Barbara Jordan makes American scripture i e the Constitution function in her speeches as a central component in a discursive rhetorical strategy of indirection which she refers to as signifying on scriptures Jordan uses the Constitution along with her personal history as an African American woman to promote advocacy for racial justice and gender equality The book is proposed for a new series edited by Terrence Johnson on Race Religion and Politics Race Religion and Politics explores the increasingly creative and critical attention paid by scholars in recent decades to race and racial construction political cultural theological and philosophical in the formation of religion and in the relationship between religion and politics This book series examines the conditions under which religion and politics coexist within varying and competing conceptual schemes of race History of the Book in Canada: 1840-1918 History of the Book in Canada Project,2004-01-01 This second of three volumes in the History of the Book in Canada demonstrates the same research and editorial standards established with Volume One by book history specialists from across the nation Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Freedom's Horizon Isadora Moura Mota,2025-05-06 A social and transnational history of black abolitionism in Brazil Freedom s Horizon is a transnational history of black abolitionism in Brazil In the last country to abolish slavery in the Western Hemisphere enslaved and free Africans and their descendants crafted their visions of liberation by thinking comparatively about the uneven spread of abolition across the Atlantic world Between the 1840s and 1860s they acted on the idea that the end of slavery anywhere placed freedom on the horizon in Brazil Thus they pursued alliances with British diplomats rose in arms at the sight of both Union and Confederate warships off Brazil s Atlantic coast sought free soil at foreign consulates on ships and in maroon settlements called quilombos and organized uprisings for immediate abolition after learning of international emancipation struggles in the newspapers Isadora Moura Mota shows that through flight marronage rebellion and literacy practices enslaved and freed peoples in Brazil developed a geopolitical imagination in dialogue with the British campaign against the slave trade banned in Brazil in 1850 French antislavery the Haitian Revolution the US Civil War and the Triple Alliance War 1865 1870 in South America Traditionally historical research has focused on the 1870s and 1880s when abolition emerged as Brazil s first national mass political movement ultimately leading to the outlawing of slavery in 1888 By turning attention to earlier decades and to the role of literacy in the associational lives of afro Brazilians Freedom s Horizon reveals that abolitionism was more than just the cause of North Atlantic reformers Latin American modernizing elites or middle class advocates It was a grassroots movement that originated in the social and conceptual worlds of the enslaved and connected to a hemispheric black radical tradition America, History and Life ,2005 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2003 Program of the Annual Meeting - American Historical Association American Historical Association,2003 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association The Book Review Digest ,2003 Representations ,2002 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2003 Report National Humanities Center
