Memorylands Sharon Macdonald, 2013-07-18 Memorylands is an original and fascinating investigation of the nature of heritage memory and understandings of the past in Europe today It looks at how Europe has become a memoryland littered with material reminders of the past such as museums heritage sites and memorials and at how this memory phenomenon is related to the changing nature of identities especially European national and cosmopolitan In doing so it provides new insights into how memory and the past are being performed and reconfigured in Europe and with what effects Drawing especially though not exclusively on cases concepts and arguments from social and cultural anthropology Memorylands argues for a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the cultural assumptions involved in relating to the past It theorizes the various ways in which materializations of identity work and relates these to different forms of identification within Europe The book also addresses questions of methodology including discussion of historical ethnographic interdisciplinary and innovative methods Through a wide range of case studies from across Europe Sharon Macdonald argues that Europe is home to a much greater range of ways of making the past present than is usually realized and a greater range of forms of historical consciousness At the same time however she seeks to highlight what she calls the European memory complex a repertoire of prevalent patterns in forms of recollection and past presencing The examples in Memorylands are drawn from both the margins and metropolitan centres from the relatively small scale and local the national and the avant garde The book looks at pasts that are potentially identity disrupting or difficult as well as those that affirm identities or offer possibilities for transcending national identities or articulating more cosmopolitan futures Topics covered include authenticity temporalities embodiment commodification nostalgia and Ostalgie the musealization of everyday and folk life Holocaust commemoration and tourism narratives of war the heritage of Islam transnationalism and the future of the past Memorylands is engagingly written and accessible to general readers as well as offering a new synthesis for advanced researchers in memory and heritage studies It is essential reading for those interested in identities memory material culture Europe tourism and heritage

From Pollen to Stardust Ekillous,2017-05-03 From Pollen to Stardust is a poetic expression of a journey towards love Using mythic imagery man finds himself in a realm of duality Light and dark guide him Magic lies in the belief in self and awakening comes through the soul s courage to enter both worlds of good and evil Jean Galliano Mystic Poet In pursuit of love this book reads like a ritual of complexity Images of a river winding its course towards an endless expanse From Pollen to Stardust is a work in progress emerging from an ocean of dreams ASCHAK Visual Artist Poet Fantastic A vision painted with words Take your time and enjoy the path you re being led down Arazel Painter Model Wordsmith The English Woman's Journal , I Talk to Dragonflys Hilda Nightingale,2008-09 With Teaching Kids the Fun Way you can teach kids and entertain them at the same time This book uses pre written skits to help teach kids how to handle everyday situations The fun part is that the kids actually perform the skits This allows them to be more involved in the learning experience Following each skit there are some questions to stimulate discussion about the topic After the group discussion the instructor can give some tips on the proper way to deal with the situation You can also add biblical principles to support your answer Teaching Kids the Fun Way is a great way to allow kids of all ages to express themselves It allows them to use their imagination and helps them to develop acting skills In addition it introduces them to public speaking at an early age while at the same time teaching simple things like common courtesy This book can be used in schools churches camps by youth leaders and anywhere you want to teach kids and have fun doing it Wading through quicksand Dr. Abhijit Dam,2015-01-01 After my long years of practice in the field of critical care medicine since 1993 and disturbed at the state of lonely painful and undignified deaths that patients face I embraced palliative medicine in 2006 working closely with the dying and their families made me reflect upon the unknown facet of spirituality and its close associate religion I practice mostly in situations that people frown upon marginalized population in rural and tribal settings in some of the most backward regions of India though I did have my share of working with all luxuries including ready access to morphine Let me make one thing very clear morphine alone cannot cure pain so even if morphine is available the scenario in which I am working will not change much I had recently volunteered to work in a hospice in Rishikesh where morphine was freely available and I did not feel that it made much of a difference The question to those of you privileged ones who work with morphine is Can you work without morphine and THAT is the challenge Addressing SPIRITUAL and RELIGIOUS issues is the key That is what I have learnt from ground zero repeatedly without fail medications do have a role no doubt but small in comparison This tempted a strong atheist like me to take a peek into religion and I completed a course on Vedanta which is the backbone of Hinduism and then into Buddhism compassion and I am still on the path its bliss for sure and there has been no looking back I even brought out a small handbook on Spiritual issues in the last days of life a perspective of Sanatan Dharma which I have incorporated here Tat tvam asi Dreamers Reality Jennifer Laura Houghton,2016-09-30 Dreamers Reality captures life in the form of poetry Journey through lifes beginnings middles and ends while remembering not to forget where dreams may
