FORGOTTEN FORGOTTEN FRONTIER

TRISTAN JONES ALEXANDER BUMBULUT

"A culturally rich, Tarantino-esque romp through the West complete with revisionist history and a healthy dose of old-fashioned violence."

Forgotten Frontier:

Forgotten Frontier Geoffrey Tyson, 1945 Role of Indian Tea Association in assisting the refugees from upper Burma escape into India during World War 1939 1945 The Forgotten Frontier Andrew C. Hess, 2011-03-15 The sixteenth century Mediterranean witnessed the expansion of both European and Middle Eastern civilizations under the guises of the Habsburg monarchy and the Ottoman empire Here Andrew C Hess considers the relations between these two dynasties in light of the social economic and political affairs at the frontiers between North Africa and the Iberian peninsula Frontier Goiás, 1822-1889 David McCreery, 2006-10-23 This book examines the development of the state the nation and the economy on the far western frontier of Brazil during the period of the Brazilian Empire The author argues that the province of Goi s although physically in the center of Brazil was effectively the far edge of the Empire thanks to poverty and poor communications Goi s thus provides a useful test case of the limits and effectiveness of nation building and state building and of economic integration into national and international economies during these years The inhabitants of Goi s successfully struggled to develop an interprovincial export trade in cattle at the same time as local elites negotiated a durable and largely peaceful political compromise with the central government Smuggling and tax evasion were key to the development of the economy yet politics remained pro government and largely unruffled by partisan strife until the last decade of the Empire

The Forgotten Frontier Andrew C.. Hess,1978 Hidden Histories of Gordonia Martin Legassick,2016-04-01 The Gordonia region of the Northern Cape province has received relatively little attention from historians In Hidden Histories of Gordonia Land dispossession and resistance in the Northern Cape 1800 1990 Martin Legassick explores aspects of the generally unknown brown and black history of the region Emphasising the lives of ordinary people his writing is also in part an exercise in applied history historical writing with a direct application to people s lives in the present Tracing the indigenous history of Gordonia as well as the northward movement of Basters and whites from the western Cape through Bushmanland to the Orange River the book presents accounts of family histories episodes of indigenous resistance to colonisation and studies of the ultimate imposition of racial segregation and land dispossession on the inhabitants of the region A recurrent theme is the question of identity and how the extreme ethnic fluidity and social mixing apparent in earlier times crystallised in the colonial period into racial identities until with final conquest came imposed racial classification

God's Shadow: Sultan Selim, His Ottoman Empire, and the Making of the Modern World Alan Mikhail,2020-08-18 An arresting New York Times Book Review revisionist history demonstrating how Islam and the Ottoman Empire made our modern world The history of the Ottoman Empire once the most powerful state on earth ruling over more territory and people than any other world power has for centuries been distorted misrepresented and suppressed in the West With this original and wide ranging Wall Street Journal global history Alan Mikhail vitally recasts the Ottoman conquest of the world through the dramatic biography of Sultan Selim I 1470 1520 Drawing on previously unexamined sources and upending prevailing shibboleths about Islamic history and jingoistic rise of the West theories Mikhail's game changing account radically transforms our understanding of the importance of Selim's Ottoman Empire in the annals of the modern world $\frac{1}{2}$

Sonoran Strongman Rodolfo Acuña, 2016-10-11 Sonoran Strongman provides an in depth look at a turbulent period in Mexico s history During this era Sonora was plagued with domestic unrest and threatened by foreign invasion The state s citizens hoping Ignacio Pesqueira would be the man of action capable of restoring order elected him governor by an overwhelming vote He became a virtual dictator and ruled Sonora from 1856 1876 Pesqueira was the product of troubled times and the times shaped his destiny Author Acu a presents an authoritative account of the Strongman's rise to power and vividly portrays the suffering of northern Mexico s people Agnes Lake Hickok Carolyn M. Bowers, Linda A. Fisher, 2012-11-19 The first woman in America to own and operate a circus Agnes Lake spent thirty years under the Big Top before becoming the wife of Wild Bill Hickok a mere five months before he was killed Although books abound on the famous lawman Agnes s life has remained obscured by circus myth and legend Linda A Fisher and Carrie Bowers have written the first biography of this colorful but little known circus performer Agnes originally found fame as a slack wire walker and horseback rider and later as an animal trainer Her circus career spanned more than four decades Following the murder of her first husband Bill Lake she was the sole manager of the Hippo Olympiad and Mammoth Circus While taking her show to Abilene she met town marshal Hickok and five years later she married him After Hickok s death Agnes traveled with P T Barnum and Buffalo Bill Cody and managed her daughter Emma Lake s successful equestrian career This account of a remarkable life cuts through fictions about Agnes s life including her own embellishments to uncover her true story Numerous illustrations including rare photographs and circus memorabilia bring Agnes s world to life The Zulu-Boer War 1837-1840 Michał Leśniewski, 2021-04-19 This book offers an in depth examination of the conflict of 1838 to 1840 between the Zulus and the Boers Le niewski reflects on the established historiography and reappraises some key conceptions of the war The conflict has often been seen as a colonial war with the Zulus cast into the role of either villains or victims Drawing on written primary sources and Zulu oral tradition the author instead argues that the war was a struggle between an established regional power aiming to defend and consolidate its position and an incoming power seeking land settlement Genocide on Settler Frontiers Mohamed Adhikari, 2015-06-01 European colonial conquest included and local supremacy many instances of indigenous peoples being exterminated Cases where invading commercial stock farmers clashed with hunter gatherers were particularly destructive often resulting in a degree of dispossession and slaughter that destroyed the ability of these societies to reproduce themselves The experience of aboriginal peoples in the settler colonies of southern Africa Australia North America and Latin America bears this out The frequency with which encounters of this kind resulted in the annihilation of forager societies raises the question of whether these conflicts were inherently genocidal an issue not yet addressed by scholars in a systematic way Rethinking Rural Health Ethics Christy Simpson, Fiona McDonald, 2017-08-13

This book challenges readers to rethink rural health ethics Traditional approaches to health ethics are often urban centric making implicit assumptions about how values and norms apply in health care practice and as such may fail to take into account the complexity depth richness and diversity of the rural context There are ethically relevant differences between rural health practice and rural health services delivery and urban practice and delivery that go beyond the stereotypes associated with rural life and rural health services This book examines key values in the rural context that have not been fully explored or taken into account when we examine health ethics issues including the values of community and place and a need to revalue relationships It also advocates for a greater attention to meso and macro level analysis in rural health ethics as being critical to ethical analysis of rural health care This book is essential reading for those involved in health ethics rural health policy and governance and for rural health providers Apache Adaptation to Hispanic Rule Matthew Babcock, 2016-09-26 This book reinterprets Southwestern history before the US Mexican War through a case study of the poorly understood Apaches de paz and their adaptation to Hispanic rule Honourable Intentions? Penny Russell, Nigel Worden, 2016-03-22 Honourable Intentions compares the significance and strategic use of honour in two colonial societies the Cape Colony and the early British settlements in Australia between 1750 and 1850 The mobile populations of emigrants and sojourners sailors and soldiers merchants and traders slaves and convicts who surged into and through these regions are not usually associated with ideas of honour But in both societies competing and contradictory notions of honour proved integral to the ways in which colonisers and colonised free and unfree defended their status and insisted on their right to be treated with respect During these times of flux concepts of honour and status were radically reconstructed Each of the thirteen chapters considers honour in a particular sphere legal political religious or personal and in different contexts determined by the distinctive and changing matrix of race gender and class as well as the distinctions of free and unfree status in each colony Early chapters in the volume show how and why the political ideological and moral stakes of the concept of honour were particularly important in colonial societies later chapters look more closely at the social behaviour and the purchase of honour among specific groups Collectively the chapters show that there was no clear distinction between political and social life and that honour crossed between the public and private spheres This exciting new collection brings together new and established historians of Australia and South Africa to highlight thought provoking parallels and contrasts between the Cape and Australian colonies that will be of interest to all scholars of colonial societies and the concept of honour Frontiers of Ottoman Studies: Volume II Colin Imber, Keiko Kiyotaki, 2004-11-26 Frontiers of Ottoman Studies provides a comprehensive overview of the surge in research into Ottoman history and culture of the past two decades The second volume covers Ottoman European International Relations Ottoman manuscripts in Europe Ottoman European cultural exchange and Christian influence and the advent of the Europeans The work makes a significant contribution to diplomatic history and international relations Ottoman geographical knowledge the nature of Ottoman artistic and cultural aesthetics and the intellectual cultural technological and human interactions between the Ottoman world and Europe

The Medieval Frontiers of Latin Christendom Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2017-05-15 The aim of this first volume in the series
The Expansion of Latin Europe is to sketch the outlines of medieval expansion illustrating some of the major topics that historians have examined in the course of demonstrating the links between medieval and modern experiences The articles reprinted here show that European expansion began not in 1492 following Columbus s voyages but earlier as European Christian society re arose from the ruins of the Carolingian Empire The two phases of expansion were linked but the second period did not simply replicate the medieval experience Medieval expansion occurred as farmers merchants and missionaries reduced forests to farmland and pasture created new towns and converted the peoples encountered along the frontiers to Christianity Later colonizers subsequently adapted the medieval experience to suit their new frontiers in the New World

Waging War in Waziristan Andrew M. Roe, 2010 A career soldier with on the ground experience presents a gripping history of the imperial British experience in Waziristan a remote area of Pakistan Distills the hard earned British experience and offers some potentially useful lessons for the West and its current troubles in the same region once described as the epicenter of terrorism and reputedly the hiding place of Osama bin Laden Circulating Now, Full Circle Dawn Hunter, 2024-12-18 In 2013 the National Library of Medicine NLM launched its Circulating Now blog to convey the vitality of medical history in our twenty first century world The idea involved welcoming individuals to share stories of their engagement with the NLM collection which spans eleven centuries encompasses a variety of digital and physical formats and originates from nearly every part of the world as well as stories of the human condition preserved in this vast corpus A decade on and with hundreds of posts published Circulating Now has demonstrated the public s esteem for the NLM collection and has been recognized by The Washington Post as varied lively and sometimes surprising This book is an open access edited collection of curated posts from Circulating Now Its introduction presents the strategic conception and impact of the blog as a dynamic library and management resource Six thematic chapters follow each copiously illustrated and introduced with a new and original essay describing the content development and reflecting on the programmatic and intellectual significance of the selected posts This book brings Circulating Now full circle in the twenty first century publishing ecosystem creating a new access point for researchers and augmenting the original blog as a deep knowledge base of searchable information about the Library and its collection Preserved in the NLM collection and circulating to new readers Circulating Now Full Circle will testify in perpetuity to the Library's timeless stewardship of its globally appreciated collection and its public service to the world A History of African Societies to 1870 Elizabeth Isichei, 1997-04-13 This comprehensive and detailed exploration of the African past from prehistory to approximately 1870 is intended to provide a fully up to date complement to the Cambridge History of Africa Reflecting several emphases in recent scholarship it focusses on the changing modes of production on gender relations and on ecology laying particular stress on viewing history from below A distinctive theme is to be found in its analyses of cognitive history The work falls into three sections The first comprises a historiographic analysis and covers the period from the dawn of prehistory to the end of the Early Iron Age The second and third sections are for the most part organised on regional lines the second section ends in the sixteenth century the third carries the story on to 1870 A second volume now in preparation will cover the period from 1870 to 1995 This book attempts a more rounded view of African history than most of the other textbooks on the subject addressed to a largely undergraduate level student Earlier histories have tended to ignore some of the current foci in the scholarly literature on Africa generally not reflected in the textbooks these include discussions of topical issues like ecology and gender Isichei s book is also more radical The Important Things of Life Dee Garceau, 2022-01-07 Sweetwater County lies in southwestern Wyoming and has stood as a significant symbolic geography for the new Western Woman's history As the county in which Elinore Pruitt Stewart Letters of a Woman Homesteader Nebraska 1990 said she proved up her homestead in 1913 it is a fitting locale for the study of western gender relations The Important Things of Life examines women s work and family lives in Sweetwater County in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The 1880 s discovery of coal caused a population boom attracting immigrants from numerous ethnic groups At the same time liberalized homestead law drew sheep and cattle ranchers Dee Garceau demonstrates how survival on the ranching and mining frontier heightened the value of group cooperation in ways that bred conservative attitudes toward gender Augmented by reminiscences and oral histories Garceau traces the adaptations that broadened women s work roles and increased their domestic authority Hers is a compelling portrait of the American West as a laboratory of gender role change in which migration relocation and new settlement underscored the development of new social identities Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman, 2014-12-24 From the very beginning of cinema there have been amateur filmmakers at work It wasn t until Kodak introduced 16mm film in 1923 however that amateur moviemaking became a widespread reality and by the 1950s over a million Americans had amateur movie cameras In Amateur Cinema Charles Tepperman explores the meaning of the amateur in film history and modern visual culture In the middle decades of the twentieth century the period that saw Hollywood s rise to dominance in the global film industry a movement of amateur filmmakers created an alternative world of small scale movie production and circulation Organized amateur moviemaking was a significant phenomenon that gave rise to dozens of clubs and thousands of participants producing experimental nonfiction or short subject narratives Rooted in an examination of surviving films this book traces the contexts of advanced amateur cinema and articulates the broad aesthetic and stylistic tendencies of amateur films
