Forgotten Mandate E. K. Lumley, 1976      A Modern History of Tanganyika John Iliffe, 1979-05-10 The first comprehensive and fully documented history of modern Tanganyika mainland Tanzania      The Invention of Tradition Eric Hobsbawm, Terence Ranger, 1992-07-31 This book explores examples of this process of invention and addresses the complex interaction of past and present in a fascinating study of ritual and symbolism      The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage, Roland Anthony Oliver, A. D. Roberts, 1975 This seventh volume in The Cambridge History of Africa examines the period 1905-40 in African history      Becoming Muslim in Mainland Tanzania, 1890-2000 Felicitas Becker, 2008-09-11 Tanzania has moved from widespread conversion to Islam in the early twentieth century to recent bitter disputes over Islamic radicalism Using a combination of government mission and oral records this volume examines the intellectual and social forces behind these transitions      Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania, 1920-1971 Ellen R. Feingold, 2018-02-09 This book is the first study of the development and decolonization of a British colonial high court in Africa It traces the history of the High Court of Tanzania from its establishment in 1920 to the end of its institutional process of decolonization in 1971 This process involved disentangling the High Court from colonial state structures and imperial systems that were built on racial inequality while simultaneously increasing the independence of the judiciary and application of British judicial principles Feingold weaves together the rich history of the Court with a discussion of its judges both as members of the British Colonial Legal Service and as individuals to explore the impacts and intersections of imperial policies national politics and individual initiative Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania is a powerful reminder of the crucial roles played by common law courts in the operation and legitimization of both colonial and post colonial states      Participatory Archaeology and Heritage Studies Peter R. Schmidt, 2019-12-13 Participatory Archaeology and Heritage Studies Perspectives from Africa provides new ways to look at and think about the practice of community archaeology and heritage studies across the globe Long hidden from view African experiences and experiments with participatory archaeology and heritage studies have poignant lessons to convey about local initiatives local needs and local perspectives among communities as diverse as an Islamic community on the edge of an ancient city in Sudan to multi ethnic rural villages near rock art sites in South Africa Straddling both heritage studies and archaeological practice this volume incorporates a range of settings from practical experiments with sustainable pottery kilns in Kenya to an elite palace and its hidden traditional heritage in Northwestern Tanzania to ancestral knowledge about heritage landscapes in rural Ethiopia The genesis of participatory practices in Africa are traced back to the 1950s with examples of how this legacy has played out over six decades setting the scene for a deeply rooted practice now gaining widespread acceptance The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Community Archaeology and Heritage      Tanganyika Under International Mandate, 1919-1946 Peter A. Dumbuya, 1995 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit

JACKSON, 2025-03-11 What was the effect of the numerous albeit often unsatisfied plans for development on the land and communities of the Kilombero valley throughout the colonial period and into the first decades of independence This book traces histories of development in and crucially visions of development for the Kilombero valley of south central Tanzania Taking the notion of development planning as a form of future making the book examines the many visions or past futures projected onto Kilombero by colonial and national governments by international organisations syndicates and individuals It examines how such plans were conceived evaluates their successes and analyses their shortcomings against changing political and economic landscapes Four key themes agricultural intensification ecology control infrastructure and re settlement are shown to persistently surface and continue to shape the valleyscape today By considering past future visions for the reorganisation of rural life in Tanzania the book reveals how even recent initiatives have suffered through their failure to learn from this history Offering fresh insights and approaches to the historiography of development Visions for an African Valley shows Kilombero to be a prism which refracts broader phenomena across more than a century      Mandates and Empire Michael D Callahan, 2008-04-10 Compares the impact of the League of Nations mandates system on British and French rule in African mandated territories      The Culture of Colonialism T. O. Beidelman, 2021-12-22 What did it mean to be an African subject living in remote areas of Tanganyika at the end of the colonial era For the Kaguru of Tanganyika it meant daily confrontation with the black and white governmental officials tasked with bringing this rural people into the mainstream of colonial African life T O Beidelman s detailed narrative links this administrative world to the Kaguru s wider social cultural and geographical milieu and to the political history ideas of indirect rule and the white institutions that loomed just beyond their world Beidelman unveils the colonial system s problems as it extended its authority into rural areas and shows how these problems persisted even after African independence      Imperial Gallows Stacey Hynd, 2023-11-02 Not just a method of crime control or individual punishment in Britain s African territories the death penalty was an integral aspect of colonial networks of power and violence Imperial Gallows analyses capital trials from Kenya Nyasaland and the Gold Coast to explore the social tensions that fueled murder among colonised populations and how colonial legal cultures and landscapes of political authority shaped sentencing and mercy It demonstrates how ideas of race ethnicity gender and civilization could both spare and condemn Africans convicted of murder in colonial courts and also how Africans could either appropriate or resist such colonial legal discourses in their trials and petitions In this book Stacey Hynd follows the whole process of capital punishment from the identification of a murder victim to trial and conviction through the process of mercy and sentencing onto death row and execution The scandals that erupted over the death penalty from botched executions and moral panics over ritual murder to the hanging of anti colonial rebels for terrorist and emergency offences provide significant insights into the shifting moral and political economies of colonial violence This monograph contextualises the death penalty within the wider penal systems and coercive networks of British colonial Africa to highlight the shifting targets of the imperial gallows against rebels robbers or domestic murderers Imperial Gallows demonstrates that while hangings were key elements of colonial iconography in British Africa symbolically loaded events that demonstrated imperial power and authority they also reveal the limits of that power      Contextualising Poverty in Tanzania Werner Biermann,H. P. B. Moshi,1997 This volume co published with Dar es Salaam University Press includes an introduction by Werner Biermann and the important subject of contextualizing poverty in Africa      Tanganyika Railways, Carrier of Colonialism Werner Biermann,1995 Railway systems formed the backbone of the colonial economies In the industrialized nations the railways laid the foundations for an efficient infrastructure that connected markets and industries However in the colonial periphery the railways served one purpose they were the cheapest transportation of exportable products Until now the role of the Tanganyika railways under colonialism has not attracted academic attention This book contributes to the restoration of an important factor in Tanzania s colonial past by placing the railways in the broader context of colonialism and identifying their economic and social roles It shows that the railways were forced into the financial policy of credit peonage that immediately blocked the modernization of infrastructure and equipment and led to the employment policy of labor intensive works and cheap African labor From a development position the railways contributed nothing to industrial stimulation because locomotives rolling stock and other equipment were imported from Britain Indeed railway policy should be approached from state financed incentives for metropolitan capital goods industries giving additional support to the classification of the Tanganyika railways as Carrier of Colonialism      Black People in the British Empire Peter Fryer,2021-06-20 Fantastic the most important book on Black British history Akala Black People in the British Empire is a challenge to the official version of British history It tells the story of Britain s exploitation and oppression of its subject peoples in its colonies and in particular the people of Africa Asia and Australasia Peter Fryer reveals how the ideology of racism was used as justification for acquiring and expanding the Empire how the British Industrial Revolution developed out of profits from the slave trade and how the colonies were deliberately de industrialised to create a market for British manufacturers In describing the frequency and the scale of revolts by subject peoples against slavery and foreign domination and the brutality used in crushing them Peter Fryer exposes the true history of colonialism and restores to Black people their central role in Britain s past      Southern Irish Loyatism, 1912-1949 Brian Hughes,Conor Morrissey,2020 This book brings together new research on loyalism in the 26 counties that would become the Irish Free State It covers a range of topics and experiences including the Third Home Rule crisis in 1912 the revolutionary period partition independence and Irish participation in the British armed and colonial service up to the declaration of the Republic in 1949 The essays gathered here examine who southern Irish loyalists were what loyalism meant to them how they expressed their loyalism their responses to Irish independence and their experiences afterwards The collection offers fresh insights and new perspectives on the Irish Revolution and the early years of southern independence based on original archival research It addresses issues of particular historiographical and political interest during the ongoing Decade of Centenaries including revolutionary violence sectarianism political allegiance and identity and the Irish border but rather than ceasing its coverage in 1922 or 1923 this book like the lives with which it is concerned continues into the first decades of southern Irish independence List of contributors Frank Barry Elaine Callinan Jonathan Cherry Seamus Cullen Ian d Alton Sean Gannon Katherine Magee Alan McCarthy Pat McCarthy Daniel Purcell Joseph Quinn Brian M Walker Fionnuala Walsh Donald Wood

Maji Maji James Leonard Giblin, Jamie Monson, 2010 This volume reexamines the Maji Maji war of 1905-07 in Tanzania the largest African rebellion against European colonialism Contributors provide histories of previously neglected localities and groups and new insight into the use of protective medicines believed to provide invulnerability

Ethnic Patriotism and the East African Revival Derek R. Peterson, 2012-09-24 This book shows how cosmopolitan Christian converts and east African patriots struggled to define political community in the mid twentieth century Derek Peterson traces the history of the East African Revival an evangelical movement that challenged patriots effort to root people in place as inheritors of a cultural heritage

Mandates and Empire in Africa Michael Dennis Callahan, 1995

The Irish Imperial Service Seán William Gannon, 2018-09-24 This book explores Irish participation in the British imperial project after Southern Ireland's independence in 1922 Building on a detailed study of the Irish contribution to the policing of the Palestine Mandate it examines Irish imperial servants twentieth century transnational careers and assesses the influence of their Irish identities on their experience at the colonial interface The factors which informed Irish enlistment in Palestine's police forces are examined and the impact of Irishness on the personal perspectives and professional lives of Irish Palestine policemen is assessed Irish policing in Palestine is placed within the broader tradition of the Royal Irish Constabulary RIC conducted imperial police service inaugurated in the mid nineteenth century and the RIC's transnational influence on twentieth century British colonial policing is evaluated The wider tradition of Irish imperial service of which policing formed part is then explored with particular focus on British Colonial Service recruitment in post revolutionary Ireland and twentieth century Irish imperial identities
