F Is for Phony Alexandra Juhasz, Jesse Lerner, 2006 Faking it Craig Hight, Jane Roscoe, 2019-01-04 New Challenges for Documentary Alan Rosenthal, John Corner, 2005-05-13 The first edition of this book provided a major stimulus for teaching about documentary film and television and fresh encouragement for critical thinking about practice This second edition brings together many new contributions both from academics and filmmakers reflecting shifts both in documentary production itself and in ways of discussing it Once again the emphasis has been on clear and provocative writing sympathetic to the practical challenges of documentary filmmaking but making connections with a range of work in media and communications analysis With its wide range of contributors and the international scope of its agenda this will be essential reading for general filmmakers and documentary students both of academic and practical inclinations The Frodo Franchise Kristin Thompson, 2007-08-27 This is the best all around view of the Tolkien phenomenon Thompson understands the books she understands the movies she also understands the money and the franchising Best of all she understands the people Thompson offers cultural criticism of the highest order examining one of the most significant shifts in contemporary popular media Tom Shippey author of The Road to Middle earth Reading these chapters has been an absolute pleasure It s all so complex but so succinct Thompson has managed to do what so many others have failed to do in chapter one she has explained how all the rights to LOTR bounced around and were finally sorted so Peter Jackson could make the movie I ve never understood the complexities of how that worked until now Judy Alley Merchandising Coordinator The Lord of the Rings I must say that Thompson has written the definitive study of Peter Jackson s work in creating this remarkable production entity Alex Funke ASC Oscar winning Visual Effects Director of Photography miniatures unit The Lord of the Rings I had a wonderful time reading those chapters There s so much I don t know about what went on I am in awe of all the research Thompson has done It is an extremely interesting read There s so much there that I d forgotten and I always wished there was a permanent record of many things that happened Thompson s account of TORN s beginnings and how it functioned gets it absolutely right more than that Thompson captures how it felt to us at the time Nobody else has managed to get enough of an understanding to do that Erica Challis Tehanu co founder of TheOneRing net The Lost Silver of Briffault Amelia Edith Huddleston Barr, 1898 New Zealand Filmmakers Ian Conrich, Stuart Murray, 2007 The most thorough study on the filmmakers who have defined New Zealand cinema from its origins to its current successes Peter Jackson Ian Pryor, 2014-06-03 This fascinating look at the now celebrated director tells of the inspiration that led to the making of the three world famous Lord of the Rings films and the six other films that preceded them This unauthorized biography Peter Jackson From Prince of Splatter to Lord of the Rings traces the journey of a young movie fanatic from Sunday afternoons spent fooling around with a camera through low budget cult movies to control of the most ambitious film project ever on what is probably the best loved fantasy novel ever written This in depth biography explores the many talents of the young Peter Jackson the making of Bad Taste Meet the Feebles Braindead Heavenly Creatures Forgotten Silver The Frighteners and the Lord of the Rings trilogy The story behind the Rings which tells how Jackson got the rights to make the film and the permission and funding to make three films rather than collapsing the story into just one or two films interviews and other behind the scenes material from the making of the landmark films Past and future in which author Ian Pryor considers Jackson's achievements and possible future including his remake of King Kong From casts of zombies traumatized puppets and murderous teenagers to deal making in Hollywood this book is about following one's visions wherever they might lead

Peter Jackson Alfio Leotta, 2015-12-17 Peter Jackson is one of the most acclaimed and influential contemporary film makers This is the first book to combine the examination of Jackson's career with an in depth critical analysis of his films thus providing readers with the most comprehensive study of the New Zealand film maker's body of work The first section of the book concentrates on Jackson's biography surveying the evolution of his career from the director of cult slapstick movies such as Meet the Feebles 1989 and Braindead 1992 to an entrepreneur responsible for the foundation of companies such as Wingnut Films and Weta Workshop and finally to producer and director of mega blockbuster projects such as The Lord of the Rings 2001 2003 and The Hobbit 2012 2013 The book further examines Jackson's work at the level of production reception and textuality along with key collaborative relationships and significant themes associated with Jackson's films The examination of Peter Jackson's work and career ties into significant academic debates including the relationship between national cinema and global Hollywood the global dispersal of film production the relationship between film authorship and industrial modes of production the impact of the creative industries on the construction of national identity and new developments in film technology

Docufictions Gary D. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres

Beyond the Screen Sarah Atkinson, 2014-04-17 Runner up for the British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies Best Book Prize 2015 Beyond the Screen presents an expanded conceptualization of cinema which encompasses the myriad ways film can be experienced in a digitally networked society where the auditorium is now just one location amongst many in which audiences can encounter and engage with films The book includes considerations of mobile web social media and live cinema through numerous examples and case studies of recent and near future developments Through analyses of narrative text process apparatus and audience this book traces the metamorphosis of an emerging cinema and maps the new spaces of spectatorship which are currently challenging what it means to be cinematic in a digitally networked era Cinema at the Periphery Dina Iordanova, David Martin-Jones, Belén Vidal, 2010-03-15 In the present era of globalization this timely examination of the periphery will interest teachers and students of film and media studies Issues in Contemporary Documentary Jane Chapman, 2009-08-17 Jane Chapman brings to life the challenges of contemporary documentary by balancing theoretical discussion with use of cutting edge material from Europe and North America and the developing world 100 Documentary Films Barry Keith Grant, Jim Hillier, 2019-07-25 Documentary films constitute a major part of film history Cinema's origins lie arguably more in non fiction than fiction and documentary represents the other often submerged and barely visible half of cinema history Historically documentary cinema has always been an important point of reference for fiction cinema and the two have often overlapped Over the last two decades documentary cinema has enjoyed a revival in critical and commercial success 100 Documentary Films is the first book to offer concise and authoritative individual critical commentaries on some of the key documentary films from the Lumière brothers and the beginnings of cinema through to recent films such as Bowling for Columbine and When the Levees Broke and is global in perspective Many different types of documentary are discussed as well as films by major documentary directors including Robert Flaherty Humphrey Jennings Jean Rouch Dziga Vertov Errol Morris Nick Broomfield and Michael Moore Each entry provides concise critical analysis while frequent cross reference to other films featured helps to place films in their historical and aesthetic contexts Barry Keith Grant is Professor of Film Studies and Popular Culture at Brock University Ontario Canada He is the author of Film Genre From Iconography to Ideology 2007 Voyages of Discovery The Cinema of Frederick Wiseman 1992 and co author with Steve Blandford and Jim Hillier of The Film Studies Dictionary 2001 Jim Hillier is Visiting Lecturer in Film at the University of Reading He is the author of The New Hollywood 1993 the co author of The Film Studies Dictionary 2001 and with Alan Lovell of Studies in Documentary 1972 His edited books include American Independent Cinema 2001 and two volumes of the English translation of the selected Cahiers du cinéma 1985 1986

Too Bold for the Box Office Cynthia J. Miller, 2012-08-02 In Too Bold for the Box Office Cynthia J Miller has assembled essays by scholars and filmmakers who examine the unique cinematic form of mockumentary Individually each of these essays looks at a given instance of mockumentary parody and subversion examining the ways in which each calls into question our assumptions pleasures beliefs and even our senses Writing about national film television and new media traditions as diverse as their backgrounds this volume's contributors explore and theorize the workings of mockumentaries

as well as the strategies and motivations of the writers and filmmakers who brought them into being Cinema of Small Nations Mette Hjort, 2007-11-21 Within cinema studies there has emerged a significant body of scholarship on the idea of National Cinema but there has been a tendency to focus on the major national cinemas Less developed within this field is the analysis of what we might term minor or small national cinemas despite the increasing significance of these small entities with the international domain of moving image production distribution and consumption The Cinema of Small Nations is the first major analysis of small national cinemas comprising twelve case studies of small national and sub national cinemas from around the world including Ireland Denmark Iceland Scotland Bulgaria Tunisia Burkina Faso Cuba Singapore Taiwan Hong Kong and New Zealand Written by an array of distinguished and emerging scholars each of the case studies provides a detailed analysis of the particular cinema in question with an emphasis on the last decade considering both institutional and textual issues relevant to the national dimension of each cinema While each chapter contains an in depth analysis of the particular cinema in question the book as a whole provides the basis for a broader and more properly comparative understanding of small or minor national cinemas particularly with regard to structural constraints and possibilities the impact of globalization and internationalisation and the role played by economic and cultural factors in small nation contexts

The Archive Effect Jaimie Baron, 2013-12-13 The Archive Effect Found Footage and the Audiovisual Experience of History examines the problems of representation inherent in the appropriation of archival film and video footage for historical purposes Baron analyses the way in which the meanings of archival documents are modified when they are placed in new texts and contexts constructing the viewer's experience of and relationship to the past they portray Rethinking the notion of the archival document in terms of its reception and the spectatorial experiences it generates she explores the archive effect as it is produced across the genres of documentary mockumentary experimental and fiction films This engaging work discusses how for better or for worse the archive effect is mobilized to create new histories alternative histories and misreadings of history The book covers a multitude of contemporary cultural artefacts including fiction films like Zelig Forrest Gump and JFK mockumentaries such as The Blair Witch Project and Forgotten Silver documentaries like Standard Operating Procedure and Grizzly Man and videogames like Call of Duty World at War In addition she examines the works of many experimental filmmakers including those of Peter Forgcs Adele Horne Bill Morrison Cheryl Dunye and Natalie Bookchin

The Act of Documenting Brian Winston, Gail Vanstone, Wang Chi, 2017-01-26 Documentary has never attracted such audiences never been produced with such ease from so many corners of the globe never embraced such variety of expression The very distinctions between the filmed the filmer and the spectator are being dissolved The Act of Documenting addresses what this means for documentary's 21st century position as a genus in the class cinema for its foundations as primarily a scientific eurocentric and patriarchal discourse for its future in a world where assumptions of photographic image integrity cannot be sustained Unpacked are distinctions between performance and performativity and between different levels of interaction linearity and hypertextuality engagement and impact ethics and conditions of reception Winston Vanstone and Wang Chi explore and celebrate documentary's potentials in the digital age

Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand 2 Ben Goldsmith, Mark David Ryan, Geoff Lealand, 2015-04-01 Building on and bringing up to date the material presented in the first instalment of Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand this volume continues the exploration of the cinema produced in Australia and New Zealand since the beginning of the twentieth century Among the additions to this volume are in depth treatments of the locations that feature prominently in the countries cinema Essays by leading critics and film scholars consider the significance of the outback and the beach in films which are evoked as a liminal space in Long Weekend and a symbol of death in Heaven's Burning among other films Other contributions turn the spotlight on previously unexplored genres and key filmmakers including Jane Campion Rolf de Heer Charles Chauvel and Gillian Armstrong Accompanying the critical essays in this volume are more than one hundred and fifty new film reviews complemented by film stills and significantly expanded references for further study From The Piano to Crocodile Dundee Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand 2 completes this comprehensive treatment of a consistently fascinating national cinema

Utopias in Nonfiction Film Simon Spiegel, 2022-01-11 Comprehensive and thorough Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new direction in its surprise application to documentary that has the potential to shake up the field Jane Gaines Columbia University USA Spiegel has introduced a new sub genre to utopian studies the documentary film The book covers an impressive range of films making the book one of the few truly international and comparative works in utopian studies Lyman Tower Sargent University of Missouri St Louis USA Simon Spiegel's magisterial overview of utopian documentaries and nonfiction films is a treasure trove of information and unearths many forgotten and half forgotten films providing perceptive discussions of sidelined movies that deserve his and our critical scrutiny Eckart Voigts University of Braunschweig Institute of Technology Germany This book is the first major study on utopias in nonfiction film Since the publication of Thomas More's Utopia more than 500 years ago countless books have been written which describe a better world But in film positive utopias seem to be nonexistent So far research has focused almost exclusively on dystopias since positive outlooks seem to run contrary to the media's requirement Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new approach starting from the insight that literary utopias are first and foremost meant as a reaction to the ills of the present and not as entertaining stories it looks at documentary and propaganda films an area which so far has been completely ignored by research Combining insights from documentary research and utopian studies a vast and very diverse corpus of films is analysed Among them are Zionist propaganda films cinematic city utopias socialist films of the future as well as web videos produced by the Islamist terrorist group ISIS

There and Back Again Sean Astin, Joe Layden, 2013-11-05 The fascinating memoir of a Hollywood life and an inside look at a life changing role and the groundbreaking Lord of the Rings films that captured the imagination of movie fans everywhere The Lord of the Rings is one of the most successful film franchises in cinematic history Winner of a record eleven Academy Awards a clean sweep and breaking box office records worldwide the trilogy is a breathtaking cinematic achievement and beloved by fans everywhere For Sean Astin a Hollywood child his mother is Patty Duke and stepfather is John Astin who made his feature film debut at 13 in the 1980s classic The Goonies and played the title role in Rudy the call from his agent about the role of Samwise Gamgee couldn't have come at a better time His career was at a low point and choice roles were hard to come by But his 18 month experience in New Zealand with director Peter Jackson and the cast and crew of The Lord of the Rings films would be more than simply a dream come true it would prove to be the challenge of a lifetime There and Back Again An Actor's Tale is the complete memoir of Sean Astin from his early days in Hollywood to the role that changed his life Though much has been written about the making of the films including the techniques and artistry employed to bring Tolkien's vision of life and the various relationships between castmembers the real story of what took place on the set the harrowing ordeals of the actors and the unspoken controversy and backstage dealings have never been told Sean's experience and candid account of his time filming in New Zealand is unparalleled More than a companion guide to the Ring films There and Back Again filled with stories from the set and of the actors involved that have never been revealed before and is an eye opening look from a Hollywood veteran at the blood sweat and tears that went into the making of one of the most ambitious films of all time
