

FORM & SPACE IN JAPANESE ARCHITECTURE

The background of the cover is a photograph of a traditional Japanese architectural space. It features a dark, polished wooden interior with a low, wide platform or bench made of horizontal wooden slats. Large, light-colored sliding doors (shoji) are visible in the background, and a view of a garden with trees and a stream is seen through an opening. The overall atmosphere is serene and minimalist.

and a shifting global order Salient points in the text are illustrated by beautiful descriptive images provided by the architects and from the extensive collection of the author By combining illustrations with timelines and graphics to explain complex ideas the book is accessible to any student seeking to understand contemporary Japanese architecture Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa,Filipa Roseta,Joana Pestana Lages,Susana Couceiro da Costa,2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe

Architectures of Life and Death Andrej Radman,Stavros Kousoulas,2021-06-17 Driven by the Foucauldian attitude of subsuming architectural history into a genealogy of techne Architectures of Life and Death advances a transdisciplinary approach rethinking subjectivity and exploring the political ramifications of these processes for the discipline of architecture and beyond In contrast to mainstream approaches architecture will not be seen as representative of culture but as the mechanism of culture the collective equipment that rests on the reciprocal determination of social habits and technological habitats In this sense the idea that we shape our environments therefore they shape us is not to be taken as a metaphor The animate has always been utterly dependent on the inanimate A livable habitat is one which the inhabitant actively co evolves with and which does not constitute a ready made condition to which the inhabitant would simply have to passively adapt

Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Volume 2 Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa,Filipa Roseta,Susana Couceiro da Costa,Joana Pestana Lages,2017-09-19 The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE European Association for Architectural Education and of the ARCC Architectural Research Centers Consortium is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe The EAAE ARCC Conferences began at the North Carolina State University College of Design Raleigh with a conference on Research in Design Education 1998 followed by conferences in Paris 2000 Montreal 2002 Dublin 2004 Philadelphia 2006 Copenhagen 2008 Washington 2010 Milan 2012 and Honolulu

2014 The conference discussions focus on research experiences in the field of architecture and architectural education providing a critical forum for the dissemination and engagement of current ideas from around the world     Measure and Construction of the Japanese House Heino Engel,2020-08-11 A remarkable classic work on traditional Japanese architecture and its general integrative quality the order of space and form the flexibility of partitions and room functions and other important or unique qualities The author describes in detail and with numerous architectural plans and drawings the influence of the anatomy of the Japanese human body on traditional units of measurement and on house construction This work is not simply a description of the features of the Japanese house but an invitation to probe the possibilities of utilizing this architectural achievement of the Japanese in modern living and building according to the author who further believes that the unique features of the Japanese house are better suited to serve as a pattern for contemporary housing than any other form of residential structure     Frank Lloyd Wright and Japan Kevin Nute,2000 Looks at Wright s formal and philosophical debt to Japanese art and architecture Eight areas of influence are examined in detail from Japanese prints to specific individuals and publications and are illustrated with text and drawn analyses     Tradition and Innovation Maria do Rosário Monteiro,Mário Ming Kong,2021-06-29 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI Tradition and Innovation were compiled with the intent to establish a multidisciplinary platform for the presentation interaction and dissemination of researches They also aim to foster the awareness and discussion on the topic of Tradition and Innovation focusing on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design and Social Sciences and its importance and benefits for the sense of identity both individual and communal The idea of Tradition and Innovation has been a significant motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts     Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel,2016-01-23     The Constructed Other: Japanese Architecture in the Western Mind Kevin Nute,2021-09-30 The Constructed Other argues that the assumed otherness of Japanese architecture has made it both a testbed for Western architectural theories and a source of inspiration for Western designers The book traces three recurring themes in Western accounts of Japanese architecture from the reopening of Japan in the mid nineteenth century to the present day a wish to see Western architectural theories reflected in Japanese buildings efforts to integrate elements of Japanese architecture into Western buildings and a desire to connect contemporary Japanese architecture with Japanese tradition It is suggested that together these narratives have had the effect of creating what amounts to a mythical version of Japanese architecture often at odds with historical fact but which has exercised a powerful influence on the development of building design internationally     Form and space of Japanese architecture. Photographs by Norman F. Carver, Jr Norman F. Carver,1955     Theorizing Built Form and Culture Kapila D. Silva,Nisha A. Fernando,2024-03-08 In this collection of essays Theorizing Built Form and Culture The Legacy of Amos Rapoport a felicitation volume to celebrate the significance of Professor Amos Rapoport's lifelong scholarship scholars from around the world discuss the analytical relevance expansion and continuing application of these contributions in developing an advanced understanding of mutual relationships between people and built environments across cultures Professor Amos Rapoport has espoused an intellectual and theoretical legacy on environmental design scholarship that explains how cultural factors play a significant role in the ways people create and use environments as well as the way environments in turn influence people's behavior This volume presents a hitherto not seen unique and singular work that simultaneously articulates a cohesive framework of Rapoport's architectural theories and demonstrates how that theoretical approach be used in architectural inquiry education and practice across environmental scales types and cultural contexts It also acknowledges for the very first time how this theoretical legacy has pioneered the decolonizing of the Eurocentric approaches to architectural inquiry and has thus privileged an inclusive cross cultural perspective that laid the groundwork to understand and analyze non Western design traditions The book thus reflects a wide range of cross cultural and cross contextual range to which Professor Rapoport's theories apply a general notion of theoretical validity he always advocated for in his own writings The volume is a paramount source for scholars and students of architecture who are interested in understanding how culture mediates the creation use and preservation of the built environment      The Japan Architect ,1994
