Sustainability of Indian Microfinance Institutions Nadiya Marakkath,2013-10-23 Although doing good is our innate nature we often get lost in the complexities and view goodness as a distant dream Making this dream of goodness a reality is often thwarted by thoughts surrounding sustainability Thus all good initiatives require a focus on sustainability and this has become one of greatest and most formidable challenges faced by any social enterprise The book documents the understanding of the sustainability of one of the most celebrated forms of social enterprise of our times Microfinance Institutions MFIs gained through a mixed methods research investigation It attempts to answer pertinent questions such as What are the determinant and discriminating factors for the sustainability of MFIs in India How are these factors being managed by the operationally efficient Indian MFIs that remained sustainable at reasonable interest rates before the onset of the crisis and ceilings imposition in Indian microfinance markets What does the Indian microfinance crisis teach us about sustainability management and mismanagement In a nutshell the answers show that sustainability is a strategic issue that needs managerial attention and not a matter to be left to serendipity At a time when the industry is recovering from the adverse effects of a crisis and when there are still contentions as to whether the rate fixed by the regulator is enough for the sustenance of the MFIs the findings mentioned in the book revive the lost hope for the Indian microfinance industry By deciphering the strategies used by efficient and sustainable MFIs and discussing the lessons that the crisis has imparted to the Indian microfinance markets this book will enable Indian MFIs to march towards efficient and sustainable operations without losing focus on their clients

Non-Governmental Organizations and the State in Latin America Anthony Bebbington, Graham Thiele, 2023-06-16 This presents twenty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation initiated by NGOs in Latin America. Beginning with a broad review of institutional activity at the grassroots, the authors set the case material within the context of NGO relations with the State and their contribution to democratisation and the consolidation of rural civil society. Specific questions are raised: how good/bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in present agriculture? how effective are NGOs at strengthening grassroots organizations and how do donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State? This title is part of a series on Non Governmental Organizations coordinated by the Overseas Development Institute To complete this comprehensive review and critique there are two other regional case study volumes on Asia and Africa and an overview volume Reluctant Partners

Cities' Vocabularies: The Influences and Formations Nabil Mohareb, Antonella Versaci, Yasser Mahgoub, Sreetheran Maruthaveeran, Francesco Alberti, 2021-01-23 This book discusses several topics regarding different vocabularies such as sacred architecture heritage buildings open spaces landmarks and street escapes all of which have a direct influence on the city form The city form is also affected by the indirect impact of the citizens themselves for example their culture which in turn depends on the arts as can be seen and embodied in morals paintings media digital art and sculpture The book also examines the fundamental elements that are responsible for the identity of the city Presenting case studies that demonstrate the how implementing the concept of the responsibility of architecture and arts affects the development of our cities the book offers a new approach that is based on the available features of a city and explores how planners and decision makers can use these features to address the myriad problems that our cities are facing

NGO Governance and Management in China Reza Hasmath, Jennifer Y. J. Hsu, 2015-07-16 As China becomes increasingly integrated into the global system there will be continuing pressure to acknowledge and engage with non governmental organizations NGOs Suffice to say without a clear understanding of the state's interaction with NGOs and vice versa any political economic and social analysis of China will be incomplete This book provides an urgent insight into contemporary state NGO relations It brings together the most recent research covering three broad themes namely the conceptualizations and subsequent functions of NGOs state NGO engagement and NGOs as a mediator between state and society in contemporary China The book provides a future glimpse into the challenges of state NGO interactions in China's rapidly developing regions which will aid NGOs strategic planning in both the short and long term In addition it allows a measure of predictability in our assessment of Chinese NGOs behaviour notably when they eventually move their areas of operation from the domestic sphere to an international one The salient themes concepts theories and practice discussed in this book will be of acute interest to students scholars and practitioners in development studies public administration and Chinese and Asian politics Reza Hasmath is a Lecturer in Chinese Politics at the University of Oxford UK and an Associate Professor in Political Science at the University of Alberta Canada His research looks at state society relationships the labour market experiences of ethnic minorities and development theories and practices Jennifer Y J Hsu is an Assistant Professor in Political Science at the University of Alberta Canada Her recent publications include a co authored book HIV AIDS in China The Economic and Social Determinants Routledge 2011 and a co edited book The Chinese Corporatist State Adaption Survival and Resistance Routledge 2012
