International Handbook of Education for the Changing World of Work Rupert Maclean, David Wilson, 2009-06-29 The aim of this Handbook is to review the developments that have occurred in Technical and vocational education and training (TVET) and that may help improve the field. The Handbook provides information on TVET models that occur in different parts of the world, reflects best and innovative practice and wherever possible uses case studies as examples. The 220 authors are representative of the various regions of the world and major international organisations involved in TVET. This volume presents the work of established researchers as well as the work of promising young researchers. Intended as the universally accepted resource for the field, the Handbook provides a comprehensive coverage of cutting edge developments in research, policy and practice in TVET within a single source. It will assist those involved in TVET at any level in making informed decisions and further advance and improve the field and to bridge the gap between vocational and academic education in the 21st century.

Vocational Training Gerhard Bosch, Jean Charest, 2009-09-10 The last decade has given rise to a strong public discourse in most highly industrialized economies about the importance of a skilled workforce as a key response to the competitive dynamic fostered by economic globalisation. The challenge for different training regimes is twofold: attracting young people into the vocational training system while continuing to train workers already in employment. Yet on the whole most countries and their training systems have failed to reach those goals How can we explain this contradiction Why is vocational training seen to be an old institution Why does vocational training not seem to be easily adapted to the realities of the 21st century This book seeks to respond to these important questions It does so through an in depth comparative analysis of the vocational training systems in ten different countries Australia Canada Denmark France Germany Korea Mexico Morocco the United Kingdom and the USA Pratiques et réflexions autour des dispositifs d'apprentissage et de formation des communicateurs Valérie Lépine, Marc D.

David, 2014-12-19 Cette seconde édition des Cahiers du RESIPROC est consacrée aux enjeux aux modalités d'apprentissage et aux conséquences de la formation des communicateurs La dispersion en de nombreux domaines ou activités des métiers de la communication invite à interroger le socle des compétences communes et des compétences spécialisées nécessaires à l'exercice de ces métiers Ce numéro invite à penser l'articulation dans un domaine particulièrement exposé des évolutions incessantes entre pratiques professionnelles et formation en communication Human resource management International Industrial Relations Association.
