Forme Et Signification:

Forme et signification Jean Rousset, 1962 Forme et signification Jean Rousset, 1979 Forme et signification Jean Rousset, 1996 Semiotic Theory and Practice Michael Herzfeld, Lucio Melazzo, 1988 Vladimir Nabokov's Lectures on Literature Ben Dhooge, Jürgen Pieters, 2017-12-18 This volume offers insight into Vladimir Nabokov as a reader and a teacher and sheds new light on the relationship of his views on literary aesthetics to the development of his own oeuvre. The essays included focus on the lectures on European and Russian literature that Nabokov gave at a number of American universities in the years between his arrival in the United States and the publication of Lolita. Nabokov's treatment of literary masterpieces by Austen, Cervantes, Chekhov, Dickens, Flaubert, Gogol, Kafka, Joyce, Proust and Stevenson is assessed by experts on these authors. Contributors are Lara Delage, Toriel Ben Dhooge, Yannicke Chupin, Roy Groen, Luc Herman, Flora Keersmaekers, Arthur Langeveld, Geert Lernout, Vivian Liska, Ilse Logie, Jürgen Pieters, Gerard de Vries. Eight Decades of General Linguistics Ferenc Kiefer, Piet van Sterkenburg, 2012-11-27 Eight Decades of General Linguistics offers the lectures of outstanding scholars including Otto Jespersen, Louis Hjelmslev, Andr. Martinet, Uriel Weinreich, Noam Chomsky and others held during the 18 conferences organized by the Permanent International Committee of Linguists. L'individuation à la lumière des notions de forme et d'information Gilbert Simondon, 2005 De l'atomisme de Démocrite au principe d'indtermination de Heisenberg, de la pensée de l'individuel d'Aristote au retour à la chose même de Husserl, de l'ego cartésien et de la monade leibnizienne au Dasein heideggerien, la question de la genèse de l'individu n'a cessé de hanter les préoccupations des philosophes et des hommes de science. Par-delà le champ d'une investigation pistologique qui tient compte des thèses de la thermodynamique, de la fabrication des objets techniques, de la formation des cristaux, l'originalité de Gilbert Simondon est de questionner en son fond historique et philosophique l'idée même de principe d'individuation. Attitude méthodologique qui conduit concevoir sous un jour radicalement neuf les rapports d'empirétements et de chevauchements de l'individu, l'gard du champ transindividuel dont il mane et qui lui demeure toujours coprésent dans ses mutations et ses métamorphoses. Ni objet ni sujet purs, chaque individu sous son apparente identité se révèle dès lors théâtre d'individuations où s'entrecroisent les tensions résolutrices d'un champ pré-individuel formant monde. Situation qui conduit Gilbert Simondon développer une conception renouvelée de l'information qui par-delà l'idéalisme et le réalisme emprunt aux techniques du message codé se révèle dans sa conception de la transduction, structure d'être et acte de connaissance en voie de résolution. L'originalité de cette œuvre est d'allier une rigoureuse réflexion d'ordre pistologique et technique ancrée dans notre contemporainité à une méditation historique de la tradition qui ne craint pas de remettre en question des attitudes philosophiques qui semblaient et semblent toujours aller de soi. Il s'agit en fait de reformer nos principes et nos concepts opératoires pour aborder sous un jour neuf le problème crucial de l'individu. Nouvelle édition rassemblant L'individu et sa genèse physico-biologique paru en 1964 aux PUF et L'individuation psychique et collective paru chez Aubier en 1989 qui formaient ensemble la thèse de doctorat de Gilbert

Theoretical Schools and Circles in the Twentieth-Century Humanities Marina Grishakova, Silvi Salupere, 2015-04-10 Schools and circles have been a major force in twentieth century intellectual movements They fostered circulation of ideas within and between disciplines thus altering the shape of intellectual inquiry This volume offers a new perspective on theoretical schools in the humanities both as generators of conceptual knowledge and as cultural phenomena The structuralist semiotic phenomenological and hermeneutical schools and circles have had a deep impact on various disciplines ranging from literary studies to philosophy historiography and sociology The volume focuses on a set of loosely interrelated groups with a strong literary linguistic and semiotic component but extends to the fields of philosophy and history the interdisciplinary conjunctions arising from a sense of conceptual kinship It includes chapters on unstudied or less studied groups such as Tel Aviv School of poetics and semiotics or the research group Poetics and Hermeneutics The volume presents a significant supplement to the standard historical accounts of literary critical and related theory in the twentieth century It enhances and complicates our understanding of the twentieth century intellectual and academic history by showing schools and circles in the state of germination dialogue controversy or decline in their respective historical and institutional settings while reaching simultaneously beyond those dense settings to the new cultural and ideological situations of the twenty first century

Force from Nietzsche to Derrida Clare Connors, 2017-12-02. What is the pervasive character of the world? The answer is force. But as Heidegger asks next: What is force? Connors sets out to answer this question, tracing a genealogy of the idea of force through the writings of Nietzsche, Heidegger, Foucault, and Derrida. These thinkers try to pin down what force is, but know too that it is something which cannot be neutrally described. Their vigorously literary writings must therefore be read as much for the stylistic and rhetorical ways in which they render force's powerful elusiveness as for the content of their arguments. And it is perhaps literature rather than philosophy which best engages with force. Certainly for Connors, these philosophical positions are foreshadowed in remarkable detail by Shakespeare's Henry V, a play shot through with forces imaginary, military, rhetorical, and bodily.
