Language Shattered Maghiel van Crevel, 1996 Language Shattered is both a history of poetry from the People's Republic of China and a case study of the oeuvre of a leading Chinese poet After the stifling orthodoxy of the 1950s and early 1960s the terror of the Cultural Revolution 1966 1976 brought official Chinese literature to a total standstill At the same time disillusioned youths were more or less accidentally exposed to a varied body of foreign literature and began writing underground poetry In the 1980s this poetry scene now above ground became one of pluriformity and proliferation in both official and unofficial circuits The brutal suppression of the 1989 Protest Movement gave it an exile offshoot The historical overview in Part I of this book is complemented in Part II by a discussion of Duoduo s poetry Duoduo s career as a poet reflects the vicissitudes of Chinese Experimental poetry and his beautiful headstrong poems merit attention in themselves They show that Chinese poetry is not just of interest as a chronicle of Chinese politics but as literature in its own right

Using Corpora in Contrastive and Translation Studies Richard Xiao, 2020-06-12 The corpus based approach has developed into a well established paradigm in translation studies and has been recognised as a principal reason for the revival of contrastive linguistics since the 1990s while corpus based contrastive and translation studies have in turn significantly expanded the scope of corpus linguistics This book features a selection of twenty three papers from the 2008 meeting of Using Corpora in Contrastive and Translation Studies UCCTS an international conference series launched to provide an international forum for the exploration of theoretical and practical issues pertaining to the creation and use of corpora in contrastive and translation studies The papers in this collection represent the latest developments in corpus based translation studies corpus based contrastive studies parallel corpus development and bilingual lexicography They are useful resources for researchers as well as postgraduates and their supervisors in translation studies comparative and contrastive linguistics corpus linguistics and computational linguistics
