Telling Tales Catherine A. Cavanaugh, Randi R. Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada's past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book covers a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West's characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement

Capturing Women Sarah Carter, 1997 A study of popular representations of women and the creation of hierarchies of race and gender in the Canadian Prairies in the late 1800s Capturing Women fits into a growing body of literature on the question of women race and imperialism Sarah Carter argues that images of Native and European women were created and manipulated to establish boundaries between Native peoples and white settlers and to justify repressive measures against the Native population

One West, Two Myths C. L. Higham, Robert Thacker, 2004 This reader explores the problems importance and results of comparing the Canadian and American Wests critically examining how we conceptualize the history and development of the West and how that influences our perceptions This volume will provide an excellent introduction to this burgeoning area of study as it endeavors to engage the imaginations of those who are new to the subject

The Cowboy Cavalry Gordon E. Tolton, 2011-05-15 When Native and Metis unrest escalated into the Northwest Rebellion of 1885 settlers in southern Alberta's cattle country were terrified Three major First Nations bordered their range and war seemed certain In anticipation 114 men mustered to form the Rocky Mountain Rangers a volunteer militia charged with ensuring the safety of the open range between the Rocky Mountains and the Cypress Hills The Rangers were a motley crew from ex Mounties and ex cons to retired high ranking military officials and working ranch hand cowpokes Membership qualifications were scant ability to ride a horse knowledge of the prairies and preparedness to die This is their story inextricably linked to the dissensions of the day rife with skirmishes corruption jealousies rumour innuendo and gross media sensationalizing all bound together with what author Gordon Tolton terms a generous helping of gunpowder Tolton s meticulous research reveals unexplored perspectives and little known details Be prepared for surprises Grasslands

Re-exploring Canadian Space Jeanette M. L. den Toonder,Bettina van Hoven,2012 A variety of productions and representations of Canadian identities are the central theme that runs through this book The different contributions explore imagined spaces by considering Canadian music poetry and novels they engage with political space by addressing various ways in which the people of Canada have made claims to different regions in the distant and recent past and they address lived spaces and their actual and symbolic meanings It is an unusual book as it encompasses the writings by those studying the arts and literature as well as writings by social scientists and it includes both English and French speaking scholars The richness that can be found in this multitude of perspectives and approaches to exploring Canadian space is characteristic of the way in which Canadian Studies is practiced nowadays It is therefore an appropriate volume to celebrate 20 years of Canadian Studies in the Netherlands

Out of the Flames Faye Reineberg Holt,1998 The sight of prairie fires sweeping across the horizon struck fear in the hearts of ranchers settlers miners and town folk in the developing West Whether fought with wet burlap sacks and hastily ploughed fireguards bucket brigades or increasingly sophisticated equipment of early firehalls prairie fires were a daunting enemy that blazed through the history of the Canadian West Sometimes naturally occurring but more often the result of the rapid changes brought by steam engines and settlements these fires had the power to decimate huge tracts of land changing the environment endangering countless lives and drastically altering the architectural face of towns and cities Filled with archival photographs Out of the Flames examines the dramatic impact fire had on the settlement of the West and the heroic and tragic stories that arose from smoldering ashes Faye Reineberg Holt combines personal stories the history of fire fighting techniques urban disasters fires in mines oil wells and slag heaps fire folklore and legend in this fascinating account of prairie fires
