

Fortune Telling with Astrology

1.

The astrologer casts a horoscope for a specific time, date and place and records the positions and alignments of all nine planets at that point in time. The astrologer can then study this and interpret the effects these alignments will have on the concerned person.

3.

2.

Transits →

As time progresses, the horoscope passes through different transits, while the alignments of the planets also changes because of their constant motion.
