Forty Years For Labrador:

Forty Years for Labrador Sir Wilfred Thomason Grenfell, 1933      For the Love of Labrador Retrievers Robert Hutchinson, 1998 10 x 10 80 pages 80 full color photographs BrownTrout Publishers is proud to announce a new series of hardcover gift books featuring the world's most popular dogs as photographed by the best shooters in the business. The books are distinctively designed for the individual breeds and feature fascinating in-depth descriptions of the origins, special characteristics, and unique qualities of each breed by noted canine enthusiast and naturalist Robert Hutchinson.      Herbal Allies Robert Rogers, 2017-06-27 Twenty plants including familiar trees like the aspen, birch, spruce, and poplar, as well as lesser-known plants like Labrador tea, cow parsnip, and buffalo berry form the soul of herbalist Robert Rogers's medicine kit. Herbal Allies chronicles the journey that led Rogers to become an herbalist and shares his deep knowledge of the plants that shaped his practice. The author weaves personal experience, observations, knowledge from indigenous healers, and many years of expertise from his practice as a professional herbalist and clinical professor to present a unique and fascinating narrative that not only limns one man's vital connection to plants but also provides invaluable information on effectively using plant medicine for the prevention and treatment of a variety of health conditions.      Arctic Bibliography Arctic Institute of North America, 1953      George Cartwright's The Labrador Companion Marianne P. Stopp, 2016-09-01 New manuscripts directly related to Canada's history rarely come to light. The Labrador Companion, written in 1810 by Captain George Cartwright, 1739-1819, and discovered in 2013, is a fascinating and unusual find because of its level of detail, its setting in a hardly studied part of Britain's fur trade empire, and because it is a personal account rather than a trade outfit ledger or government document. This annotated edition transcribes The Labrador Companion in full. Cartwright documented the everyday work of Labrador's particular kind of fur trade life based on his experiences operating a series of merchant stations in southern Labrador between 1770 and 1786. Although his focus is firmly on instruction in the manifold ways of capturing animals, he also provides rare glimpses of Innu and Inuit life, as well as of housekeeping and gardening. The Labrador Companion includes a lengthy description of Labrador's fauna of land, sea, and air that counts among Canada's earliest natural history writing based on first-hand observation. A revealing account of fur trade era technology, methods, and materials conveyed through one man's acquired knowledge and skills, The Labrador Companion gives a close-to-the-ground picture of the resource industries that were at the heart of British and French colonial presence in the Canadian northeast.

Mulder, 1994 A collection of fifty first-person conversion accounts spanning Christian history from the Apostle Paul to St. Augustine to Malcolm Muggeridge and Charles Colson. The selections intended to be representative rather than exhaustive are each prefaced with brief comment by the editors.      Missionary Register, 1833      The Grenfell Medical Mission Jennifer J. Connor, Katherine

Side,2019-01-30 Dr Wilfred Grenfell physician and folk hero recruited thousands of volunteer workers for his Newfoundland and Labrador seamen's mission many of them Americans from Ivy League institutions As the medical mission grew to become the International Grenfell Association establishing institutions along the Labrador and northern Newfoundland coasts Americans also became resident staff leaders in the region and Grenfell himself married an American Anne MacClanahan who led mission activities The Grenfell Medical Mission and American Support in Newfoundland and Labrador 1890s 1940s reveals the nature and extent of support from Americans throughout the distributed privately run social enterprise until the 1940s before the region joined Canada Essays explore the organization's claims to share an Anglo Saxon heritage with the United States American reaction to its financial scandal and creation of an incorporated association its promotion of sport and masculinity and the development of education and schools in the region and the mission The organization's strong ties to the United States are exemplified by Grenfell's friendship with American physician John Harvey Kellogg the donation of clothing from American donors the work of one American woman on her affiliated mission unit the impact of American philanthropy and training on the construction of the mission's main hospital in St Anthony and the superior American accredited health care facilities and their clinical achievements From its corporate base in New York City the International Grenfell Association blended contemporary social movements and adopted American notions of philanthropy The Grenfell Medical Mission and American Support in Newfoundland and Labrador 1890s 1940s offers the first thorough history of an iconic health and social organization in Atlantic Canada The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1904

Wisconsin Library Bulletin, 1933 Power from the North Caroline Desbiens, 2013-05-15 In the 1970s Hydro-Québec declared We Are Hydro-Québec The slogan symbolized the intimate ties that had emerged between hydroelectric development in the North and French Canadian aspirations in the South Caroline Desbiens focuses on the first phase of the James Bay hydroelectric project to explore how this culture of hydroelectricity hastened the erasure of Aboriginal homelands and the manipulation of Northern Quebec's material landscape She concludes that truly sustainable resource development will depend on all actors bringing an awareness of their cultural histories and visions of nature North and nation to the negotiating table Retriever Training Robert Milner, 2023-09-12 Through gentle training methods learned from Ray Hunt the original horse whisperer Robert Milner shows retriever owners how to train the hunting retriever by using its own natural tendencies instead of force Supplemented with the latest scientific research on how dogs learn Milner's easy step by step training regimen uses positive reinforcement to create the perfect hunting and at home companion There is no better training method for the hunter who wants a calm steady and obedient retriever Milner who has been training retrievers professionally for more than thirty years reverses the trend of difficult dogs and difficult training methods and offers a system every hunter can easily understand and follow Forty Years for Labrador, Etc.
