Forty Years in the Public Interest Earle Gray, Canada. National Energy Board, 2000      Alberta Formed - Alberta Transformed Alberta 2005 Centennial History Society, 2006-04-18 Alberta Formed Alberta Transformed is a two volume set spanning a remarkable 12 000 years of history and showcasing the work of 34 of Alberta's most respected scholars Volume 1 sets the stage from human beginnings in Alberta to the eve of Alberta's inauguration as a province in 1905 while Volume 2 takes readers through the twentieth century and up to the 2005 centennial      Rules, Rules, Rules, Rules G. Bruce Doern, Robert Johnson, 2006-01-01 Rules Rules Rules Rules considers various sectors where rule making spans all or most of the four levels of jurisdiction international federal provincial and city or local in areas such as food safety investment and trade forestry drinking water oil and gas and emergency management      Alberta Law Review, 2012      Aboriginal Consultation, Environmental Assessment, and Regulatory Review in Canada Kirk N. Lambrecht, 2013 Supreme Court of Canada decisions have defined a general framework for the duty to consult Aboriginal peoples and accommodate their concerns over natural resource development but anticipate the details of that framework will be expanded upon in the future Aboriginal Consultation Environmental Assessment and Regulatory Review in Canada offers a paradigm that advances that discussion It proposes an integrated and robust planning model for natural resource planning model for natural resource extraction allowing Aboriginal peoples industry governments tribunals and the Courts to all make contributions to reconciliation in the context of sustainable development and environmental protection Kirk Lambrecht surveys the law of actual and asserted Aboriginal rights and historical and modern Treaty rights in Canada and discusses the national and international purposes of environmental assessment and regulatory review He appraises the fundamental principles of Supreme Court of Canada jurisprudence defining aboriginal consultation and accommodation as a constitutional imperative and uses case studies involving the National Energy Board to demonstrate how integrated process has evolved over time Finally he offers general conclusions on the practical utility and outstanding challenges involving an integrated planning paradigm      Natural Allies Daniel Macfarlane, 2023-08-15 No two nations have exchanged natural resources produced transborder environmental agreements or cooperatively altered ecosystems on the same scale as Canada and the United States Environmental and energy diplomacy have profoundly shaped both countries economies politics and landscapes for over 150 years Natural Allies looks at the history of US Canada relations through an environmental lens From fisheries in the late nineteenth century to oil pipelines in the twenty first century Daniel Macfarlane recounts the scores of transborder environmental and energy arrangements made between the two nations Many became global precedents that influenced international environmental law governance and politics including the Boundary Waters Treaty the Trail Smelter case hydroelectric megaprojects and the Great Lakes Water Quality Agreements In addition to water fish wood minerals and myriad other resources Natural Allies details the history of the continental energy relationship from electricity to uranium to fossil fuels showing how Canada became vital to American strategic interests and along with the United States a major international energy power and petro state Environmental and energy relations facilitated the integration and prosperity of Canada and the United States but also made these countries responsible for the current climate crisis and other unsustainable forms of ecological degradation Looking to the future Natural Allies argues that the concept of national security must be widened to include natural security a commitment to public national and international safety from environmental harms especially those caused by human actions Competing Arctic Futures Nina Wormbs,2018-08-06 This edited collection explores how narratives about the future of the Arctic have been produced historically up until the present day The contemporary deterministic and monolithic narrative is shown to be only one of several possible ways forward This book problematizes the dominant prediction that there will be increased shipping and resource extraction as the ice melts and shows how this seemingly inevitable future has consequences for the action that can be taken in the present This collection looks to historical projections about the future of the Arctic evaluating why some voices have been heard and championed while others remain marginalised It questions how these historical perspectives have shaped resource allocation and governance structures to understand the forces behind change in the Arctic region Considering the history of individuals and institutions their political and economic networks and their perceived power the essays in this collection offer new perspectives on how the future of the Arctic has been produced and communicated Annual Report for the Year Ended 31 December ... Canada.
