The Poetry of Antonio Machado Xon de Ros, 2015 This book offers a much needed reappraisal of a major twentieth century Spanish poet Antonio Machado 1875-1939 offering compelling arguments why his poetry should have a more vital profile not only within the precincts of Hispanism but also alongside the most significant twentieth century poets of Europe and America seeking to open up new perspectives for the interpretation of his poetry. The unifying concepts as the title suggests are landscape and transformation. Landscape a topic barely broached in Spanish poetry before Machado is a central thematic concern in his poetry.

Spanish American Poetry After 1950 Donald Leslie Shaw, 2008 The principal developments in Spanish American poetry in the second half of the twentieth century. Consideration is then given to the decisive impact of Parra and the rise of colloquial poetry politico social poetry Dalton Cardenal and representative figures such as Orozco Pacheco and Cisneros. The aim is to establish a few paths through the largely unmapped jungle of Spanish American poetry in the time period. The author emphasises the persistence of a generally negative view of the human condition and the poets exploration of different ways of responding to it These vary from outright scepticism to the ideological the religious or those derived from some degree of confidence in the creative imagination as cognitive At the same time there is analysis of the evolving outlook on poetry of the writers in question both in regard to its possible social role and in regard to diction DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia
