Treason witchcraft robbery and murder just a few of the crimes that could incur the penalty of death in the early days of Britains justice system Domestic violence was rife and alcohol was often the fuel that culminated in the murders of a wife or sweetheart DNA blood grouping fingerprinting are now used to place a person at the scene of a crime Before the use of forensics evidence was often circumstantial and there is no doubt that in some cases an innocent person would have been hanged Essex Murders Paul Donnelley,2007-07-19 The violent history of twelve of historic Essex County s most infamous murderers spanning more than 300 years Includes illustrations From South End on Sea to Epping Forest the English county of Essex offers many delights and many settings for murder Reaching back to the Early Middle Ages this coastal corner of England has been home to some of the most infamous killers in the history of the United Kingdom This chilling volume exploring the lives and crimes of twelve of the county s worst offenders From the legendary Dick Turpin England s most notorious highwayman to the twentieth century killings of Pamela Coventry and Josephine Backshall criminal historian Paul Donnelly uncovers a terrifying legacy that spans from the seventeenth century to the 1970s Vividly reconstructing people places events and investigations Donnelly delves into such vicious crimes as the Moat Farm murder of Saffron Walden and the career of England s longest serving hangman William Calcraft "Foul Deeds Will Rise." ,1804

Strangeways Martin Baggoley,2005-10-01 Strangeways Gaol opened in 1868 and replaced the New Bailey Gaol where public executions had taken place before their abolition that same year Strangeways was to be a major location of execution for murders committed in the Northwest of England for the next 100 years Between 1869 and 1962 exactly 100 people were hanged several women included in this number The Making of Liverpool Mike Fletcher,2004-04-30 Discover the fascinating history of this coastal English city from its Medieval origins to its status today as a world renowned cultural destination In The Making of Liverpool Mike Fletcher tells the story of this historic city and highlights the significant changes that have made it what it is today It all begins with King John s 1207 charter and the construction of Liverpool castle to protect this new town Liverpool s development throughout the medieval period was slow and even through the reigns of the Tudors and Stuarts the town was confined to the waterfront area Through the English Civil Wars Liverpool endured three brutal sieges But during the Georgian period it embraced the transport revolution by investing in river navigations and building the first passenger railway By the nineteenth century Liverpool was a thriving port yet life in the city was beset by poverty and disease Even as the twentieth century brought the devastation of two world wars and the Toxteth Riots Liverpool found international fame during the swinging sixties More recently it has enjoyed a significant resurgence and was named European Capital of Culture in 2008 Yorkshire's Murderous Women Stephen Wade,2007-06-15 Historical accounts of Englishwomen who have killed their varying motives and their final fates Yorkshire history has its share of nasty and brutal murders and the majority of these killers have been men Statistics show that most homicides are men But the records over the centuries have tales of murderous women too Stephen Wade has investigated records across England to find stories of women from the mid eighteenth century to mid twentieth century who have taken lives through jealousy hatred or sheer desperation Some of the tales are sad melancholy accounts of infanticide committed in hard times often when women were under terrible stress and suffering from poor health and mental problems Other stories are about murders that got rid of an unwanted partner or brought some easy money to the killer s pockets You ll also find accounts of courtroom trials that went wrong and false accusations along with verdicts that sent women to Van Diemen s Land or to prison for life Here are some of the most dramatic stories of women who killed including Louie Calvert serial killer the Beverley case of extreme cruelty on a child and the Hull wife who wanted her husband out of the way for good Includes illustrations and photos The Making of Sheffield Melvyn Jones,2004-09-30 Covering thousands of years and a multitude of topics the book tells the story of the development from a group of small agricultural settlements into a town and then a modern city It covers success disappointments miserable periods and glorious episodes that have marked the city s evolution The Making of Huddersfield George Redmonds,2003-05-01 The Making of Huddersfield is not a systematic and chronological account of Huddersfield s growth but a series of illuminating snapshots which bring to life numerous aspects of the town and its surrounding area Just 200 years ago Huddersfield was still a village In a short time it was to become one of the most dynamic and vibrant towns in the north of England and this book traces the history of that development from the early Middle Ages through important changes in Tudor and Stuart times and into the exciting years of the Industrial Revolution The Making of Huddersfield tells the story of ancient bridges and highways inns mills and private dwellings and it looks at ordinary people as they appear in early court records identifying individuals and families as they thronged the market place or relaxed in the ale houses Take a transitional journey from the Middle Ages to the present day as you read The Making of Huddersfield

Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths Around Hull David Goodman,2005-01-01 Hull is best known for its thriving port The industrial revolution which profited Hull so well came at a higher cost than most would expect In only 1000 years the population rose from 22000 to 239000 Houses were built quickly and close together public health suffered dramatically and disease was rife The vast population meant a very high level of crime With almost one murder every other week assaults suicides and other acts of violence were so frequent that newspapers only reported the most vile of crimes Victorian Hull was a very dangerous place to live indeed David Goodman has put together a number of murders suicides and unsolved murders from 1873 through to 1924 Stories include Murder on the Farm 1903 Annie Marshall a 15 year old farm worker was shot twice in the face and dumped into the river by a fellow worker Horrific Child Murder 1873 Sarah Alice only 4 months old was beheaded by her own mother after she failed to bond with the child she was found not guilty on the grounds of insanity and detained at her majesty s pleasure Other stories include Mystery of Emma Starkie 1091 Killing in his sleep 1902 Murder metaphors are prevalent in human thought while metaphorical structures are reflected at the linguistic level Therefore analysing extensive language data can aid in revealing the metaphorical mappings of embodied experience with the senses of vision hearing smell taste touch and temperature This volume seeks to discover the similarities and differences between the metaphorical systems of the English and Chinese languages Adopting a comparative view the authors examine the semantic extensions of perception words in English and Chinese in order to reveal the metaphorical scope of each sense and the metaphorical system behind it They argue that the metaphorical systems of the senses not only help us understand and use conventionalised metaphorical expressions but also allow us to create novel expressions The findings also unveil how abstract concepts are constructed via cognitive mechanisms such as image schema and metaphor This title is a useful reference for scholars and students who are interested in cognitive linguistics comparative linguistics and the philosophy of research the only collection of proverbs on anything like this scale ever to be published anywhere in the world Emanuel Strauss has trawled through innumerable collections of proverbs in all languages from early printed books and rare items to the latest theses and journals and grouped together many thousands of proverbs in sets of equivalent meaning Comprehensive indexes for each language provide access to any proverb by way of its key words A critical bibliography
