Ellis, 1968 Foundation Deposits in Ancient Mesopotamia: Archaeological and Textual Data Richard Stephens Ellis, 1965 Foundation Deposits in Ancient Mesopotamia, by Richard S. Ellis [recensione] Paul W. Lapp, 19?? Foundations Deposits in Ancient Mesopotamia, 1968 Foundations Deposits in Ancient Mesopotamia, 1968 Ancient Mesopotamian Materials and Industries Peter Roger Stuart Moorey, 1999 This is the first systematic attempt to survey in detail the archaeological evidence for the crafts and craftsmanship of the Sumerians Babylonians and Assyrians in ancient Mesopotamia covering the period ca 8000 300 B C E As creators of some of the earliest farming and urban communities known to us these people were among the first pioneers of many crafts and skills that remain fundamental to modern ways of life Many of the raw materials for crafts had to be imported from outside the river valley of the Tigris and Euphrates providing an unusually sensitive indicator of the commercial and cultural contacts of Mesopotamia In this book Dr Moorey reviews briefly the textual evidence and then goes on to examine in detail the material evidence for a wide range of crafts using stones both common and ornamental animal products from hippopotamus ivory to ostrich egg shells ceramics glazed materials and glass metals and building materials With a comprehensive bibliography this will be a key work of reference for archaeologists and those interested in the early history of crafts and technology as well as for specialist historians of the ancient Near East The Deuteronomistic History and the Name Theology Sandra L. Richter, 2014-05-14 This monograph is a comparative socio linguistic reassessment of the Deuteronomic idiom leshakken shemo sham and its synonymous biblical reflexes in the Deuteronomistic History lashum shemo sham and lihyot shemo sham These particular formulae have long been understood as evidence of the Name Theology the evolution in Israelite religion toward a more abstracted mode of divine presence in the temple Utilizing epigraphic material gathered from Mesopotamian and Levantine contexts this study demonstrates that leshakken shemo sham and lashum shemo sham are loan adaptations of Akkadian shuma shakanu an idiom common to the royal monumental tradition of Mesopotamia The resulting retranslation and reinterpretation of the biblical idiom profoundly impacts the classic formulation of the Name Theology Handbook to Life in Ancient Mesopotamia Stephen Bertman, 2005-07-14 Modern day archaeological discoveries in the Near East continue to illuminate man s understanding of the ancient world This illustrated handbook describes the culture history and people of Mesopotamia as well as their struggle for survival and happiness Dictionary of the Ancient Near East Piotr Bienkowski, Alan Millard, 2010-03-09 An authoritative guide to the whole of the cradle of civilization Textiles in Ritual and Cultic Practices in the Ancient Near East from the Third to the First Millennium BC Salvatore Gaspa, Matteo Vigo, 2019-09-01 The workshop aims at presenting current research on textual iconographical and archaeological evidence for the use of textiles in ritual and cult in the Ancient Near East The main purpose is to address questions related to the use of raw materials garments of ritual performers and cult images textile tools in ritual and cultic practices as well as textile metaphors and analogical formulas in rituals An Introduction to Ancient Mesopotamian Religion Tammi J.

Cadwallader,2016-12-16 A crucial text for any university course on the interaction of archaeology and the Bible The world of early Christians was not a world lived in texts it was a world saturated with material reality and concerns what where and when to eat or drink how to present oneself in the space of bodily life and that of death how to move from one place to another what impacted status or the adjudication of legal charges All these and more controlled so much of life in the ancient world The Christians were not immune from the impact of these realities Sometimes they absorbed their surrounds sometimes they quite explicitly rejected the material practices bearing in on them frequently they modified the practice and the rationale to create a significant Christian alternative The collection of essays in this volume come from a range of international scholars who for all their different interests and critical commitments are yet united in treasuring research into the Greek and Roman worlds in which Christians sought to make their way They offer these essays in honor of one who has made a lifetime s work in mining ancient material culture to extract nuggets of insight into early Christian dining practices Dennis E Smith Features Rich examples of method in the utilization of ancient material culture for biblical interpretation Thirteen essays with a response from Dennis E Smith Maps diagrams and plates Death Rituals, Ideology, and the Development of Early Mesopotamian Kingship Andrew C. Cohen,2005-10-01 At the beginning of Mesopotamia s Early Dynastic period the political landscape was dominated by temple administrators but by the end of the period rulers whose titles we translate as king assumed control This book argues that the ritual process of mourning burying and venerating dead elites contributed to this change Part one introduces the rationale for seeing rituals as a means of giving material form to ideology and hence structuring overall power relations Part two presents archaeological and textual evidence for the death rituals Part three interprets symbolic objects found in the Royal Cemetery of Ur showing they reflect ideological doctrines promoting the office of kingship This book will be particularly useful for scholars of Mesopotamian archaeology and history
