

UNIT 1: FOUNDATIONS		WRITING LESSON 1.23 Topic Sentence
WRITING	GRAMMAR	SELF-REGULATION
I will be able to write a topic sentence.	I will be able to use adjectives in my writing.	I will practice mindfulness.
	SAY: Look at the picture. How could you tell what you see to someone who isn't looking at the picture, so they can picture it in their mind? TEACH: Remind students about adjectives and how they are describing words. They tell color, size, shape, texture, smell, sound, and behavior. Model using the sentence frames on the slide to describe the police van in the picture. STUDENTS: Turn and talk to describe the police vehicle in the picture. Go over today's objectives with students.
	SAY: We have a prompt that tells us what to write. Read the prompt on the slide: What are we being asked to DO? Write a paragraph to teach. We know the parts of a paragraph. A paragraph about WHAT? Police dogs! We need to learn more about police dogs. STUDENTS: Turn and talk about what we are going to write, and what the paragraph will be about. SAY: We are going to listen to a book to learn more about police dogs, so we have the information to write. Learning about these dogs will help us know the details to include in our paragraph and how they help. TEACH: Explain what students will do during the video: take notes about how police dogs help. STUDENTS: Watch the video and take notes on what they learn. Turn and talk with a partner about a police vehicle they saw in the video.
	SAY: The final part of our paragraph COOE is the central topic. The central topic is what ties all of the information together. It tells the reader what they are going to read about in the paragraph. TEACH: Read the sentence starters for a topic sentence. Explain that when we are writing to teach, there are 3 different ways we can start a paragraph that gives the reader a clue they are going to learn from this paragraph. Model writing a topic sentence about how police dogs help using one of the prompts. STUDENTS: Choose a sentence starter and write a topic sentence in their paragraph COOE organizer. SAY: You are going to work with a partner today to plan a paragraph to teach how police dogs help. TEACH: Remind students about writing partner expectations. STUDENTS: Plan a paragraph with their partner. Do the mindfulness activity with students (directions on the slide & in the speaker notes.)
	SAY: You have a paragraph on your paper, but it is missing the central topic sentence! Listen while I read the rest of the paragraph aloud. TEACH: Read the paragraph aloud. Explain what students will do with the think, say, write, check routine. STUDENTS: Write the central topic sentence on their paper.
	Give students a sentence starter if they are struggling to form a central topic sentence. For students who struggle with transcription, you can have them dictate the sentence to you or a partner to write.
	Students can use a stamina station prompt. Students can make a new paragraph plan of their own.
