Roth, 2021-05-01 In The Contemplative of Arizona Foundations of Classical Daoism Harold D Roth explores the origins and nature of the Daoist tradition arguing that its creators and innovators were not abstract philosophers but rather mystics engaged in self exploration and self cultivation which in turn provided the insights embodied in such famed works as the Daodejing and Zhuangzi In this compilation of essays and chapters representing nearly thirty years of scholarship Roth examines the historical and intellectual origins of Daoism and demonstrates how this distinctive philosophy emerged directly from practices that were essentially contemplative in nature In the first part of the book Roth applies text critical methods to derive the hidden contemplative dimensions of classical Daoism In the second part he applies a contemplative hermeneutic to explore the relationship between contemplative practices and classical Daoist philosophy and in so doing brings early Daoist writings into conversation with contemporary contemplative studies To this he adds an introduction in which he reflects on the arc and influence on the field of early Chinese thought of this rich vein of scholarship and an afterword in which he applies both interpretive methods to the vexing question of the authorship of the Inner Chapters of the Zhuangzi The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism brings to fruition the cumulative investigations and observations of a leading figure in the emerging field of contemplative studies as they pertain to a core component of early Chinese thought Counseling Theory Richard D. Parsons, Naijian Zhang, 2014-01-16 Organized around the latest CACREP standards Counseling Theory Guiding Reflective Practice by Richard D Parsons and Naijian Zhang presents theory as an essential component to both counselor identity formation and professional practice Drawing on the contributions of current practitioners the text uses both classical and cutting edge theoretical models of change as lenses for processing client information and developing case conceptualizations and intervention plans Each chapter provides a snapshot of a particular theory approach and the major thinkers associated with each theory as well as case illustrations and guided practice exercises to help readers internalize the content presented and apply it to their own development as counselors Eastern Philosophy: The Basics Victoria S. Harrison, 2012-12-13 Eastern Philosophy The Basics is an essential introduction to major Indian and Chinese philosophies both past and present Exploring familiar metaphysical and ethical questions from the perspectives of different Eastern philosophies including Confucianism Daoism and strands of Buddhism and Hinduism this book covers key figures issues methods and concepts Questions discussed include What is the self Is human nature inherently good or bad How is the mind related to the world How can you live an authentic life What is the fundamental nature of reality Throughout the book the relationships between Eastern Philosophy Western Philosophy and the questions reflective people ask within the contemporary world are brought to the fore With timelines highlighting key figures and their contributions a list of useful websites and further reading suggestions for each topic this engaging overview of fundamental ideas in Eastern Philosophy is valuable reading for all students of philosophy and religion especially those seeking to understand Eastern perspectives

Jung and Eastern Thought Harold Coward,1985-07-01 Jung and Eastern Thought is an assessment of the impact of the East on Jung s life and teaching Along with the strong and continuing interest in the psychology of Carl Jung is a growing awareness of the extent to which Eastern thought especially Indian ideas influenced his thinking This book identifies those influences that he found useful and those he rejected In Hindu Buddhist and Taoist cultures yoga is a central conception and practice Jung was at once fascinated and critical of yoga Part I of the book examines Jung s encounter with yoga and his strong warning against the uncritical adoption of yoga by the modern West In Part II Jung s love hate relationship with Eastern thought is examined in light of his attitude toward karma and rebirth Kundalini yoga mysticism and Patanjali s Yoga Sutras Coward s observations are rounded out by contributions from J Borelli and J Jordens Dr Borelli s Annotated Bibliography is an invaluable contribution to bibliographic material on Jung yoga and Eastern religion A special feature is the Introduction by Joseph Henderson Jung s most senior North American student and one of the few Jungians to have

Aesthetics as a Religious Factor in Eastern and Western Christianity William Peter van den Bercken, Jonathan

Sutton, 2005 This volume contains selected papers of a conference in 2004 at Utrecht University on aesthetics as a religious factor in Eastern and Western Christianity They discuss the role of aesthetics in the presentation and expression of Christian faith in Catholic and Orthodox tradition During its history Christianity has produced many works of art church architecture iconography painting music and literary texts And in Orthodoxy beauty has always been the main form of religious expression more than verbal presentation of Christian teaching which is embedded in the aesthetic context of liturgy In Christian theology beauty has often been seen as a form of divine revelation related to the mystery of incarnation The relation between aesthetics and religious belief has acquired new relevance in our secularised world Today the visible products of Catholic and Orthodox aesthetics are for many people the main means through which they come into contact with Christianity and many people without affinity to religion are attracted by the beauty of Christian art inside and outside the church In modern religious studies the experience of beauty is recognised as a factor in explaining religious feelings The papers are divided in four sections 1 Comparative aspects of Orthodox and Catholic aesthetics 2 Religious aesthetics in Russian literary culture 3 Applied aesthetics in church art 4 Art theoretical ideological and religious philosophical aspects The Metrics of Happiness R. Allan Freeze, 2022-08-24 This book provides a comprehensive treatment of how happiness and wellbeing are measured It presents an accessible summary of the philosophy methodology and applicability of the various measurement techniques that have been generated by the leaders of the happiness movement It traces the history of development of the core ideas and clarifies the unexpectedly wide range of techniques that are used The book provides an unbiased assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of each approach and differentiates the contributions that have been made by psychologists economists environmentalists and health scientists It examines applications at a personal scale in the workplace at a societal scale and on the world stage It does so in an easy to read anecdotal writing style that will appeal to a wide range of academic and lay readers who enjoy popularized non fiction that address matters of social concern Eastern Philosophies and Psychology: Towards Psychology of Self-Cultivation Yung-Jong Shiah, Kwang-Kuo Hwang, Kin-Tung Yit, 2017-11-29 The publication of this book East Asian Philosophies and Psychology Towards Psychology of Self cultivation signifies an important breakthrough for the indigenization movements of psychology which have happened in many non Western countries since 1980s Viewing from the perspective of scientific revolution Kuhn 1969 when Western paradigms of psychology are transplanted to non Western countries and encounter anomalies which cannot be explained by the imported theories the foreign theories are in a state of crisis waiting for scientific revolution
