Foundations of Civilization in Tropical Africa Bassey W. Andah, Alex Ikechukwu Okpoko, 1987      The Yoruba from Prehistory to the Present Aribidesi Usman, Toyin Falola, 2019-07-04 A rich and accessible account of Yoruba history society and culture from the pre colonial period to the present      Droughts, Food and Culture Fekri A. Hassan, 2007-05-08 Recent droughts in Africa and elsewhere in the world from China to Peru have serious implications for food security and grave consequences for local and international politics The issues do not just concern the plight of African peoples but also our global ecological future Global climatic changes become manifest initially in regions that are marginal or unstable Africa's Sahel zone is one of the most sensitive climatic regions in the world and the events that have gripped that region beginning in the 1970s were the first indicator of a significant shift in global climatic conditions This work aims to bring archaeology with the domain on contemporary human affairs and to forge a new methodology for coping with environmental problems from an archaeological perspective Using the later prehistory of Africa as a comparison the utility of this methodological strategy in interpreting culture change and assessing long term response to current global climatic fluctuations is examined and understood      Making an Atlantic World James Taylor Carson, 2007 Based on the notion of founding peoples rather than founding fathers Making an Atlantic World uses an innovative interdisciplinary approach to interpret the Colonial South James Taylor Carson uses historical ethnogeography a new methodology that brings together the study of history with anthropology and geography This method seeks to incorporate concepts of space and landscape with social perspectives to give students and scholars a better understanding of the forces that shaped the development of a synthesized southern culture      Bread, Beer and the Seeds of Change Thomas R. Sinclair, Carol Janas Sinclair, 2010 The history of humankind is intimately tied to the history of agriculture powerful societies rose persisted and waned in parallel with their food supply systems Describing what crops were grown the constraints on their production and the foods that were obtained this book traces the impact of cropping and food preparation in ten societies that were among the most powerful and influential in history detailing how technology varied and developed as it related directly to agriculture and food production The book initially considers growing and eating grains beginning with the transition from hunter gatherers to agrarian communities Five early agricultural societies are examined followed by the advancement of technology from the ancient Greeks and Romans to the present It concludes by addressing the implications for the future of agriculture and food supply as grain production moves towards biofuels A compelling text for all those interested in the history of society and      Metalworkers and their Tools: Symbolism, Function, and Technology in the Bronze and Iron Ages Linda Boutoille, Rebecca Peake, 2023-11-30 12 papers by 22 authors from the Metools symposium Queens University Belfast 2016 aim to shine a spotlight on the tools of the metalworker and to follow their evolution from the beginning of the Bronze Age through to the Iron Age as well as the place held by metalworking and its artisans in the economic and social landscape of the period
