Frontiers Of Theology In Latin America:

Frontiers of Theology in Latin America Rosino Gibellini,1979      Frontiers of Theology in Latin America Gustavo Gutiérrez,1980      Frontiers of Theology in Latin America Rosino Gibellini (sacerdote),1979      Youth Development in Nigeria Emmanuel Njoku,2021-06-10 Youth development is as a core aspect of human and national progress in Nigeria The study suggests the development of young people as the means of poverty reduction It indicates that amidst cultural ethnic and religious diversities and in the light of threats to human life and property the development of the youth is the way to promoting peace and unity justice and security The book argues on a two fold contribution While the Nigerian Church is to intensify efforts in the active participation of lay Christians in politics the State is to tackle critical areas to ensure a decent standard of living for all      Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto,2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography      Contemporary American Theologies Deane W. Ferm,2004-04-15 An up to date book that surveys almost all of the contemporary schools of Christian thought in America well structured and methodically developed clearly written and easy to read Ferm does an excellent job of pointing out all the differences among the leading thinkers of each camp Ferm s greatest asset is his uncanny ability to synthesize these diverse theologies into a larger conceptual whole without diminishing their distinctiveness A landmark of clarity Richard Quebedeaux in The Christian Century Contemporary American Theologies assesses the most significant writers and books that make up evangelical black Roman Catholic feminist and liberation theologies Equally useful as an introduction or as a review Marianne Sawicki in Commonweal      Christology in Cultural Perspective Rev. Dr. Colin J. D. Greene,2015-10-14 Christology defines the very heart of the Christian faith Traditionally the study of the person and work of Christ has been understood largely as an exercise in biblical exegesis or historical and doctrinal analysis Rarely if ever has Christology focused on the changing cultural paradigms that have deeply influenced the development of human knowledge and self understanding This unique volume by Colin Greene reverses that trend and in line with developments in modern cultural theory explores the interlaces between successive cultural contexts and the story of Jesus to which the Scriptures bear witness Starting with an examination of the three main Christological trajectories that have dominated the history of Christology cosmological Christology political Christology and anthropological Christology Greene proceeds to concentrate on the subtle and complex linkages between Christology and the sociopolitical paradigms that have bolstered the epistemological assumptions of modernity Greene s wide ranging study closes with a creative exploration into how Christology might once again provide us with a Christ centered vision of reality      Muslims and Global Justice Abdullahi

Ahmed An-Na'im, 2011-06-06 Over the course of his distinguished career legal scholar Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im has sought to reconcile his identity as a Muslim with his commitment to universal human rights In Muslims and Global Justice he advances the theme of global justice from an Islamic perspective critically examining the role that Muslims must play in the development of a pragmatic rights based framework for justice An Na'im opens this collection of essays with a chapter on Islamic ambivalence toward political violence showing how Muslims began grappling with this problem long before the 9/11 attacks Other essays highlight the need to improve the cultural legitimacy of human rights in the Muslim world As An Na'im argues in order for a commitment to human rights to become truly universal we must learn to accommodate a range of different reasons for belief in those rights In addition the author contends building an effective human rights framework for global justice requires that we move toward a people centered approach to rights Such an approach would value foremost empowering local actors as a way of negotiating the paradox of a human rights system that relies on self regulation by the state Encompassing over two decades of An Na'im's work on these critical issues Muslims and Global Justice provides a valuable theoretical approach to the challenge of realizing global justice in a world of profound religious and cultural difference

Pentecostal Formation Cheryl Bridges Johns, 2010-11-01 The Pentecostal movement has been subject to some negative external assumptions In this enlightening and challenging book Cheryl Bridges Johns argues that in fact Pentecostals employ a powerful process of formation of catechesis which has enabled millions of believers to own and articulate the Christian story She engages dialectically with the work of Paulo Freire a specialist in education among the marginalized As well as looking more broadly at the nature of all catechesis there is also an attempt to move beyond the rationalism found in a praxis epistemology

Liberation through Reconciliation O. Ernesto Valiente, 2015-12-01 In the past one hundred years alone more than 200 million people have been killed as a consequence of systematic repression political revolutions or ethnic or religious war The legacy of such violence lingers long after the immediate conflict Drawing on the author's experiences of his native El Salvador Liberation through Reconciliation builds on Jon Sobrino's thought to construct a Christian spirituality and theology of reconciliation that overcomes conflict by attending to the demands of truth justice and forgiveness

From Conquest to Struggle David Batstone, 1991-01-22 This book goes to the very heart of the passionate debate over the true character of Christian faith and practice The advance of liberation theology in the Latin American church has caused international reverberations within both the religious and political worlds The Vatican was moved to denounce it as heretical and the Reagan Bush administration has deemed it a significant threat to the stability of the region Here Batstone evaluates the writings of liberation theologians as they consider the central figure of Christian faith Jesus of Nazareth and asks whether a message of liberation for the poor and oppressed actually springs from the life and teachings of Jesus or is merely a religious projection of activists bent on radical social transformation The judgment given to that issue will weigh heavily in the debate which currently rages in religious communities and seminaries over the political role and responsibility of the church Batstone's work links these discussions to the concrete lives of the Latin American people and in that sense goes beneath the text and examines the subtext of religious reflection Chapters present events and stories that originate in the daily realities of contemporary Latin America and then consider what connection these experiences have to the story of Jesus of Nazareth Contextual Theology for Latin America Sharon E. Heaney, 2008-07-01 In the context of Latin America the theology of liberation is both dominant and world renowned However this context and the pursuit of theological relevance belong also to other voices Orlando E Costas Samuel Escobar J Andrew Kirk Emilio A Nunez and C Rene Padilla are thinkers who have sought to bring an evangelical understanding of liberation to the people of Latin America Despite their influence on national and international theology and despite their transformative contribution to the praxis of churches ministering in contexts of poverty their thought has not been systematized to date This work deals with this lacuna presenting the vitality of Latin American evangelical theology which seeks to be biblical relevant and missiologically effective thus offering a liberation which is holistic and grounded in the kingdom of God The Oxford Handbook of Latin American Christianity David Thomas Orique, Susan Fitzpatrick-Behrens, Virginia Garrard, 2020-03-23 Latin America where 90% of the population is Christian and where nearly 40% of the world's Catholics reside has its own unique brand of Christianity The Oxford Handbook of Latin American Christianity offers a survey of Latin American Christianity from thirty three leading scholars The volume systematically introduces and examines dramatic shifts in Catholic and Protestant Christianity over the course of several centuries Its four sections explore the emergence of colonial Christianity its institutional and popular evolution and its dynamic role the region's contemporary developments Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture, 2010-01-01 Christianity exists in relation to and interacts with its cultural environment in a number of ways In this volume authors from a wide variety of backgrounds explore various facets of the relationship and interaction of Christianity with its cultural environment politics society esthetics religion and spirituality and with itself Divided into three main sections Crossroad Discourses between Christianity and Culture looks at the interaction of Christianity with culture in the first section with other religions and spiritualities in the second and finally with itself in the third The contributions engage in a critical examination of not only the culture in which Christianity finds itself but also in a critical examination of Christianity itself and its interaction with that culture The editors hope that teachers students and readers in general will profit greatly from the critical articles contained in this book The Liberation Debate Dan Cohn-Sherbok, Michael Leahy, 2005-08-08 This well documented collection challenges the reader to examine and judge the arguments in six areas of contemporary unrest women's liberation black liberation gay liberation children's liberation animal liberation and liberation in the Third World It refrains from taking a single point of view thus allowing the reader to gain an insight into the various aspects of the debate Designed both for students and a general audience The Liberation Debate encourages readers to become active participants in fraught and topical debates Let Justice Roll Neal Riemer, 1996

Written by prominent scholars from a wide range of disciplines this diverse collection of essays discusses the contemporary relevance of the prophetic mode and challenges in the areas of religion politics and society The contributors critically investigate the creative interaction between the religious and secular domains and explain how the prophetic mode can provide solutions to pressing problems such as war oppression poverty hunger and discrimination The essays explore possibilities of achieving an integration of prophetic ethics social scientific understanding and democratic and constitutional statecraft and they describe how the prophetic mode currently manifests itself in political philosophy history religion and literature

Charles Hartshorne's Concept of God S. Sia, 2013-03-14 Charles Hartshorne's considerable writings have been influential in contemporary religious and philosophical thought Not only is he regarded as the leading living representative of process thought as well as a much respected interpreter of Whitehead but he has also established himself as an original and creative thinker in his own right The literature on his philosophy has been rapidly increasing His thought and influence have also been the subject of a number of conferences and gatherings of scholars One of Hartshorne's most notable contributions to contemporary philosophy and theology is his concept of God In his writings he has set out to formulate the idea of deity so as to preserve perhaps increase its religious value while yet avoiding the contradictions which seem inseparable from the idea as customarily defined The result of his efforts has been the development of the concept of a dipolar God insofar as contrasting metaphysical predicates e.g. relative absolute contingent necessary finite infinite and so on are affirmed as applicable to God although always in an eminent way Inasmuch as he has elaborated this concept in close dialogue with classical theism he also refers to it as neo-classical Because of the emphasis he places on the reality of change and becoming in his metaphysics which regards God as the chief exemplification of metaphysical principles the term process has likewise been used to describe his notion of God
