Frs Yorke And The Evolution Of English Modernism:

FRS Yorke, 2003 FRS Yorke Jeremy Melvin, 2003-05-07 F R S Yorke was an influential architect in the 20th century and his book The Modern House set the pattern for architects for the rest of the century This book provides the full details of this life of an important figure in the development of modern architecture The Practice of Modernism John R.

Gold, 2007-06-13 Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of post war urban reconstruction

Designing the British Post-War Home Fiona Fisher, 2015-04-10 In Designing the British Post War Home Fiona Fisher explores the development of modern domestic architecture in Britain through a detailed study of the work of the successful Surrey based architectural practice of Kenneth Wood Wood s firm is representative of a geographically distinct category of post war architectural and design practice that of the small private practice that flourished in Britain s expanding suburbs after the removal of wartime building restrictions Such firms which played an important role in the development of British domestic design are currently under represented within architectural histories of the period The private house represents an important site in which new spatial material and aesthetic parameters for modern living were defined after the Second World War Within a British context the architect designed private house remained an important vehicle for the investigation of architectural ideas by second generation modernist architects and designers Through a series of case study houses designed by Wood s firm the book reconsiders the progress of modern domestic architecture in Britain and demonstrates the ways in which architectural discourse and practice intersected with the experience performance and representation of domestic modernity in post war Britain Re-forming Britain Elizabeth Darling, 2007-01-24 A study of how architects from the late 1920s onwards sought to establish modernism as the dominant ideology in British architecture and to convert the nation to their ideology Architectural History Retold Paul Davies, 2015-08-27 How much do you know about Greek architecture Roman Gothic The Renaissance Modernism Perhaps more importantly do you know how these are connected or how one style evolved to become another Or what happened historically during each of these periods Architectural History Retold is your roadmap for your journey through architectural history Offering a fresh take on what the author calls the Great Enlightenment project it traces the grand narrative of western architecture in one concise accessible volume Starting in Ancient Greece and leading up to the present day Paul Davies unconventional engaging style brings the past back to life helping you to think beyond separate components and styles to recognise the bigger picture The author is an academic and journalist with three decades of experience in introducing students to architectural history The book is based on his successful entry level course which has used the same unstuffy approach to break down barriers to understanding and engagement and inspire generations of students The Festival of Britain Harriet Atkinson, 2012-04-24 The Festival of Britain in 1951 transformed the way people saw their war ravaged nation Giving Britons an intimate experience of contemporary design and modern building it helped them accept a landscape under reconstruction and brought hope of a better world to come Drawing on previously unseen sketches and plans photographs and interviews The Festival of Britain A Land and Its People travels beyond the Festival's spectacular centrepiece at London's South Bank to show how the Festival made the whole country an exhibition ground with events to which hundreds of the country's greatest architects artists and designers contributed It explores exhibitions in Poplar Battersea and South Kensington in London Belfast Glasgow and Wales a touring show carried on four lorries and another aboard an ex aircraft carrier It reveals how all these exhibitions and also plays poetry art and films commissioned for the Festival had a single focus to unite the land and people of Britain The

Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available Forty Ways to Think About Architecture Iain Borden, Murray Fraser, Barbara Penner, 2015-03-11 How do we think about architecture historically and theoretically Forty Ways to Think about Architecture provides an introduction to some of the wide ranging ways in which architectural history and theory are being approached today The inspiration for this project is the work of Adrian Forty Professor of Architectural History at the Bartlett School of Architecture University College London UCL who has been internationally renowned as the UK's leading academic in the discipline for 40 years Forty's many publications notably Objects of Desire 1986 Words and Buildings 2000 and Concrete and Culture 2012 have been crucial to opening up new approaches to architectural history and theory and have helped to establish entirely new areas of study His teaching at The Bartlett has enthused a new generation about the exciting possibilities of architectural history and theory as a field This collection takes in a total of 40 essays covering key subjects ranging from memory and heritage to everyday life building materials and city spaces As well as critical theory philosophy literature and experimental design it refers to more immediate and topical issues in the built environment such as globalisation localism regeneration and ecologies Concise and engaging entries reflect on architecture from a range of perspectives Contributors include eminent historians and theorists from elsewhere such as Jean Louis Cohen Briony Fer Hilde Heynen Mary McLeod Griselda Pollock Penny Sparke and Anthony Vidler as well as Forty's colleagues from the Bartlett School of Architecture including Iain Borden Murray Fraser Peter Hall Barbara Penner Jane Rendell and Andrew Saint Forty Ways to Think about Architecture also features contributions from distinguished architects such as Tony Fretton Jeremy Till and Sarah Wigglesworth and well known critics and architectural writers such as Tom Dyckhoff William Menking and Thomas Weaver Many of the contributors are former students of Adrian Forty Through these diverse essays readers are encouraged to think about how architectural history and theory relates to their own research and design practices thus using the work of Adrian Forty as a catalyst for fresh and innovative thinking about architecture as a subject Broadcasting Buildings Shundana Yusaf, 2014-02-28 How the BBC shaped popular perceptions of architecture and placed them at the heart of debates over participatory democracy Man-Made Future Iain Boyd Whyte, 2006-12-19 This anthology of essays by a group of distinguished scholars investigates post 1945 city planning in Britain not from a technical viewpoint but as a polemical visual and educational phenomenon shifting the focus of scholarly interest towards the often neglected emotional and aesthetic aspects of post war planning Each essay is grounded in original archival research and sheds new light on this critical era in the development of modern town planning This collection is a valuable resource for architectural social and urban historians as well as students and researchers offering new insights into the development of the mid twentieth century city

Art Deco Architecture Mike Hope, 2019-07-22 Art Deco burst upon the world for a brief but unforgettable existence during the 1920s and 1930s It embraced new media such as the cinema and radio as well as new forms of transport and the associated buildings and above all brought a sense of luxury fun and escapism to the world during some of the hardest times Art Deco Architecture The Inter War Period examines the sources and origins of the style from before the First World War It offers an in depth exploration of the origins inspirations and political backdrop behind this popular style Lavishly illustrated with images taken especially for the book topics covered include a worldwide examination of the spread and usage of Art Deco short biographical essays on architects and architectural practices an in depth examination of French architects and their output from this period an introduction to stunning and little known buildings from around the world and finally the importance of World Fairs and Expositions in the spread of Art Deco

The Architects' Journal ,2005-07 RIBA Journal ,2003

Modern in the Middle Susan Benjamin, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2020-09-01 The first survey of the classic twentieth century houses that defined American Midwestern modernism Famed as the birthplace of that icon of twentieth century architecture the skyscraper Chicago also cultivated a more humble but no less consequential form of modernism the private residence Modern in the Middle Chicago Houses 1929 75 explores the substantial yet overlooked role that Chicago and its suburbs played in the development of the modern single family house in the twentieth century In a city often associated with the outsize reputations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe the examples discussed in this generously illustrated book expand and enrich the story of the region's built environment Authors Susan Benjamin and Michelangelo Sabatino survey dozens of influential houses by architects whose contributions are ripe for reappraisal such as Paul Schweikher Harry Weese Keck Keck and William Pereira From the bold early example of the Battledock House by Henry Dubin 1930 to John Vinci and Lawrence Kenny's gem the Freeark House 1975 the generation spanning residences discussed here reveal how these architects contended with climate and natural setting while negotiating the dominant influences of Wright and Mies They also reveal how residential clients typically middle class professionals progressive in their thinking helped to trailblaze modern architecture in America Though reflecting different approaches to site space structure and materials the examples in Modern in the Middle reveal an abundance of astonishing houses that have never been collected into one study until now

A History of Interior Design John F. Pile, 2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap Blueprint ,2007

Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher,2020-03-12 Reconstructing Modernism establishes for the first time the centrality of modernist buildings and architectural periodicals to British mid century literature Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself While the city has long been a focus of literary modernist studies architectural modernism has never had its due Scholars usually characterize architectural modernism as a parallel modernism or even an incompatible modernism to literature Giving special attention to dystopian classics Brave New World and Nineteen Eighty Four this study argues that sustained attention to modern architecture shaped mid century authors political and aesthetic commitments After many writers deemed modernist architects to be agents for communism and other collectivist movements they squared themselves and literary modernist detachment and aesthetic autonomy against the seemingly tyrannical utopianism of modern architecture literary aesthetic qualities were reclaimed as political qualities In this way Reconstructing Modernism redraws the boundaries of literary modernist studies rather than simply adding to its canon it argues that the responsibility for defining literary modernism for the mid century public was shared by an incredible variety of authors Edwardians modernists satirists and even anti modernists

Mediating Modernism Andrew Higgott,2007-01-24 Well illustrated Mediating Modernism demonstrates how architectural books and journals have created the architectural culture of the twentieth century and that nowhere is this truer than in Britain Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,1980
