Fugger Newsletters 1568 1605:

Merchants and Marvels Pamela Smith, Paula Findlen, 2013-10-18 The beginning of global commerce in the early modern period had an enormous impact on European culture changing the very way people perceived the world around them Merchants and Marvels assembles essays by leading scholars of cultural history art history and the history of science and technology to show how ideas about the representation of nature in both art and science underwent a profound transformation between the age of the Renaissance and the early 1700s News in Times of Conflict Jan

Hillgärtner, 2021-03-15 News in Times of Conflict traces the development and spread of the newspaper and the development of the printing industry in Germany in the first half of the seventeenth century Based on an inspection of all printed newspapers of this period the book offers an overview of regional and thematic reporting and the development of journalistic styles and ethics The book offers an examination of the coverage of two major events the death of the Swedish king Gustavus Adolphus and the execution of King Charles I of England These case studies provide the opportunity for a comparison with the newspaper markets in France England and the Low Countries and with the provision of news through manuscript newsletters

News Networks in Early Modern Europe, 2016-06-27 News Networks in Early Modern Europe attempts to redraw the history of European news communication in the 16th and 17th centuries News is defined partly by movement and circulation yet histories of news have been written overwhelmingly within national contexts This volume of essays explores the notion that early modern European news in all its manifestations manuscript print and oral is fundamentally transnational These 37 essays investigate the language infrastructure and circulation of news across Europe They range from the 15th to the 18th centuries and from the Ottoman Empire to the Americas focussing on the mechanisms of transmission the organisation of networks the spread of forms and modes of news communication and the effects of their translation into new locales and languages The Dissemination of News and the Emergence of Contemporaneity in Early Modern Europe

Brendan Maurice Dooley, 2010 Modern communications allow the instant dissemination of information and images creating a sensation of virtual presence or contemporaneity at events that occur far away But how were time and space conceived before modernity When did this begin to change in Europe To help answer such questions this volume looks at the exchange of information and the development of communications networks at the dawn of journalism when widespread public and private networks first emerged for the transmission of political news The collection offers the first panoramic view of the way stories were born grew and matured during their transmission from source to source from country to country The results published here suggest that a continent wide network including manuscript and print for the transmission of stories from place to place existed and was effective Interpreting Early Modern Europe C. Scott Dixon, Beat Kümin, 2019-09-11

Interpreting Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive collection of essays on the historiography of the early modern period circa 1450 1800 Concerned with the principles priorities theories and narratives behind the writing of early modern history the book places particular emphasis on developments in recent scholarship Each chapter written by a prominent historian caught up in the debates is devoted to the varieties of interpretation relating to a specific theme or field considered integral to understanding the age providing readers with a behind the scenes look at how historians have worked and still work within these fields At one level the emphasis is historiographical with the essays engaged in a direct dialogue with the influential theories methods assumptions and conclusions in each of the fields At another level the contributions emphasise the historical dimensions of interpretation providing readers with surveys of the component parts that make up the modern narratives Supported by extensive bibliographies primary materials and appendices with extracts from key secondary debates Interpreting Early Modern Europe provides a systematic exploration of how historians have shaped the study of the early modern past It is essential reading for students of early modern history For a comprehensive overview of the history of early modern Europe see the partnering volume The European World 3ed Edited by Beat Kumin <https://www.routledge.com/The-European-World-1500-1800-An-Introduction-to-Early-Modern-History/Kuminah2/p/book/9781138119154> Refuge from Inhumanity? War Refugees and International Humanitarian Law David Cantor, Jean-François Durieux, 2014-07-10 This book contributes to a long standing but ever topical debate about whether persons fleeing war to seek asylum in another country war refugees are protected by international law It seeks to add to this debate by bringing together a detailed set of analyses examining the extent to which the application of international humanitarian law IHL may usefully advance the legal protection of such persons This generates a range of questions about the respective protection frameworks established under international refugee law and IHL and specifically the potential for interaction between them As the first collection to deal with the subject the eighteen chapters that make up this unique volume supply a range of perspectives on how the relationship between these two separate fields of law may be articulated and whether IHL may contribute to providing refuge from the inhumanity of war Credibility in Elizabethan and Early Stuart Military News David Randall, 2015-10-06 Elizabethan and early Stuart England saw the prevailing medium for transmitting military news shift from public ritual through private letters to public newspapers This study is based on an examination of hundreds of manuscript news letters printed pamphlets and corantos and news diaries which are in holdings in the US and the UK The Mediterranean and the Mediterranean World in the Age of Philip II Fernand Braudel, 1995 Braudel's Mediterranean is a tour de force one of the classics of this century's historical writing Charles Tilly author of As Sociology Meets History The Intelligence of the Secretaries of State Peter Fraser, 2011-06-30 This is a 1956 study of the Secretaries of State in Restoration England Monstrous Adversary Alan H. Nelson, 2003-01-01 The Elizabethan Court poet Edward de Vere has since 1920 lived a notorious second wholly illegitimate life as the putative author of the poems and plays of William Shakespeare The work reconstructs Oxford's life assesses his poetic works and demonstrates the absurdity of attributing Shakespeare's works to him The first documentary biography of Oxford in over seventy years Monstrous Adversary seeks to measure the real Oxford against the myth Impeccably researched and presenting many documents written by Oxford himself Nelson s book provides a unique insight into Elizabethan society and manners through the eyes of a man whose life was privately scandalous and richly documented

A History of Africa Hosea Jaffe,2017-02-15 Spanning more than two thousand years of African history from the African Iron Age to the collapse of colonialism and the beginnings of independence Hosea Jaffe s magisterial work remains one of the few to do full justice to the continent s complex and diverse past The great strength of Jaffe s work lies in its unique theoretical perspective which stresses the distinctive character of Africa s social structures and historical development Crucially Jaffe rejects all efforts to impose Eurocentric models of history onto Africa whether it be liberal notions of progress or Marxist theories of class struggle arguing instead that the key dynamics underpinning African history are unique to the continent itself and rooted in conflicts between different modes of production The work also includes a foreword by the distinguished economist and political theorist Samir Amin in which he outlines the contribution of Jaffe s work to our understanding of African history and its ongoing post colonial struggles

Italian Communication on the Revolt in the Low Countries (1566-1648) Nina Lamal,2023-02-13 This groundbreaking book is the first comprehensive study of Italian communication on the Revolt in the Low Countries Nina Lamal provides a compelling account of the deep Italian involvement in this long conflict also known as the Eighty Years War Drawing upon a wide range of sources in manuscript and print including newsletters printed pamphlets political treatises and historical narratives Lamal investigates how news on the conflict was brought to the Italian peninsula and how it influenced political debates as well as historical discourses She unravels why it had such an impact in this complex political environment In doing so she also casts new light on the meaning of the Revolt itself

The Gender Binary Is a Big Lie Lee Wind,2024-08-06 What if you discovered that the whole concept of a gender binary is an illusion While many people identify as men or women that is not all there is The idea that all humans fall into one of two gender categories is largely a construct created by those who benefit from that belief The reality is that gender is naturally diverse falling inside and outside of those boxes and more expansive ideas of gender have always existed In the second book of the Queer History Project The Gender Binary Is a Big Lie Infinite Identities around the World author Lee Wind uses historical evidence and primary sources poetry ancient burial sites firsthand accounts and news stories to explore gender roles and identities Gender identities and physical bodies are as diverse as the human experience Get ready to shatter those preconceived notions of nothing but a gender binary and dive deep into expressions of gender both past and present that reveal the infinite variety and beauty of everyone s gender
