Fugitive Images:

Image Matters Tina Campt, 2012-03-06 Campt explores the affective resonances of two archives of Black European photographs for those pictured their families and the community Image Matters looks at photograph collections of four Black German families taken between 1900 and the end of World War II and a set of portraits of Afro Caribbean migrants to Britain taken at a photographic studio in Birmingham between 1948 and 1960 No Power Without an Image Libby

Saxton, 2020-09-25 The first detailed study of what filmic images can tell us about iconic photographs No Power Without an Image reveals the multifaceted connections between seven celebrated photographs of political struggles taken between 1936 and 1968 and cinema in all its forms Moving from the paper cinema of magazines via newsreels and film journals to documentary fiction and experimental films this fascinating book draws on original archival research and multidisciplinary icon theory to explore new ways of thinking about the confluence of still and moving images Image & Imagination

Martha Langford, 2005 A richly illustrated exploration of the imagination in photography featuring the work of over sixty international artists The Pensive Image Hanneke Grootenboer, 2021-02-16 Grootenboer considers painting as a form of thinking in itself rather than a subject of philosophical and interpretive thought While the philosophical dimension of painting has long been discussed a clear case for painting as a form of visual thinking has yet to be made Traditionally vanitas still life paintings are considered to raise ontological issues while landscapes direct the mind toward introspection Grootenboer moves beyond these considerations to focus on what remains unspoken in painting the implicit and inexpressible that manifests in a quality she calls pensiveness Different from self aware or actively desiring images pensive images are speculative pointing beyond interpretation An alternative pictorial category pensive images stir us away from interpretation and toward a state of suspension where thinking through and with the image can start In fluid prose Grootenboer explores various modalities of visual thinking as the location where thought should be found as a refuge enabling reflection and as an encounter that provokes thought Through these considerations she demonstrates that artworks serve as models for thought as much as they act as instruments through which thinking can take place Starting from the premise that painting is itself a type of thinking The Pensive Image argues that art is capable of forming thoughts and shaping concepts in visual terms

Adolfo Bioy Casares Karl Posso, 2012-11-15 Best known as Jorge Luis Borges's right hand man Adolfo Bioy Casares 1914-1999 was in his own right an inventive writer of considerable skill His works often dismissed summarily as fantastic fiction are now ripe for reassessment This volume looks at Bioy's extensive oeuvre which offers many surprising reflections on the twentieth century's cultural social and political transformations both in Argentina and farther afield Topics covered include Bioy's meditations on isolation and logic and his enduring fascination with the impact of photography on all artistic representation Lens, Laboratory, Landscape Claudia Schaefer, 2014-08-26 Lens Laboratory Landscape focuses on competing views about the power of vision in Spain between the 1830s and the 1950s The photographic lens laboratory microscope retinal vision of philosopher Jos Ortega y Gasset and the topographical studies of Manuel de Ter n are woven together in and around a European cultural milieu that gave observation primacy For once Spain now bereft of its empire was not on the outside of such debates Whether in the laboratory family home darkroom art gallery or on the road in Cuba or Zaragoza Madrid or Massachusetts Spanish artists and scientists were engaged with the social and economic power of observation at a time when the speed of modern life made observing a challenge Claudia Schaefer brings the technologies of the eye photograph microscope lens tools for land surveying to light as markers on the nation s touted path to modernity

Engaged Urbanism Ben Campkin, Ger Duijzings, 2016-11-25 Engaged Urbanism showcases the exciting ways in which urbanists are responding to this question and working towards fairer cities Its authors offer succinct candid and carefully illustrated commentaries on the trials and successes of risk taking research revealing how they collaborate across fields of expertise inventing or adapting methods to suit bespoke situations Featuring novel uses and combinations of practice from activism architectural design and undercover journalism to film sculpture performance and photography in a diversity of cities such as Beirut Johannesburg Kisumu London and Rio de Janeiro Engaged Urbanism demonstrates how some of the greatest challenges for present and future populations are being rigorously and creatively addressed Rites of Realism

Ivone Margulies, 2003-03-27 A collection of essays rethinking and reviving realism as a focus for film theory particularly emphasizing the relation of the genre to issues of the body Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith, 2020-01-03 In Photographic Returns Shawn Michelle Smith traces how historical moments of racial crisis come to be known photographically and how the past continues to inhabit punctuate and transform the present through the photographic medium in contemporary art Smith engages photographs by Rashid Johnson Sally Mann Deborah Luster Lorna Simpson Jason Lazarus Carrie Mae Weems Taryn Simon and Dawoud Bey among others Each of these artists turns to the past whether by using nineteenth century techniques to produce images or by re creating iconic historic photographs as a way to use history to negotiate the present and to call attention to the unfinished political project of racial justice in the United States By interrogating their use of photography to recall revise and amplify the relationship between racial politics of the past and present Smith locates a temporal recursivity that is intrinsic to photography in which images return to haunt the viewer and prompt reflection on the present and an imagination of a more just future Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald s books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies

Writing, Authorship and Photography in British Literary Culture, 1880 - 1920 Emily Ennis, 2022-03-24 At the turn of the 20th century printing and photographic technologies evolved rapidly leading to the birth of mass media and the rise of the amateur photographer Demonstrating how this development happened symbiotically with great changes in the shape of British literature Writing Authorship and Photography in British Literary Culture 1880 1920 explores this co-evolution showing that as both writing and photography became tools of mass dissemination literary writers were forced to re-evaluate their professional and personal identities Focusing on four key authors Thomas Hardy Bram Stoker Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf each of which had their own private and professional connections to photographs this book offers valuable historical contexts for contemporary cultural developments and anxieties At first establishing the authors response to developing technologies through their non-fiction personal correspondences and working drafts Ennis moves on to examine how their perceptions of photography extend into their major works of fiction A Laodicean Dracula The Secret Agent The Inheritors and The Voyage Out Reflecting on the first graphic revolution in a world where text and image are now reproduced digitally and circulated en masse and online Ennis redirects our attention to when image and text appeared alongside each other for the first time and the crises this sparked for authors how they would respond to increasingly photographic depictions of everyday life and in turn how their writing adapted to a distinctly visual mass media Illusions: a Psychological Study James Sully,1891 Illusions James Sully,1905

Images of Traumatic Memories Anja Meyer,2020-12-14 By employing the lens of the most recent critical studies on intermediality the author analyses the interaction between literature and photography in three contemporary hybrid novels Miss Peregrine s Home for Peculiar Children by Ransom Riggs 2011 Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer 2005 and The Dark Room by Rachel Seiffert 2001 sharing the narration of traumatic historical events The intermedial dimension realised by the confluence of the two media devices offers new ways to create meaning and to reflect upon the nature of collective and individual trauma by re enacting the distortion and the inaccessibility to the memories of those experiences In this context the reader emerges as an active participant in the process of fiction making as the act of reading becomes a renewed act of witnessing Vanishing Women Karen Redrobe Beckman,2003-04 Disappearing women as a persistent trope from nineteenth century magic through contemporary theory film and psychoanalysis The Public Image Robert Hariman,John Louis Lucaites,2016-11-07 Even as the media environment has changed dramatically in recent years one thing at least remains true photographs are everywhere From professional news photos to smartphone selfies images have become part of the fabric of modern life And that may be the problem Even as photography bears witness it provokes anxieties about fraudulent representation even as it evokes compassion it prompts anxieties about excessive exposure Parents and pundits alike worry about the unprecedented media saturation that transforms society into an image world And yet a great news photo can still stop us in our tracks and the ever expanding photographic archive documents an era of continuous change By confronting these conflicted reactions to photography Robert Hariman and John Louis Lucaites make the case for a fundamental shift in understanding photography and public culture In place of suspicions about the medium s capacity for distraction deception and manipulation they suggest how it can provide resources for democratic communication and thoughtful reflection about contemporary social problems The key to living well in the image world is to unlock photography from viewing habits that inhibit robust civic spectatorship Through insightful interpretations of dozens of news images The Public Image reveals how the artistry of the still image can inform challenge and guide reflection regarding endemic violence environmental degradation income inequity and other chronic problems that will define the twenty first century By shifting from conventional suspicions to a renewed encounter with the image we are challenged to see more deeply on behalf of a richer life for all and to acknowledge our obligations as spectators who are crucially also citizens

The ^AGhost in the Image Cecilia Sayad,2021-11-02 The Ghost in the Image offers a new take on the place that supernatural phenomena occupy in everyday life by examining nonfictional works not traditionally associated with the horror genre and participative forms of engaging with horror themes such as experiential viewing and game playing The book covers a variety of media spirit photography found footage horror movies ghost hunting reality shows documentary and fiction films based on the Amityville and Enfield hauntings survival games and creepypasta These works transform our interest in ghosts into an interactive form of entertainment and perhaps disturbingly brings them closer to the reality of our everyday lives      On Dreams Synesius (of Cyrene, Bishop of Ptolemais.),1888      Work and Play David D. Hamlin,2007
