Fulfilling The Dream Confronting The Challenge Of Racism:

Fulfilling the Dream Ronice E. Branding,1998 This book weaves the theological with the practical and offers strategies for combating racism in chewable bites that can be accomplished at the individual and congregational level A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further No Partiality Douglas R. Sharp,2002-01-01 Douglas Sharp explores the theoretical constructions of race including its psychological sociopolitical and socioeconomic dimensions Finally Sharp carefully weaves a theological model of racial reconciliation for a new humanity Seeing God in Each Other Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2006-03 Rooted in an abiding hope that congregations are one of the few places where people can work together for positive human change This book presents a selection of essays by respected Anglicans and also includes suggestions on what parishes can do to support the vision of an anti racist church American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Achieving the Dream National Center for Immigrant Students (U.S.),1993 This manual is designed to support community organizations concerned educators and parents as they work to improve local public schools on behalf of immigrant students Each chapter focuses on central elements of quality schooling from the perspective of the young immigrant Within each chapter an analysis of current conditions prevalent in most U S public schools is followed by a series of action steps that activists can take to improve local schools Concluding each chapter is a resource section that offers a list of publications and organizations pertinent to the main subject of the chapter Chapter topics are as follows 1 Parent Participation 2 Assessment and Placement 3 Learning Environment 4 School Social Climate 5 Support Services 6 School Funding and 7 Taking Action The manual concludes with a directory of state and national immigrant student and immigrant family advocacy and support organizations GLR Immigrant Dreams and New York City Adventure Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-19 Immerse yourself in the captivating story of Puerto Ricans in New York City a tale of struggle resilience and triumph From the early pioneers who arrived in the late 19th century to the vibrant community that thrives today this book chronicles the experiences of Puerto

Ricans as they navigated the challenges of immigration discrimination and poverty to build a new life in the Big Apple Through the eyes of these resilient individuals we witness the hardships they endured the sacrifices they made and the dreams they dared to pursue We learn about the challenges they faced in finding work securing housing and raising families in a city that was often hostile to newcomers Yet despite these obstacles they persevered establishing thriving businesses contributing to the city s cultural landscape and raising generations of successful and proud Americans This book is more than just a historical account it is a celebration of the Puerto Rican spirit It is a testament to the power of hope determination and the unwavering pursuit of a better life Through their stories we gain a deeper understanding of the immigrant experience and the profound impact it has had on the shaping of New York City and the nation as a whole Join us on this captivating journey through time as we explore the rich history culture and legacy of Puerto Ricans in New York City

Achieving the Impossible Dream Mitchell Takeshi

Maki, Harry H. L. Kitano, Sarah Megan Berthold, 1999 The Redress Movement refers to efforts to obtain the restitution of civil rights an apology and or monetary compensation from the U S government during the six decades that followed the World War II mass removal and confinement of Japanese Americans Early campaigns emphasized the violation of constitutional rights lost property and the repeal of anti Japanese legislation 1960s activists linked the wartime detention camps to contemporary racist and colonial policies In the late 1970s three organizations pursued redress in court and in Congress culminating in the passage of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988 providing a national apology and individual payments of 20 000 to surviving detainees

Home Away from Home Delroy A. Reid-Salmon, 2014-12-18 An estimated two thirds of Caribbeans live outside their homeland Home Away from Home identifies the different forms of Caribbean diasporan identity and argues that the faith Caribbean people brought with them into the diaspora plays a central role in their development The study provides a theological interpretation of the diasporan experience and outlines the principles of diasporan theology and the distinctiveness of its church Focusing on the Caribbean diaspora in the US and analysing aspects of the Caribbean British diaspora the book forges a Black Atlantic theology The volume also engages with wider discourse on the Black diaspora to offer an inclusive Caribbean diasporan ecclesiology that overcomes Black African American Euro American binaries

Transformational Change in Community Colleges Christine Johnson McPhail, Kimberly Beatty, 2023-07-03 From the foreword by Walter G Bumphus President CEO of AACC Becoming an Equity Centered Higher Education Institution is a significant contribution to the on going struggle to find practical approaches to implementing an equity agenda in higher education The authors had three main goals for this text Relevance This book is the result of many years of teaching leading researching and coaching individuals and institutions about equity inside higher education The authors place a clear emphasis on awareness and teaching skills first but also ensure that those skills are based on practical application in the field Practical Application To describe and explain equity and transformational change concepts this book provides step by step implementation approaches that can be used to integrate equity centered principles into practices and policies to implement or improve equity work into the organizational culture A Purposeful Approach The authors defined the act of becoming an equity centered institution in terms of a transformational change approach using Kotter s Eight Stage Process Kotter s Model and AACC s Leadership Competencies for Community College Leaders are introduced in Chapter 1 and integrated throughout the book This integrated framework allows practitioners to place the intersectionality of equity transformational change and requisite leadership competencies into the larger context of higher education While using Kotter s 8 Step Change Model the authors emphasize that operations and situations inside higher educational institutions are not linear as implied in Kotter s model They show how the stages of change may occur at different times and different situations at different institutions and demonstrate what leadership competencies are recommended for each stage in the change process

The End of Racism Dinesh D'Souza, 1996-09-30 The first comprehensive inquiry into the history nature and ultimate meaning of racism Difficult Subjects Badia Ahad-Legardy, OiYan A. Poon, 2023-07-03 Difficult Subjects Insights and Strategies for Teaching about Race Sexuality and Gender is a collection of essays from scholars across disciplines institutions and ranks that offers diverse and multi faceted approaches to teaching about subjects that prove both challenging and often uncomfortable for both the professor and the student It encourages college educators to engage in forms of practice that do not pretend that teachers and students are unaffected by world events and incidents that highlight social inequalities Readers will find the collected essays useful for identifying new approaches to taking on the difficult subjects of race gender and sexuality The book will also serve as inspiration for academics who believe that their area of study does not allow for such pedagogical inquiries to also teach in ways that address difficult subjects Contributors to this volume span a range of disciplines from criminal justice to gender studies to organic chemistry and demonstrate the productive possibilities that can emerge in college classrooms when faculty consider identity as constitutive of rather than divorced from their academic disciplines Discussions of race gender and sexuality are always hot button issues in the college classroom whether they emerge in response to a national event or tragedy or constitute the content of the class over a semester long term Even seasoned professors who specialize in these areas find it difficult to talk about identity politics in a room full of students And many professors for whom issues of racial and sexual identity is not a primary concern find it even more challenging to raise these issues with students Offering reflections and practical guidance the book accounts for a range of challenges facing college educators and encourages faculty to teach with courage and conviction especially when it feels as though the world around us is crashing down upon our students and ourselves
