Fulfillment Hour:

The Danielic Eschatological Hour in the Johannine Literature Stefanos Mihalios, 2011-03-17 Stefanos Mihalios examines the uses of the hour in the writings of John and demonstrates the contribution of Danielic eschatology to John's understanding of this concept. Mihalios begins by tracing the notion of an eschatological time in the Old Testament within expressions such as in that time and time of distress which also appear in the book of Daniel and relate to the eschatological hour found in Daniel. Mihalios finds that even within the Jewish tradition there exists an anticipation of the fulfillment of the Danielic eschatological time since the eschatological hour appears in the Jewish literature within contexts that allude to the Danielic end time events. Mihalios moves on to examine the Johannine eschatological expressions and themes that have their source in Daniel, finding evidence of clear allusions whenever the word hour arises. Through this examination he concludes that for the Johannine Jesus, use of the term hour indicates that the final hour of tribulation and resurrection as it is depicted in Daniel has arrived.

The Epistle of Jesus to the Church James D. Quiggle, 2008-01-01 The Epistle of Jesus to the Church is a commentary on the book of Revelation that assumes Jesus was the author and John the reporter of the words and events described Here one will not find an explanation of an anti Roman message written by John in hidden codes and apocalyptic motifs to fool Roman authorities John the apostle and prophet was the faithful scribe who did not create the message but faithfully and accurately described all that he saw and heard This commentary follows the principle that the Scriptures explain themselves because the Revelation is a word from Jesus to his church a word that is grounded in the Scriptures The Epistle of Jesus to the Church has been written with teachers students and pastors in mind The interpretation of the book of Revelation is thorough difficult passages are addressed and plausible answers are provided to the questions posed by in depth study of the biblical book This is a commentary for personal study or classroom instruction one that may be confidently used to preach and teach the Revelation of Jesus to the church

Passover & Sukkot Thomas H. Perdue, 2011-09-27 Passover Sukkot Forever explains the adoption of Constantine s Counsel of Nicene in 325 CE of Pagan Christmas and Easter in the Christian faith and why those holidays celebrated in all Christian faith denominations should not be celebrated The work discusses why Passover should be recognized and will be ongoing forever and the Festival of Sukkot is the celebration and honoring of the birth of our Lord Written to show that Easter and Christmas are never mentioned in the Bible yet our churches today are celebrating Christmas as Christs birthday when it can be shown that Christ was born at an earlier time of the year In fact Christmas was not even introduced to America until the middle of the 19th Century

That the Scriptures Might Be Fulfilled through Perfect Worship Nathanael R. Polinski, 2019-11-12 The hour of Jesus is a fundamental theme running throughout John s Gospel 2 4 19 27 referring to Jesus glorification 7 39 12 16 23 28 13 31 32 16 14 17 1 5 in his passion and death 3 14 8 28 12 32 34 Immediately after the culmination of Jesus hour 19 25 30 John provides a unique account of things that took place following Jesus death 19 31 34 apparently important to his audience 19 35 in which he recognizes scriptural fulfillment 19 36 37 At first glance the fulfillment attested by the scriptures explicitly provided seems straightforward and of little significance simply corresponding with the fundamental elements of the narrative in 19 32 33 Yet such an understanding runs contrary to John's limited use of explicit Scripture citations compared with the other evangelists at a most critical moment in the Gospel. Rather consistent with his allusive and engaging style the evangelist relies on his audience to utilize the context he provides and the contexts he has presumed throughout his Gospel to perceive the depth and the expansiveness of the fulfillment he has recognized in Jesus' hour. It is through these contexts that we gain greater insight into the fulfillment attested by John 19 36 37 illuminating Jesus' hour and the entire Gospel.
