Newell,2014-06-06 Dare to imagine a new birth from deep within Christianity a fresh stirring of the Spirit The walls of Western Christianity are collapsing In many parts of the West that collapse can only be described as seismic There are three main responses or reactions to this collapse The first is to deny that it is happening The second is to frantically try to shore up the foundations of the old thing The third which I invite us into is to ask what is trying to be born that requires a radical reorientation of our vision What is the new thing that is trying to emerge from deep within us and from deep within the collective soul of Christianity from the Introduction In the midst of dramatic changes in Western Christianity internationally respected spiritual leader peacemaker and scholar John Philip Newell offers the hope of a fresh stirring of the Spirit among us He invites us to be part of a new holy birth of sacred living Speaking directly to the heart of Christians those within the well defined bounds of Christian practice and those on the disenchanting edges as well as to the faithful and seekers of other traditions he explores eight major features of a new birthing of Christianity Coming back into relationship with the Earth as sacred Reconnecting with compassion as the ground of true relationship Celebrating the Light that is at the heart of all life Reverencing the wisdom of other religious traditions Rediscovering spiritual practice as the basis for transformation Living the way of nonviolence among nations Looking to the unconscious as the wellspring of new vision Following love as the seed force of new birth in our lives and world United States Supreme Court Reports United States. First series books 1 43 includes Notes on U S reports by Walter Malins Rose The expositor's Greek Testament [with comm. by various scholars] ed. by W.R. Nicoll ,1903 Masques, Mayings and Music-dramas Roger Savage,2014 Masques Mayings and Music Dramas comprises a sequence of in depth case studies of significant aspects of early twentieth century English music theatre Vaughan Williams forms a central thread in this discussion and Stratford upon Avon serves as a geographical focus point for mediating conflicting visions of an English musical tradition But the reach of the book is much wider shedding new light on English Wagnerism at Glastonbury especially and on the reception of Wagner's ideas as a point of emulation and resistance No less significant is the discussion of Purcell and the seventeenth century masque one of the primary sources for re-imagining an English dramatic tradition and the more familiar images of the May festival the Mummings play and the pageant play which are tellingly re-contextualised The book also looks at the associations between Vaughan Williams the theatre artist Edward Gordon Craig and the impresario Serge Diaghilev The sequence is framed by the image of the pilgrim vagabond Vaughan Williams's setting of the poetry of Matthew Arnold and Robert Louis Stevenson as a metaphor and paradigm for his creative career and personal progress The book not only sheds light on the activities and ambitions of principal agents but also illuminates a particularly dynamic moment in the re-emergence of a distinctively English music theatrical practice one especially concerned with calling on aspects of the past to help to secure a worthwhile future Notions of Englishness turn out to be less insular than sometimes thought and the idea of a musical renaissance more complex when the case studies are understood in their proper historical context Scholars and students of twentieth century English music theatre and opera will find this volume indispensable Roger Savage is Honorary Fellow in English Literature at the University of Edinburgh He has published widely on theatre and its interface with music from the baroque to the twentieth century in leading journals and books
